

BETTER SHOWING MADE BY ROADS

McAdoo Gives Some More Figures on Government Operation of Railway Lines.

Washington, Jan. 4.—(I. N. S.)—Statistical proof that governmental operation of America's railways showed an improvement in 1918 over 1917 was given to a critical senate committee today by Director General McAdoo at a continuation of the hearings on the question of turning the roads back to their owners.

Constant Effort to Discredit

"There has been a constant effort in the senate and in the press to discredit the unified control of the roads on the ground of its financial showing," said Mr. McAdoo. During the four months of July, August, September and October, 1918, the revenue of the roads was $1,950,786,144 as compared with $1,457,197,518 for the same months in 1917.
