GERMAN COLLAPSE FEARED BY EDITOR

Dark Picture Is Drawn by Vorwaerts for Fatherland in Connection With Bulgar Situation.

Arasterdam, Sept. 30 .- A dark, almost despondent, picture of Germany's position as the result of Bulgaria's defection is drawn by the official organ of the German Socialist party, Vortria-Hungary and Turkey following

Bulgaria's example. In an immediate creation democratic German government, Vorwaerts sees the only salvation of the empire from utter defeat, invasion and destruction.

The fact that the article was permitted to be published, and that excerpts were allowed to be sent beyond cerpts were allowed to be sent beyond the Cerman border, is regarded here

"We must today consider the following situation as possible: Bulgaria deserts the quadruple alliance and makes peace with the entente. Austria-Hungary and Turkey join in this step. We lose our influence in Poland and Ukraine. Our southwest arm reaches no further than Bodenbach in Bohemia, serts the quadruple alliance and makes near the Saxon frontier.

"Then the German people stand alone against France, Britain and America, and are fighting with their backs to German soldiers are discouraged. The into Germany. German towns are enveloped in smoke and flame. Retreating army and another army, that of fugitives from the invaded regions, roll eastwards. The stream overfloods the towns, spreads depression. There is no food, and no coal. Industry is stagnant. Hundreds of thousands die.

Revolts Within Are Pictured

"Bloody attempts are made to crush revolutionary outbreaks. The war is inside instead of outside the German frontiers. Death everywhere. "The government no longer has the strength of resistance. It concedes all the enemy demands.

when our wants can be satisfied much more cheaply. "It is now not a question of conquests, but of obtaining peace without disorder and unbearable burdens. "The government must do everything possible to come to the conference table as speedily as possible with its allies. But it must be a democratic German

Concluding, Vorwaerts appeals to the German gulers "to do their duty and realize that the people must be selfgoverning."

Shop Early, Give Useful Gifts, Is Christmas Advice

Economical and early Christmas shopping is advocated in a resolution passed by the State Council of Defense. Retail inferests represented at a conference with the State Council have agreed not to increase their working M. 5549 force by reason of the holiday business over the average force employed by them throughout the year and not to increase the working hours of their force during the Christmas buying period.
