KAWANIS TO SUPPORT PLAN TO ERECT HERE LIVESTOCK BUILDING

President Plummer, Manager of Exposition, Addresses Club Luncheon Tuesday.

Pledge by the club to support a movement for a permanent livestock exhibition building in Portland followed a vigorous speech before the Kiwanis club Tuesday by O. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International Livestock exposition.

President George A. Lovejoy, who pre sided at the luncheon in the Portland hotel, announced the convention of Kiwanis in Tacoma and urged a large attendance of Portland Kiwanians, in view of the fact that Portland is going to ask for the next national convention. One of the features of the luncheon was a piano solo by G. A. Berry. The banquet which was to have been held Saturday night in honor of O. Samuel Cummings, the international secretary of the organization, has been postponed on account of the influenza epidemic, However, Mr. Cummings will arrive in this city tonight on his way to Seattle and Tacoma to take part in the presentation of their charters. The club has therefore decided to have the informal presentation of the charter tonight at a dinner to be given in honor of Mr. Cummings at the Benson hotel. This dinner will be attended by officers of the organisation, the board of governors, Mayor Baker and represenatives of local newspapers have been invited. This will be an entirely informal affair and it is planned to hold the banquet at a later date, when the influenza is checked.
