

BUDGET ESTIMATE OF STATE IS FAR ABOVE REVENUES

Total Asked Calls for $1,297,214.84 in Excess of Money Forthcoming During Biennium.

AMOUNT IS $14,551,649.92

Detailed Compilation to Be Submitted to Legislators Shortly; Many Items Not Trimmed.

Salem, Dec. 24.—The total of requests made for state funds for the next two years which will be submitted to the legislature in the biennial budget amounts to $14,551,649.92, which is $1,297,214.84 in excess of the total visible revenues of the state for the same period.

The budget, which is being compiled by Secretary of State Oloof and Deputy Secretary S. A. Koser, is nearing completion and will be ready to mail to members of the legislature within the next few days. This budget is one of the most elaborate and detailed compilations made by any department of the state government and gives the lawmakers complete information of the financial situation which awaits their attention.

While the total requests for all departments and state activities aggregate the sum of $14,551,649.92, a considerable portion of that amount is already provided for by fixed millage taxes and continuing appropriations and incoming fees.

Of that total it is estimated that $734,689.99 will be secured from fees which are applicable, however, to payment of specific claims only, $4,120,000 from contributions or payments into the state treasury, wherein the state acts only as trustee or disbursing agent, such as funds arising under the workmen's compensation act and funds contributed by the federal government for aid of O. A. C.

This leaves $9,167,958.81 to be covered by appropriations from the public treasury. Of this sum $901,000 is appropriated by laws carrying annual appropriations, and $1,947,651.78 by annual millage levies, such as the millage tax for county fairs, and A. C. U. of O. and Monmouth Normal.

This leaves an estimated balance of $6,319,044.65 to be provided by direct appropriation from the next legislative assembly. To meet this total estimate of $9,167,958.81, which includes fixed millage taxes, the estimated visible revenues amount to $7,870,580.97, derived as follows: From the annual tax levy of 1919, $2,962,652.20; from the annual tax levy of 1920, $3,140,411.44; from estimated receipts of general fund during 1919-1920, $1,186,109.87, and from unassigned available cash balance in state treasury December 31, 1918, $581,407.36, leaving $1,297,214.84 total estimate of requirements unprovided for.

As compared with two years ago, excess demands for state funds at this time exceed the last biennium by more than $500,000. Two years ago excess demands totaled $715,382 above visible revenues. It should be understood that the budget represents claims for funds as presented by various state departments, institutions and boards. Except for state budgets of institutions, which were trimmed by the state board of control, none of the requests have been gone over by the state board or a committee with authority to trim.

COULDN'T RAISE HER HANDS TO DO UP HAIR, SHE SAYS

Rheumatism Disappears After Taking Tanlac—Her Father Now Takes It

"When I began taking Tanlac for my stomach trouble I hardly expected it would relieve my rheumatism, too, but it has actually done both and I am now feeling like a different woman," said Mrs. Victoria White, of 3778 Macadam Road, Portland, the other day.

"I suffered so terribly from stomach trouble during the past ten years," she continued, "that I was actually afraid to eat. I had no appetite and what little I did force down bloated me up something awful, my food would lie in my stomach like a lump of lead, my heart would palpitate and I would feel like I was burning up inside. It fell off till I was a living skeleton and was barely able to drag myself around. Then last summer I became crippled up with rheumatism in my arms and shoulders so I couldn't do up my hair and could hardly hold a cup in my hands without dropping it. I was badly constipated, had terrible headaches and my back hurt like it would break in two.

"I had taken so much medicine without getting relief that I was disgusted with it all, but so many Portland people were praising Tanlac that I decided to try it. After taking several bottles my appetite has returned and I can eat anything I want and never have a bit of trouble with gas or indigestion. My rheumatism has about all left me and I am doing all my household and the washing besides, and have gained several pounds in weight. My father has not been able to do a lick of work in eight years on account of rheumatism, so I have started him on Tanlac and he is better already.

Tanlac is sold in Portland by The Owl Drug Company—Adv.

'Possums Reach County Jail for Christmas Treat

Seven fat 'possums were "playing possum" in a box in the county jail this morning. They were presented by a friend of "Buck" Phillips, recently a jailer, now a guard at the penitentiary.

Phillips, who is from Missouri, and Deputy Sheriff George Hardin, who is from a state farther south, were discussing recently the good things to eat they have only in the south. The talk turned to opossums, of course, and Phillips said presently, noting a longing look in Hardin's eyes, "George, you're a friend of mine, and I'm a scholar. If the 'flu' doesn't get you, we will have something to eat Christmas, you bet."

A pleading letter to Missouri brought the delectable result this morning.

DOCUMENTS FOUND IN BERLIN THROW LIGHT ON ORIGIN OF THE WAR

Herr Kautzky Puts Blame on Government Leaders, Junkers and Krupp Works.

Washington, Dec. 24.—(I. N. S.)—An examination of the official documents of the Imperial German government found in the foreign office in Berlin has established the truth of the revelations made by Lichnowsky, former German ambassador to England—that Germany precipitated the war.

This statement was made to a correspondent of the Paris Petit Parisien by Herr Kautzky, the People's commission designated by the present government of Germany to investigate the foreign office documents and establish the responsibility of the war, according to a diplomatic dispatch received here this afternoon.

The correspondent that the responsibility of the war, as shown by the foreign office documents, may be laid proportionately to:

First, the Kaiser and the crown prince; second, Ludendorff and Tirpitz; third, officials of the Krupp works; fourth, the Pan-Germans.

"I cannot yet draw my conclusions, but up to the present day the documents prove the truth of the statements made by Prince Lichnowsky," Kautzky is quoted as saying.

The first part of the documents found in the foreign office will be published within a month," Kautzky said. "Thus the world will know beyond the shadow of a doubt upon whom should be fastened the guilt of starting and prolonging the world war."

HUNGARIANS MUST CEASE OPPRESSION

Allies Intervene to Put End to Bloodshed and Terror Among Czecho-Slovak People.

By Anthony Czarnacki
Special Cable to The Journal and Chicago Daily News.

Paris, Dec. 24.—Definite results following the Czecho-Slovak appeals for allied intervention in the solution of the controversy with the Hungarians over Slovakian territory, in order to check the reign of terror and bloodshed, have been secured. M. Benes, foreign minister of the Czecho-Slovakian republic, who is in Paris, made the announcement to me. General Franchet d'Esperey, commander of the allied forces in the east, has ordered the Hungarians to evacuate Slovakia and to put an end to bloodshed and terror. This action was taken by direction of Premier Clemenceau in accordance with the decision of the allies.

It is understood between the allies and the Czecho-Slovakian government that pending the final decisions of the peace convention, all measures necessary to maintain order in Slovakia should be taken. Minister Sordani has been given full power and authority to administer Slovakia in accordance with the express demand of the Slovak deputies.

This status has been established without prejudice to the final arrangement of the problem at the peace conference. The Hungarians are obeying the orders of the allied general, causing joy to the Czecho-Slovakian government officials and also to the people. New trouble is confronting the Czecho-Slovakian government, according to Minister Sordani, because the Vienna government is violating the armistice by sending arms and ammunition into the northern part of Bohemia for arming the German population therein and also for arming the Czechs and Slovaks in Bohemia, though without success up to this time. M. Benes is preparing a protest to the allies on this subject.

Estimates Place Number of "Rue Wilsons" at 5000

Paris, Dec. 2.—(By Mail)—(I. N. S.)—It is estimated that there are 5000 "Rue Wilsons" in many French towns and villages, all named in honor of the American president. As soon as the civilian population returns to a reclaimed town, the first act is to establish a "Rue Wilson" between their shell-shattered homes.

Many of these streets are scarcely more than trails through heaps of debris, named by the allies gangs as the armies of democracy pursued the Huns. French Polus and British Tommies also named streets in towns along the front after President Wilson while they were under fire. American doughboys nailed signs made from the tops of cartridge boxes and bearing the legend "Wilson Ave." in many of the towns where they were billeted.

Even the German soldiers are said to have posted a sign in a village near Strasbourg in a Champagne town, but the sign was captured by a souvenir hunter.

The spluttering wireless aboard the battleship Mexico, flagship of Admiral Grant, picked up the returning fleet Monday and flashed the first words of welcome to the men who helped defeat the U-boat and the German fleet.

Lookouts are on the alert day and night at the Ambrose channel lightship, ready to flash word to the city that the vanguard of the ocean greyhounds has been sighted and that the fleet is on its way.

As soon as this word is received, every whistle, horn, siren, bell and other noise-making device in the metropolitan district and in neighboring towns will join in spreading the news.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple, home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

From any drugist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar, clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of ready-made cough syrup that you can buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is a really astonishing remedy.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your drugist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," with full directions, and don't accept any thing else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.—Adv.

NAVAL VOLUNTEERS OF NORTHWEST SEEKING TO GAIN DISCHARGES TO BELIEVE THEY SHOULD NOT BE HELD WHILE OTHERS, INCLUDING REGULARS, ARE RELEASED.

Now that America's emergency need for them is ended, the naval volunteers of Oregon and Washington believe they should be released from active service and sent home. After traveling the seas for some 200,000 miles during the year and a half of war, they now see regulars and enlisted men seamen released before them.

A letter received by The Journal from a spokesman for the men in this service follows:

"We, the naval militia, or the naval volunteers of Oregon and Washington, would like to have it known that we desire, and most justly we think, that we be returned to inactive status at the earliest possible time, so that we may rejoin our careers, which we left at the first call for men to fight with the navy.

Most of us sacrificed our school, college or business life, on April 6, 1917, at the moment the war broke over the United States.

This status has been established with the first 300,000 men of the reserve on active service in the day.

Though the navy now has a personnel of some 600,000 all told, many reserves, and some regulars, have been discharged before us. We think this is a most commendable policy of the United States for liberty, the United States ought, we think, to serve our liberty first in return.

From the first day after the crack of war till after the armistice we sailed the seas, nearly 200,000 miles. For more than a year we were convoying in the submarine zone.

We yearn now that the war is won, to return to our families and to start over again our life's aims. Have we not earned it?

If any of you have a son, husband, fiancée, brother, sister, and you want to have him home soon, write a letter to your senator or congressman, telling him of this, or cut this out and mail it to him.

Kaiser and Crown Prince Are Hated As Institutions

Berlin, Dec. 21.—(Delayed)—(U. P.)—German peace delegates, it appears, will object to any penalty for the Kaiser which would make him a national hero. They don't want a "return from Elba."

All the war makers are now unpopular in Germany, with the exception of Field Marshal von Hindenburg. General Ludendorff is the worst hated. The militarists are blamed for the present situation. But the general feeling today appears to be "let bygones be bygones."

Sentiment is very bitter toward the Kaiser and crown prince, as institutions, but there is little personal feeling against them. Many people seem to feel that the loss of their thrones was sufficient punishment.
