Mechanics' Organization Differs From A. F. of L. in Not Recognizing "Closed Shop."

Brotherhood of International Mechanics and editor of the Pacific Coast Mechan- By order of Monarch, R. E. Fulton, Secretary. ic, its official organ, is in Portland lecturing before various labor organizations. The brotherhood is opposed to the American Federation of Labor, according to Mr. Phelps, in that it does not believe in the "closed shop."

"The principles of the closed shop are constitutionally wrong," Mr. Phelps declares, "for it places in the hands of unscrupulous leaders the power to thrust its followers and the whole country alike into despotism."

Mr. Phelps cites the case of Seattle as an example of closed shop principles. and said while some members of his organization struck, they did not do it under the sanction of the brotherhood. to tolerate anarchy and the industrial cordially invited. By order despotism of the Bolsheviki walking delegates," sald Mr. Phelps. "Labor must throw off the crushing band of his leadership and no time must be lost. "The principles of our national constitution gives every man the right to work without fear of hindrance, and the tenets of the golden rule, an = honest day's work for an honest day's pay,' should be observed by employe and employer alike." Mr. Phelps' work carries him into 26 states of the union, where he lectures before the laboring men. He is staying at the Imperial.

LEAGUE WILL WEIGH MANY VITAL ISSUES

Walter Taylor Sumner of Oregon, Judge John P. Kavanaugh and Dr. Charles R Brown, dean of the Yale school of religion. Dr. John H. Boyd will offer the invocation and Henry L. Corbett, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will preside. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening with an organ recital by Frederick W.

Meeting Free to Public

The Auditorium will be open to the public and admission will be free at all the League of Nations congress sessions, announced Chairman Corbett Friday. At the Sunday and Monday evening mass meetings, a sufficient number of seats for credentialed delegates will be reserved until 7:45 o'clock, after which all seats will be thrown open to the public. The Monday morning and afternoon sessions will be open to the public for all seats not required for credenseats about 5000 people, and a delegate registration of about 1000 from Idaho, Washington and Oregon is expected, it is obvious there will be room for many Taft will be the principal speaker at the meeting Monday morning and others on the program will be Edward A. Chamber of Commerce; Henry Morgenthau, ex-ambassador to Turkey; after which will come three-minute reports by

The speakers at the Monday afternoon session will be Henry Van Dyke, former minister to The Netherlands; Dr. George Grafton Wilson, professor of international law at Harvard; Mrs. Philip North Moore, president of the American Council of Women, and Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of Oregon Agricultural college Other Speakers Named

The final Monday evening mass meeting will furnish the best public oppor- to sil tunity to hear ex-President Taft. Other speakers will be Frank P. Walsh, exjoint chairman of the war labor board : William Short, president of the Washington Federation of Labor, and E. J. Stack, secretary of the Oregon Federation of Labor. Arangements have been concluded for a number of Monday noon luncheons at which the noted visitors will be guests of honor. Taft and Walsh will speak at the Chamber of Comwill speak at the Chamber of Com-merce: Lowell and Van Dyke will address the University club; Ambassador Morganthau will speak under the auspices of the B'Nai B'Rith at the Benson; Mrs. Philip North Moore will speak under the auspices of the State Federation of Women's clubs at the Portland, and at the Portland, too, will be held the advertising and editorial luncheon to be addressed by Edward A. Filene, speaking under the auspices of the Better Business Bureau of the Portland Ad club. Arrangements for the last named affair are in charge of W. S. Kirkpatrick, chairman of a special committee of the Broadway 480. A-4568, Lady assistant Ad club, and L. R. Bailey, chairman of the Better Business bureau.
