POINDEXTER HAS LOFTY AMBITIONS

"Scold of Senate" Becomes Overly Critical in Effort to Grasp Party Leadership.

INGTON BUREAU OF THE JOUR-NAL)-Benator Poindexter has improved his title as the "Scold of the Senate by his latest resolution seeking to place the senate on record for "full alliance" with the other nations at war with Otherwise his latest effort has little significance, for the Republican leaders generally have too much discretion to make his ideas their own.

Poindexter apparently aspires to take a leading place as a critic of the administration, since the policy of criticism has become orthodox with his party. He is apparently shooting over the mark, and unless he curbs himself, will, in time, be taken in hand by the leaders to prevent his doing too much damage.

It is recalled that after the election of 1916 the Washington senator began to cuddle up in the same bed with the reactionaries he had formerly opposed. He failed on several occasions to act with of a Poindexter boom for vice president of a Poindexter boom for vice president were heard last spring, and the senator made a statement saying he was not a candidate. His recent effort at leadership in suggesting "impeachment" of President Wilson and now his resolution expressing, in effect, want of contion expressing, in effect, want of confidence in the executive to conduct foreign relations may be viewed in the light of these possible stretches of the Poindexter ambition.

Dr. Anna Shaw Is Member U.S. Navy

New York, Nov. 18 .- (U. P.) -- Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, 71, noted suffrage leader, joined the navy last night. In an address for the United War Work dampaign at Carnegie hall, Dr. Shaw compaign at Carnegie hall, Dr. Shaw compaign at Carnegie hall, Dr. Shaw compaign at Carnegie sall, and the state of the sta plained that the work of women in the war had not been recognized sufficiently, Secretary Daniels, who followed Dr. Shaw on the platform, promised to see that she is made a yeoman in the navy as soon as he gets back to Washington, and Dr. Shaw accepted the promise with thanks. Dr. Shaw doubtless will be the oldest "sailor" on active duty, it was said at Carnegie hall.
