BELGIAN PEOPLE TREAT AMERICANS FINE, SAYS YANK

Buxton Boy Writes That People of Little Country Shower Attentions Upon U. S. Soldiers.

RAINBOW DIVISION ACTIVE

Famous Fighting Division at Front Fighting to November; Longs for Home.

Hiking through parts of France and on through Belgium into Luxembourg with the army of occupation, has been the lot of Private Wilbur Thacker, who has been in service with the 117th regiment, U. S. engineers. He writes his mother, Mrs. G. W. Thacker, of Buxton, Or., from Luxembourg as follows: "We thought the French people treated us five but when we came through Belgium I never was better treated anywhere in my life. When we stopped in towns at night they took us into their homes and gave us everything good to eat. The people in Luxembourg seem to be rather nice, but they speak German. We had started to the German border to do guard duty, but we have been here five days. We heard we were going back to France and another division would take our place. Maybe you think there wasn't a happy bunch when they heard the war was ended. I think the first division over here will be the first to be sent home. The 42d division on the front from February until the fighting ceased.

"I got one of those long, slim bayonets run through my leg just below the knee," writes Donald Page, the mascot of the 42d division, who was in Northern Russia, where as a member of the band on Dewey's old flagship Olympia he was in the trenches with the Bolsheviks at Archangel. He writes further that they took him out of the hospital sooner than he really should have been discharged, because he was so greatly needed in the band, and adds: "You see, they figured the band could do more good ashore playing than the others could do by fighting, and I think we did quite a little in getting Archangel to put out the Bolsheviks and live like civilized people. The band was mentioned by General Poole, the English general, and the news was a note of thanks mentioning the work done by the fine band of the U. S. S. cruiser Olympia while in Russia."

Among the 68 men who received engineers' commission at the naval training station at Seattle were a number of Oregon boys, the boys from Portland including S. M. Davis, E. V. Martin, W. A. Strong, H. R. Sellick and J. J. Stahl, also H. A. Frame ofalent, Or., and F. R. Hamel of Salem.

Committee Decides To Investigate the Condition of Labor

The reconstruction committee, authorized by the recent Oregon Reconstruction convention, decided at its meeting for organization in the council chambers Monday afternoon to ascertain exactly what is the labor situation. A special committee consisting of A. F. Flegal, Julius L. Meier, W. F. Prier, Drake C. O'Reilly and A. G. Clark was appointed to interview in detail the labor survey. The committee also decided to call upon the legislature to cure speedily the defect in the bill appropriating $100,000 for the aid of returned soldiers, so that the money may be made available.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes. Get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the rattle in the chest and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "Pinex" and get the full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. HOPE ALL BUT GONE FOR PORTLAND MAN

Chester J. Seely

Hope that some mistake might have been made in announcing the death of Chester J. Seely by the war department has practically been given up by friends of the young man.

Seely was reported in dispatches from Washington as having been wounded on September 27. Later dispatches announced his death on September 30. A dispatch was also received by his family stating that he had died on September 13. Because of these conflicting reports hope has been maintained that there was some mistake. But as no word has been received from the young man for some time, his friends believe the report announcing his death on September 30 is true.

Seely left Portland last July for Camp Lewis and after but a short period of training was sent east and thence to France, arriving there the latter part of August.

Before entering the army last summer, Seely was employed by the Northwest Steel company and previous to that attended the Jefferson high school. Chester J. Seely was 23 years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seely, 143 West Liberty street.

Casualty List Gives Mother News of the Death of Her Son

The official casualty list announcement of the death of Rexford E. Barto, "killed in action," was the first intimation that his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Barto, 685 Tacoma street, had of his death.

The last letter received from Barto was dated September 22 and mentioned that his unit, the Thirty-eighth infantry of the Third division, would probably move into action soon.

Boy's Foot Crushed Under Streetcar

While attempting to board a moving St. Johns car at the Portsmouth station about 3:40 p. m. Monday, Gellmer Maxwell, 12 years of age, fell between the wheels and suffered a badly crushed foot. He was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital, where it was found that amputation of the foot may be necessary. The boy, who lived with his parents at 1718 Gloucester street, was on his way to the city, where an attempt at the car which had just started. His hand slipped as he grabbed the handhold. The car was quickly stopped and the injured boy carried to a nearby drug store and thence to the hospital.

Plea in Behalf of French Orphan Made

"Three Fingers Jack" Godwin, who makes a business of inducing I. W. W. to surrender their red crosses, and Miss Brenda Francklyn of the international committee for the fatherless children of France, were the speakers before the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon. Miss Francklyn besought of Portland business men their financial support in caring for the little children in the occupied sections of France, whose fathers were killed during the great war.
