Several Patients at The Auditorium Hospital Suffer From Complications of Pneumonia.

Principal Cleveland Is Taken III Death Reports Are Light, Despite Many Cases in State.

Decrease in the number of "influenza" mass reported to the city health hureau for Saturday and Sunday is indicated by his morning's reports of 122 cases representing reports from physicians throughout the city over the week-end. Several patients at The Auditorium hospital are suffering from pneumonia complications, but the majority are de-clared to be holding their own and many are improving so rapidly that their re-covery is deemed certain.

Four Deaths at Hospital

W. H. Shields aged 26, married and re-siding at 412 Stark street, died at The Auditorium early this morning of pneumonia, bringing the total deaths at the hospital to four. J. Livsey of 186 Ar-thur street, and J. J. Phillip, Rainier, hotel, died at The Auditorium early Sunday morning. Deaths reported from he Good Samaritan hospital are: Mrs. Nanche Buck, Sandy boulevard; Axel Carlton, 445 Vancouver avenue; R. R. Sean, 125 East Eleventh street, and Mrs. Andrew Arang of Oregon City. George A. Groshens, aged 28, single, of Heppner, Or., succumbed to pneumonia. He had been a member of the Portland fire department a short time, Dr. Leon Wolff, assistant city physician, who has seven patients at The Au-ditorium, reports that all are progressing so well that he expects them to be

Long Range Gun Captured

London, Oct. 21 .- (U. P.) -The French official statement issued Sunday night declared that despite bad weather the allied positions between the Oise and the Serre have been extended. East of Vernuil, the French reached the summit of heights west of Grandlup. All the French gains were made in the face of fierce counter attacks. East of Vouziers the outskirts of the village of Peronne troops are approaching St. Amand, eight miles northwest of Valenciennes Field Marshal Haig reported today. Contact with the enemy is being maintained. The British were also nearing the line of the Scheldt north of Tournal.

In their drive against Valenciennes from the southwest, English, Scottish and Welsh troops, fighting in a rain-storm, shattered desperate resistance by the Germans in the villages along the railway lines. Tanks went forward with the infantry and crossed the flooded Selle river. Working under heavy fire, the British threw bridges across the flooded Selle, and the artillery crossed the river close behind the infantry.

Raids Made in Alsace

Paris, Oct. 21.—(U. P.)—Raiding operatoins in Lorraine and Alsace resulted in capture of prisoners, the French war office announced today. (This may indicate that the allies are planning an attack on the southern part of the west front and are seeking in-formation of German troops in that region.)

"Between the Serre and the Alsne during the night there was increased artillery fire," the communique said. "In Lorraine and Alsace our raiders entered the German trenches and brought back prisoners. Elsewhere the front was calm."

Americans Near Dutch Border London, Oct. 21 .- (I. N. S.)-Heavy cannonading can be heard on the Dutch frontier from the region of Eccloo, said a dispatch from Sluis today. American and colonial troops and heavy artillery have been concentrated there, the dispatch added.

King Albert has arrived in Bruges. The Belgians who reached the Dutch border are said to have destroyed the frontier barrier.

Civilians to Be Accepted at Infantry Officers' School to Open December 1.

Washington, Oct. 21.—(I. N. S.)—A ew infantry officers' training school ill be established at Camp Fremont. cal, beginning December 1, the war department announced today. This camp will be for the purpose of producing second lieutenants for the infantry. The candidates will be admitted to this school from enlisted men of the army and civil life.

With the schools now in operation here is not sufficient material from the army, and it will be necessary to admit to the new school a large number of civilians. The following are eligible to make applications for this school: Draft registrants between the ages of 18 and 46, who are physically qualified for general military service, except regi-strants in class 1, qualified for general military service, who were registered prior to September 12, and registrants in deferred classification on ecount of occupation, industry or employment, including agriculture. Civilians in deferred classification, ex-pept on grounds of occupation, industry or employment, including agriculture, may be admitted to the school, and if not found qualified upon completion of the course may be discharged and have the option of a reversion to their original lassification under the selective service regulations.
