

UNIVERSITY FAIR TO SERVICE MEN

Students Called to Colors During War Will Have All Benefits of Regular Attendance.

Eugene, Dec. 5.—Students who left the University of Oregon to enter the service of the country are to be allowed to resume their work in the university as soon after they are discharged as they desire, regardless of whether it is the beginning of a term or not. A resolution to this effect was passed at a meeting of the university faculty Wednesday.

The men who have been sent to the various officers' training camps from the university this fall are also to be allowed to go on with their work, as though it had not been interrupted.

It was decided that men who have gone to the training camps and secured commissions, or who have completed two thirds of the work at such a camp, are to be given credit for one term's work at the university.

It was also ruled that grades of students during the past term, no matter how poor, would not be counted against the scholarship averages of those who wished to try for honors, due to the interruption in work incident to the influenza epidemic.

With the opening of the second term, on January 1, the entrance requirements for admission to the university once more will be raised to 15 credits from an accredited high school.

Restrictions on Use Of Print Paper to Be Lifted on Dec. 15

Washington, Dec. 5.—(I. N. S.)—All war-time restrictions on daily and Sunday newspapers will be withdrawn after December 15, the pulp and paper division of the war industries board announced Wednesday.

In announcing the withdrawal of the restrictions, the war industries board urged the permanent observance of the rules prohibiting waste, as a voluntary act by the publishers, and a continued conservation of reading space for a reasonable time.

A saving of a great amount of print paper has been accomplished during the period of restriction, it was stated.

BOLSHEVISM, SCOURGE OF RUSSIA, HAD BIRTH IN BIG CITIES OF U. S.

Senator Thomas Says Revolution Saved America, Where Test Was to Have Been Made.

New York, Dec. 5.—(I. N. S.)—Bolshevism, which is proving a scourge in Russia, was born in the swarming foreign centers of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, according to United States Senator Charles S. Thomas of Colorado, in an address here today before the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

"The immigrant colonies have become national plague spots; breeding places for all of the ugly disorders of the country," said Senator Thomas. "It is a sinister fact that, excepting Lenin, nearly all of the leaders of the Russian Bolsheviki graduated from the swarming centers of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. Their bloody programs were formulated here and here they proposed to test them, when opportunity beckoned and Russia became their victim. From that moment on, the slaughterhouse they salute their accessories and urge them to the commission of similar atrocities."

Speaking of the national debt caused by the war, Senator Thomas said the "legacy" will reach, if not exceed, $35,000,000,000, or twice as much as the combined debt of the allied nations, including Russia, when the war began. The senator urged thrift, enforcement, and told the conference that by ordinary efficiency in public administration the people of this country could be saved close to $900,000,000 a year.

"The war has taught us the wisdom and simplicity of thrift," he concluded. "We should make it a national virtue. It is the best cure for discontent."

No Teachers' "Exams"

Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 5.—There will be no teachers' examination this winter, according to an order from the state superintendent of schools in this state. ### LOWER RIVER MILLS CLOSING-AFTER WAR BUSINESS FALLS OFF

Several Hundred Men Released From Work; Mill Men Expect an Early Revival.

Several hundred men have been laid off by lumber mills at Astoria, Warrenton and other points on the lower Columbia river, according to C. O. Brown, manager of the Clatsop Lumber company's mill. Mr. Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Brown and A. M. Hagen, superintendent of the Clatsop Lumber company's mill at Astoria, are in conference today with C. W. Rogers, San Francisco representative of the company, at the Benson hotel.

The Clatsop mill was engaged exclusively in the production of airplane spruce for the government, according to Mr. Brown, and closed down following the cancellation of government orders. Over 100 men were thrown out of employment when the mill closed.

"It will require at least 60 days to readjust the lumber business to Oregon and Washington to peace conditions," said Mr. Brown. "The future of the industry looks bright, however, and orders for cargo shipments will keep all the mills busy during a long period when boats can be secured to carry the product."

Stocks of retailers are generally low, both locally and throughout the country, according to Mr. Brown, and an enormous demand for building material is looked for in the spring. Many of the mills are overstocked with spruce side cut, he said, and a determined effort is being made to get rid of this material.

W. P. O'Brien, manager of the Astoria Box company, is also at the Benson. While the lumber mills are running light or have closed down entirely, box factories are generally busy, said Mr. O'Brien.

Croix de Guerre To Be Awarded to Captain D. Loring

Captain David Loring, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Loring of Alexandria Court, has been recommended for the croix de guerre, according to a letter received by Mrs. Loring from her son. The same letter announced his promotion from the rank of first lieutenant to captain in the Twenty-third infantry, Second division.

Although his letter stated modestly that he did not know just why he was receiving the cross, it told of a 10 day battle at Blanc Mont ridge in which he participated as liaison officer of his brigade the entire time. Captain Loring has been in eight battles altogether since going to France in September, 1917.

Captain Loring attended the officers' training school at Plattsburg, N. Y., at the beginning of the war, after being graduated from Harvard university. He received his commission as second lieutenant and sailed for France in September, and in October was promoted to first lieutenant.

Captain Loring has lived in Portland the greater part of his life, his parents having been residents here for many years.
