

EXTREME STAGNATION SHOWS UP IN POTATOES AND ONIONS

BUTTER PRICE HERE IS EXPECTED TO GO TO A HIGHER MARK

Recent Advance in the North and in the South Places Portland Value Below Other Markets—Extras Extremely Scarce.

EGG PRICES AGAIN After showing a slight interval the egg market was firm again and f. o. b. bids were placed back to 40c for current receipts.

Advances in the price of butter is due in the local market with a view to the fact that the fact that instead of the local market being the highest along the coast, it stands today at the bottom of the big markets.

Seattle has been quoting an advance of 1c a pound over the Portland price for a couple of days and the recent rise in California prices has eliminated that section as a competitor for the trade of the coast.

EGG PRICES SLIGHTLY LOWER Egg market prices were slightly lowered during the day by some f. o. b. buyers who were bidding not more than 37.87 1/2 a dozen for current receipts. Outside demand is still showing for supplies.

LOCAL CUCUMBERS ARE COMING Hothouse cucumbers from Aurora shipped in by J. J. Shiner are being received in the local market. The stock was of excellent quality and was the first to come from home places. Sales at $1.75 to $2.50 per dozen.

STRING BEANS ARE RECEIVED Ryan Fruit company reported its first arrivals of string beans for the season. The shipment came from Tim Plonon at San Francisco and while the stock was of small size it was of good quality. Sales at 20c per pound.

SOAP PRICES GENERALLY LOWER Sharp drop in the price of soap is announced by local jobbers for the day. Very good 1 1/2c for the small size, 1 1/2c for the 4 1/2c size, 1 1/2c for the 5c size, and 1 1/2c for the 6c size. While the price of White was the lowest, it was still at 10c per pound.

MORE VEALS COMING FORWARD Arrivals of country killed calves were somewhat better during the day. Demand continued strong and most of the sales were again made at 25 to 25 1/2 a pound for top stuff. Hogs were quoted steady to former prices.

BRIEF NOTES OF PRODUCE TRADE Very poor quality apples coming with growers asking big price. Orange market very unsatisfactory with much inferior fruit. All canned milk prices are now lowered.

WEATHER NOTICE FOR SHIPPERS Weather bureau advises: Protect shipments during the next 36 hours against the following minimum temperature: 24 degrees; maximum: 36 degrees; northeast over the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway, 28 degrees; east to Baker, 26 degrees, and south to Astoria, 24 degrees. Minimum temperature at Portland tomorrow about 40 degrees.
