A committee of men has also been at work raising the last of the debt resting on the church building. They report splen-did progress and hope to report all pledged by Sunday.

Both junior and adult choirs will be at their work, having made special preparation for the resumption of the serv ice on Sunday. The special thanksgiving will be for the cessation of hostilities and the dawn of peace. Specia prayers will be said for the government President Wilson and the peace conference. In the evening the special thanksgiving will be for the abatement of the epidemic. Prayers will be said for all those still sick and also for all who have died as victims of the disease.
