TODAT'S FORECASTS Portland and vicinity—Tonight and day fair; variable winds. Oregon and Washington—Tonight and Wednesday fair; moderate southwesterly winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS The pressure is moderately low in western Can-ada, the lake region, the Ohio valley, New Eng-land, and southern California. Over the remainder of the country high pressure prevails, with highest readings in southeastern Idaho. Precipi-tation has occurred in British Columbia and ex-treme nerthwestern Washington. Elsewhere the weather has remained fair. The weather is much warmer in parts of the northern Rocky mountain region and in Artzona, and is much colder in monthern Utsh. A chinook wind is blowing in Montana. The temperature is above normal over the greater part of the country, the excess being greatest in Montana and the adjacent Canadian provinces.
