The invading buyer tried to secure his supplies from the regular trade and failed. Then he tried another stunt. He advertised to growers direct that he would pay 41s a pound f. o. b. Roseburg for No. 1 dressed turkeys—a price that was considerably above any previously paid-and was considerably above any previously paid—and a large supply was offered as a result. This is how Roseburg values jumped up so suddenly.

Naturally this had an effect upon the Portland market and late sales of dressed stock were shown around 42c a pound and some were asking 43c in a small way for selected birds.

Strength in the trade is confined mostly to mixide acquirements as the surgest local results.

New York, Dec. 21.—(I. N. 8.)—The dotton market opened irregular today with December 25 points up and other positions 10 points higher to 10 points lower, but strength soon developed and within the first 10 minutes advanced about 25 points over last night's close on
