Thanksgiving in Its Jull Sense to Be Observed This Pear in Portland

THURSDAY WILL MEAN MUCH MORE THAN HERETOFORE

Festival Spirit Will Be Subordinated to That of Genuine Return of Thanks for Blessing.

SERVICES TO BE ELABORATE

Churches Plan to Celebrate Great Event Both on Forthcoming Sunday, Besides on Day Itself.

Thanksgiving, which in the recent years past, had lost much of its original inspiration, and had assumed more of a spirit of festivity and jollity than of religious thanks for the blessings showered upon the earth, this year is getting back to a conformance with the original idea.

The churches in Portland, to a greater extent than in previous years, will of the services Sunday.

Christian Character Dr. Stansfield's Topic

Capacity audiences are the rule at the East Side Christian church and last Sunday's congregations were well up to the standard. The strenuous times incident to war have not seemed to hinder the work of the East Side church, During the pastorate of Rev. R. H. Sawyer, the church house has been bought and paid for, remodeled, painted and decorated and transformed into one of the neatest church auditoriums in the city. More than 200 new members have been added to the church roll. Rev. Mr. Sawyer enters upon his third year with the congregation Sunday.

Intermediate Christian Endeavor Societies of Multnomah County to Join in Program.

MANY ATTRACTIVE FEATURES

Fourteen Societies in County Membership Composed Mostly of High School Students.

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor societies of Multnomah county will hold their first rally of the fall next Friday. November 29. The rally will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets. An excellent program has been arranged by the committee in charge. Attractive features will be society demonstrations consisting of songs and yells and the awarding of a pennant to the society with the highest percentage of its members present. A series of short addresses will be given by well known intermediate workers. Among the speakers will be Mrs. Bess Duncan, former superintendent of Multnomah county; Faye Steinmetz, county president; Harold Cross, a California worker; Effie Torgerson, superintendent of state intermediate work, and G. Evert Baker. The closing hour will be given over to a rousing good time planned by a commit-Rev. Charles L. White, D. D., of New | tee of intermediates.
