Suggests Expert Goat Inspection Should Be Made

"I am convinced that some one who is loyal to the children of Portland and Oregon and who has expert knowledge of the goat industry in the Northwest should be made to inspect the 300 goats that are to be shipped here for distribution among boys and girls."

These goats, I have been told, have been running wild on the island and have been multiplying there for several years. It would be worth so much to the boys and girls and to the state to inaugurate the enterprise.
