New things do go up, if we are to believe the headline in a Portland newspaper. "Lafferty Decried by More Than 115,000 Votes."

MARINES FEAR CLUB'S STRENGTH, ACCORDING TO "LONESTAR" DIETZ

Multnomah's Game Against Thirteenth Division Makes Devil Dogs Sit Up and Take Notice; Sea Soldiers Have Heavier and More Experienced Eleven, Both in Line and in Backfield.

COACH "LONESTAR" DIETZ and his Mare Island marine football aggregation are not confident of trimming the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club team in Saturday's contest on the "Winged M" field, judging from the way the former Washington State college coach and his captain, Dick Hanley, talked shortly after their arrival in Portland Wednesday afternoon.

The victory Multnomah annexed over the strong Camp Lewis eleven threw a scare into the marines and they are expecting a real hard battle from the club eleven. Reports had reached the marines that the Multnomah eleven plays unclean football, but the clubmen are going out to show the marines that somebody has been fibbing.

Wednesday's workout of the Marines consisted of running around the club track, the late arrival of the train preventing the delivery of the Marines' outfits. This afternoon the Marines will engage in a stiff workout and Friday afternoon light signal practice is scheduled.

Says Team Was Outplayed. Dietz says his team was really outplayed by the St. Marys college team in last Saturday's contest at San Francisco, but whether he is saving this to throw a freight into his charges or to give the clubmen some confidence is not known. The Marines' weight gave them an advantage over the collegians.

The devil-dogs will outweigh Multnomah by a number of pounds, the difference coming in the backfields of the two teams. The club line is on a par with the Marines so far as weight is concerned, but the club backfield is decidedly lighter than the Mare Islanders' line plungers.

Have Fine Backfield. Dick Hanley, Bangs, Steers and Glover form a fine backfield combination and the football followers are going to be given a treat when they see this aggregation in action. All the players have had college experience, three of them being members of the W. S. C. and Steers having had two years under Hugo Bezdek. Dietz has 25 players with him and he intends to send in many substitutes in order that his team will be in the best of shape for the contest with Camp Lewis at Tacoma Thanksgiving day.

The lightest man on the marine squad weighs 155 pounds, while the others range from that mark up to 190, a majority of them hovering around the 185 pound limit.

Dewey Works All Speeds. Coach George Dewey of the club team is working hard with his players. He put them through a stiff workout Wednesday night and the squad will go through another hard practice this evening. This will be the club's final workout.

The great playing of Hughie McKenna, the midget quarterback of the club eleven, is still a topic of discussion among the fans who witnessed the Camp Lewis contest. McKenna's all-round ability is wonderful, when it is taken into consideration that he weighs but 124 pounds. For a player of his size he punts exceedingly well and gets his kicks away in grand style.

Backfield Not Determined. Just who Coach Dewey will line up the club backfield at the start of the game has not been determined as yet. It is likely that Horton, Kramer and Graham will be the backs that will start the contest with Luge, Bixby, Cook and Welsh to fill in. It is likely that several changes will be made in the club team during the progress of the game in order to keep fresh men in the contest.

HILL SQUAD SENDS OVER BOMBSHELL

Team That Was Doormat of League Last Season Beats Washington 25 to 0.

By George Bertz. HILL Military Academy jumped into late highlight in school football for the first time in about five seasons when its speedy combination, composed mostly of players who tasted defeat in every game during the 1917 season, triumphed over the Washington high school team Wednesday afternoon by the score of 25 to 0. The cadet backfield, composed of Churchill, Day, Ball and Haines, had little trouble making gas against the east siders, whose style of defensive playing was very poor, due to the fact that Coach Earl has had little or no time to iron out the rough spots. The cadets displayed the shiftiest football, which caught the Washingtonians off their guard.

Loeers' Defense Ragged. Washington's defensive playing on the line was very ragged. The players stood up over the line and it was no trouble for the cadets to shove them off the way or put them out of reach of the play.

The east siders displayed a couple of good spurts, but they were unable to gain consistently against the Hill line. However, they completed a couple of long forward passes, Dolph starring. Hill suffered a great number of penalties during the game, due to the fact that no attention has been given to the use of the hands on the offensive.

Churchill Makes First. The first touchdown was scored in the opening period by Churchill. Day scored the second touchdown, and Ball went over for the third. In the second quarter, in the third period, Washington held Hill from getting within the danger point, and it looked as though the contest would end with the score at 10-0. In the fourth period, the cadets put over another touchdown in the final period.

The lineup and summary: Hill (25) ... Washington (0) ... Substitutions—Hill, Dooley for Frise, Austin for Berger, Hall for Frise, Frise for Churchill, Touchdowns—Hill, Ball, Churchill, Day, Goetz, Haines, Pennington. Officials—Referee, Dudley; Umpire, George Bertz; head linesman, R. R. Sharp.

Face Yellow Peril Yip! Yip! Ki! Kee!

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Oregon is menaced by the yellow peril. Samuel Yip Kee, 125-pound Chinese, will most likely be inserted in the California lineup for the Oregon game, to be played at Berkeley oval next Saturday, owing to the recent damaging of Watson, regular Bear halfback, and his substitute, Ellis. Samuel is the best Chinese half-back on the coast and a deadly tackler, landing low and hard.

Although Watson and Ellis are on the hospital list, California should give Oregon a man-size tussle for any points they ring up. California has been forced to use a lot of freshmen, who incidentally happen to have high school gridiron records.

Oregon has also been forced to use green material this year, due to the absence of many of their athletes.

NO SLACKERS IN GIANTS' CLUB, IS SHOWN BY LABOR

They All Did Their "Bit" to Help Your Uncle Sam to Win the Big War.

There are no slackers among the Giants, says an eastern scribe. It has been a popular pastime by self-appointed critics to harpoon ball players as slackers, but investigation of the activities of the members of the Giants shows plainly that there is not a slacker among them. Fletcher is proving one of the most competent men in the Newark shipyard. Causey is learning the trade of ship-fitter in the same yard.

Demare, who is a cartoonist and editor of the yard paper, is a shipbuilder. Burns showed such proficiency that he is being sent to school for special instruction. Kirks is a high class riveter. Ed Mackall, the trainer, is a riveter. Doyle is a construction foreman and Zimmerman is fitting steam pipes, and is a master workman. Rariden and Gibson are farming. Compton is shipbuilding on Staten island.

Sicking is a soldier at Camp Sherman. Perritt sells oil. Perritt has gone into the oil business. Young has entered a training school to become an officer in the army, and Thorp returned to Oklahoma for oil work, where he was sadly afflicted by the loss of his bright little son.

Rodriguez expects to become a soldier in the Cuban army. He left here to join the army. Besides the foregoing players, Rube Benton, Benny Kauff, Jess Barnes and others who are in the army, are striving to do their work as are thousands of others not of their profession who were inducted. Several more, including Ferguson, Hollo and others, answered the work or fight rule earlier than the government insisted in the case of ball players, but all were married men with families and therefore had received deferred classification.

J. DEMPSEY ANXIOUS TO BATTLE ACE

If Georges Carpentier Comes to America Next Spring He Will Have Competition.

By Jack Veleck. NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(L. N. S.)—Georges Carpentier, premier French boxer, has the American public all steamed up with expectation today.

His announced intention to visit the United States as soon as the French army is demobilized, which may be in January, has awakened a new wave of interest and speculation in the heavyweight division here. His coming is expected to bring the heavyweights, especially Jess Willard, to life with a sudden start. And popular opinion. It is whispered here, will have much to do with the selection of his opponent for a big fistie battle of real international importance.

That Carpentier's visit will force Willard to come out of his shell and offer to defend his title, or announce his definite retirement, seems a certainty. But whether or not a Willard-Carpentier match would be most acceptable to the public is an open question.

Insofar as a championship battle goes, Willard must still be figured, but Jack Dempsey's rise to popularity is going to count in his favor as a popular opponent for the great, Frenchman.

Willard has often said he would

$1000 Not Best Fee for Riding Given to Schutt

Despite the munificence of the bonus of $1000 which was given Andy Schuttinger, the jockey who rode and won with James W. McClelland's Eternal in the match race against Commander J. K. L. Ross' Billy Kelly recently at Laurel, and which was stated to have been the largest sum paid to a rider since the "good old days of racing," it can be said that the statement is an error, and that Schuttinger received $1000 from Mr. McClelland immediately after he had won the Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga on the son of Sweep.

This bonus was approximately one tenth of the winning owner's share, and a decidedly handsome financial gift. In the most recent case, however, the owner got nothing, but the honor of contributing $20,000 to the Red Cross and the satisfaction of owning such a good colt, while the rider received the tidy fee of $1000.

meat Carpentier at any time. Dempsey would jump at the chance. Jack Curley, Dempsey's eastern representative, today expressed the belief that Dempsey will be the popular choice as an opponent for Carpentier.

Dempsey Logical Man. "Dempsey is the logical man for Carpentier to meet," said Jack. "Willard has side-stepped Dempsey, who is now entitled to rank as America's foremost heavyweight. A battle between these two men would be the greatest ring attraction offered the American public in a decade."

NICK WILLIAMS HAS HARD LABOR AFTER ILLNESS

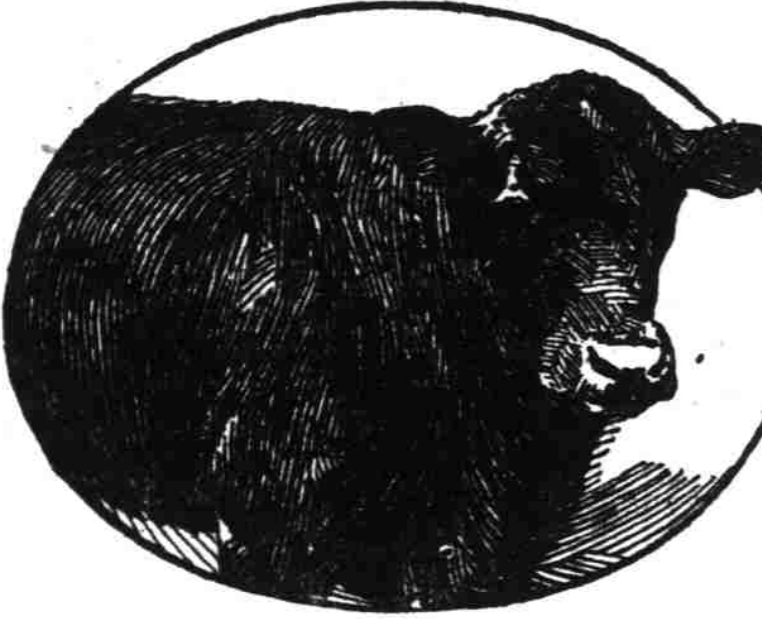

Dode Brinker Block Away at Artillery Officers' Training Camp in Kentucky.

They are still running the candidates for artillery officers ragged at Camp Zachary Taylor, according to Nick Williams, the Spokane baseball manager. "It looks like the Kaiser took the third one in the alley," pens Nick, speaking of Billhelm's strikeout. "Don't know how it will affect the school. Of course, we are all enlisted men now, and have been."

"Who is the Judge going to have as manager next year, Walter? Dode Brinker is in this camp, and, although one block away from me, have seen him once since his arrival. Have recovered from the flu. Having lost about a month, am working like blue blazes not to be set back that time. Regards to my friends."

Iowa City School Is Rifle Champion

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 21.—The national championship in rifle shooting, together with the Astor cup that goes with it, was awarded today to Iowa City high school, according to a dispatch from Washington. Iowa City won the shoot last spring, but rival schools filed a protest, which the National Rifle association decided today.

What Determines Meat and Live-Stock Prices?

Some stock men still think that Swift & Company—and other big packers—can pay as little for live-stock as they wish.

Some consumers are still led to believe that the packers can charge as much for dressed meat as they wish.

This is not true. These prices are fixed by a law of human nature as old as human nature itself—the law of supply and demand.

When more people want meat than there is meat to be had, the scramble along the line to get it for them sends prices up. When there is more meat than there are people who want it, the scramble all along the line to get rid of it within a few days, while it is still fresh, sends prices down.

When prices of meat go up, Swift & Company not only can pay the producer more, but has to pay him more, or some other packer will.

Similarly, when prices recede all down the line Swift & Company cannot continue to pay the producer the same prices as before, and still remain in the packing business.

All the packer can do is to keep the expense of turning stock into meat at a minimum, so that the consumer can get as much as possible for his money, and the producer as much as possible for his live-stock.

Thanks to its splendid plants, modern methods, branch houses, car routes, fleet of refrigerator cars, experience and organization, Swift & Company is able to pay for live cattle 90 per cent of what it receives for beef and by-products, and to cover expense of production and distribution, as well as its profit (a small fraction of a cent per pound), out of the other 10 per cent.

BOXING

MUFF ABERDEEN will be unable to go to Aberdeen for the very good reason that Muff is in bed at home with a bad case of the grip.

Bronson figured that he would be all right in a few days after catching cold earlier in the week, but his lungs tightened up and he dashed for the medicine chest and the covers.

As a result of his inability to go to Aberdeen for Friday night Muff will ask Promoter Harry Druzman to postpone the bout a week.

Alex Trambitas is scheduled to box four rounds with Chet Neff before George Shanklin's club in Tacoma tonight as the main event of the Eagles' smoker. The last time the pair fought, Alex clipped Chet on the jaw when the latter was on one knee and was disqualified, Chester getting the decision.

On the same card Frankie Tucker, the only boxer in captivity with a girl manager, will meet Harold Jones. Harold is said to be some scrapper in spite of his first name.

Weidon Wing and Joe Gorman are scheduled to face each other in the ring at Astoria, under the direction of Earl Mohan.

Aggie Soccerites Round Into Shape

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 21.—The soccer situation at O. A. C. is rapidly rounding into shape and prospects for a winning team are fair. It is expected that the winning team will play Oregon twice this year, as has been the custom in the past. Coach Wiltshire is handicapped by the loss of practically all of last year's varsity, but has considerable promising material in view.

Billiards

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—(L. N. S.)—Scoring 49 points in his last 27 innings, and with two runs of seven, Augie Kleckhefer, champion of the three cushion game, established a lead of 23 points last night over Bob Cannefax, former champion of St. Louis and Chicago in the first block of their match for the world's three-cushion title. The count was 50 to 27 in 48 innings. In the first 11 innings, which each player was getting acquainted with the new table, Cannefax made two singles and Kleckhefer one. In his next inning the champion opened with a spectacular shot, and made his first run of seven. He finished the block with his unfinished run of seven. Cannefax's high run was four.

Airplane Asking for Landing Place Here

A landing place for a war department airplane which is to fly from Sacramento to Seattle is asked in a telegram received by Mayor Baker from Lieutenant Colonel Emmott of the latter field, Sacramento. The Rose City speedway has been tentatively selected and the city engineer has been instructed to make a survey and submit a report which will be forwarded to Sacramento. It is conjectured that the war department is considering the establishment of an aerial route to the Pacific coast.

Columbia Coach Is Down With the Flu

The Columbia university football team, which will leave for Friday afternoon on Multnomah field, has resumed practice under the leadership of Captain Bert Jacobberger. Coach Luck has been ill with influenza, and is unable to take charge of the university boys. The Columbia Athletic council is seeking a coach to handle the team for the remainder of the season.

Estate Left Lincoln Center. Chicago, Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—The Abraham Lincoln center, of which Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones was the head, was made the chief beneficiary by the will of the late pastor filed today. Rev. Jones' estate was valued at $22,000.
