

Pershing Urging Modification of Promotion Rules

Washington, Jan. 31.—(U. P.)—General Pershing today had forced the hand of the war department as to promotions overseas. Because he believed many promotions ought to be made, Pershing recommended that Secretary Baker modify his rule made directly after the armistice against further promotions.

Polish Commander Would Send Army Home From France

Paris, Jan. 31.—(L. N. S.)—General Haller, commanding one of the Polish army groups, stated today that one Polish division is ready to leave France for Poland by way of Dantzig (German Poland) and two others are preparing to leave.

to send Polish forces by way of Dantzig," said General Haller. "France and England have given their consent, but there is a strong undercurrent against Polish occupation of Dantzig among the American peace delegates. "One division of the Polish army is ready to leave France and two others are preparing. "There is urgent need of their dispatch on account of German activities and attempts by the Czecho-Slovaks to occupy Polish territory in Silesia. For the safety of Eastern Europe allied and Polish troops must occupy Dantzig."

Eskimo Dogs in Use Lenox, Mass., Jan. 31.—(L. N. S.)—Eskimo dogs are being utilized for winter sleighing and carrying mail through several Berkshire hill towns. Cortland Field Bishop, a millionaire, brought a team of Arctic dogs and engaged a trainer to handle them.
