

MRS. D. C. BURNS AGAIN REELECTED BABY HOME HEAD

One Hundred Babies Are Admitted to Institution During Year, Ninety-five Were Discharged.

PLANS FOR YEAR ARE MADE

Deaths During Year Number but Three; Balance on Hand at Close of Year, $6938.26.

One hundred babies were admitted to the Waverly Baby home during the year, according to the report of Mrs. D. C. Burns, president, at the annual meeting held Monday afternoon at the home's headquarters in the Broadway building.

Officers and trustees were elected and plans were made for the coming year. Of the 100 babies admitted 29 were from the J. venille court; 70 from the Red Cross; one was left on the doorstep and the remainder were committed by relatives. Ninety-five were discharged, 53 given back to relatives, 25 were placed out for adoption and one was transferred to the Boys' and Girls' Aid society and later adopted. But three deaths occurred during the year, a remarkable showing when it is known that institutional children are invariably below normal.

High praise was given the head of the physicians' staff, Dr. J. B. Bilderback, and his assistants, Drs. Booth and Patrick, who serve without remuneration. Attention was also called to the excellent and faithful service of the superintendent, Mrs. Gertrude Lowney, and the other employees of the institution.

Special mention was also made of Mrs. William MacMaster and Henry E. Reed, through whose efforts the tag day, held the day before Thanksgiving, was made a great success, $13,500 being raised. The Thanksgiving donations from the schools were larger than ever before, it was reported.

Mrs. Burns is Re-elected A. L. Keenan, who has been treasurer of the home since its organization 30 years ago, reported a balance at the beginning of the year of $578.81 receipts during the year, $30,194.87; disbursements, $23,825.22; balance on hand, $6938.26.

Mrs. D. C. Burns was unanimously elected for the eleventh year as president of the home. Other officers and trustees elected were: Vice president, L. E. Kern; secretary, F. S. Akin; treasurer, A. L. Keenan; trustees, Charles H. Dodd, Mrs. T. C. Allison, Mrs. J. Francis Drake, Mrs. William Shepard, Miss Vella Winner, Mrs. F. C. Knapp and Mrs. Ira W. Power. Another trustee will be named at the next meeting, as it was voted to increase the board to 14 members and Mrs. C. B. Simmons, who served during the last year, has resigned.

The secretary was instructed to write her a letter of appreciation for splendid service. A plan was adopted whereby trustees will serve only terms of from one to four years. The advisory board is being revised and enlarged to include representatives from towns throughout the state.

Endowment Fund Proposed Plans for the new year include the appointment of a social chairman whose duty it will be to interest both younger and older women in the home, probably by means of the organization of auxiliaries. An endowment committee will also be named to secure subscriptions for an endowment fund for the home. Mrs. L. M. Shepard will solicit 2100 memberships throughout the state to add to the endowment fund.

The present emphasis has been placed on the great need for a detention ward for the home. Dr. Slingerland's recommendation that the home be housed in a fireproof building was also discussed with the hope that this dream may be realized within the next few years.

The board accepted an invitation from the association to join with it in giving a banquet February 27 in honor of the 80th birthday of Judge H. H. Northrup, for many of the most of the active trustees of the home.

K. of C. to Conduct Employment Bureau For U. S. Soldiers

An employment bureau for returned soldiers may be established by the Knights of Columbus and the National Catholic War Council at the K. of C. club, Park and Taylor streets, to be in charge of Dan Kellaheer, former city commissioner, if the plans of a committee of 40 citizens carry.

STANLEY O. NORVELL, SINGER, DIES AFTER VERY BRIEF ILLNESS

Auditor of Portland Branch, Federal Reserve Bank, Leaves a Host of Friends.

Stanley O. Norvell, auditor of the federal reserve bank, Portland branch, and prominent young singer in club and church circles, died here today of influenza at his home, 1115 East Washington street. Stricken but a few days ago, death was unexpected, claiming a young man whose splendid bass voice had endeared him to the hearts of all who had heard him sing, and whose fine character had won him a friend wherever he made an acquaintance.

Mr. Norvell, 26, was born in Lee's Summit, Mo. Finishing his education, he took up a career of music, in which he found brilliant success and a brighter future. Training under prominent musicians of Missouri and filling solo and choir engagements with some of Kansas City's more prominent churches and singing clubs, Mr. Norvell a few years ago went to New York, where he achieved the same distinction and success with his voice that he met in the Middle West. In the East some of the most prominent teachers and best-known critics gave his voice unqualified praise and every encouragement.

Married to Miss Fay Rice, a Portland girl, in Kansas City after his return from New York in 1915, Mr. Norvell some months later came to Portland, where he has since lived. He conducted the choir and did solo work at the Rose City Presbyterian church and was a prominent member of the Apollo club.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been definitely fixed.
