65 STEAMERS ARE NOW WAITING IN PORTLAND HARBOR

Wooden and Steel Vessels Are the service early in that month. Mostly Still Under Jurisdiction of U. S. Shipping Board.

Fifty-Three Wooden Boats Are Included in List of Ships in Port at Present Time.

Totaling almost 400,000 tons, 65 vessels. most of them under the supervision of the United States shipping board, are lying along the wharves and in equipping docks in the Portland harbor. makes the largest number of ships ever assembled in the local harbor for many

Included in this total are three Sudden & Christensen steamers, and one auxiliary schooner operated by C. Christensen. The remainder of the vast fleet are under the jurisdiction of the shipping board, and are composed of eight steel steamers and 53 wooden steamers and auxiliary schooners.

Of the 53 wooden steamers, 20 are practically ready to pursue regular trade courses and are awaiting assignment by the shipping directors. The remainder of the vessels are having machinery installed at various plants or are undergoing repairs.

The eight steel steamers are tied up at the Northwest Steel plant, the Columbia River Shipbuilding corporation and the Albina Engine and Machine works. Four vessels are at the Northwest, two at the Columbia River and two at the Albina plant.

The wooden vessels are docked as fol-Peninsula 7. Grant Smith 12. Standifer 12 and Coast 3, while the remainder are scattered at different equipping plants and docks along the waterfront. Taken on an average the 65 vessels, both steel and wood, would total close to 400,000 tons. Lumber and flour shippers in this district have been urging that carriers be assigned to them, and they watch with increased interest the growing fleet in the local harbor, figuring whether they may be favored soon by charter from the government.

It has been figured that 50 or 60 wooden vessels will be needed to move the lumber trade in the Northwest and many steel carriers are needed by the flour shippers who are daily demanding an allotreent. The shipping board division of operations say they are aware of this demand and may be able to announce a plan for the chartering of the vessels more rapidly in the future.

Careless Permittee Leaves Blaze That Burns Federal Timber of Great Value.

For leaving a fire burning in the Okalogan national forest, which spread to the surrounding timber and burned over 7500 acres before it was finally extinguished, A. L. Arneson of Mabton, Wash., was fined $100 by the department of justice at Spokane, Wash., according to word received by District Forester

Mr. Arneson was working with a sheep outfit near Hidden Lakes in July, 1917, when he committed the fire trespass The resulting flames killed and rendered inmerchantable 15,000,000 feet of saw timber with an estimated value of $7650, besides destroying immature timber, young growth and forage valued at $4800. In addition, it cost the forest service $5264.54 to suppress the fire. The Hidden Lakes are located in a beautiful but isolated region seldom visited by anyone except sheepmen and forest rangers. Large fires are hard to the fire hazard and are very careful to extinguish their camp fires on the ranges. Grazing permittees on the natheir permits to prevent fire and to aid in suppressing any fires that get started

Many others expressed their view at the hearing, which was unusual in character in that not a dissenting opinion was expressed. Among those who joined in urging the necessity for the bond issue and the purposes for which the money is to be used were Bill Hanley of Harney county, President Kerr of the O. A. C., E. B. "The work is of an emergency character," he said. "I do not believe the state should be in competition with private employment. If the work is done under the direction of the state board of control, that board should so manage it as to take up the slack in the labor situation. If within six months the unemployment emergency should pass, then the board should slacken this public work.'

Replying to a question from Representative Smith of Baker, a member of the reconstruction committee, Mr. Griffith said he thought the work should be done direct by the state and not be let out on contracts.

"If the work should be let on contract and be rushed to completion, the very purposes of the measure would be defeated," he said. "The purpose is to bond issue. "Let's cut her loose and let take up the slack when there is unem- her go a while," he said. ployment.

Emery Olmstead said he did not believe the people of Oregon were going to shy at a $5,000,000 bond issue when it was for the purpose in question. When he went through the train which brought home the Oregon boys in the 1312 Campbell street and is survived by 65th regiment, he said many of them his widow and three children; his fathasked him if they were going to have er, Albert Ten Eyck, and two sisters, their old jobs back.

el the need of a strength and blood builder should go to their family doctors and obtain a prescription calling for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and present this to their druggist so that there may be no question about obtaining the proper article. But if they do not wish to go to the trouble of getting a prescription for Nuxated Iron then they should be sure to look on the label and see that the words NUXATED IRON are printed thereon.

There are thousands of people taking iron who do not distinguish between organic iron and metallic iron and such persons often fail to obtain the vital energy, strength and endurance which they seek simply because they have taken the wrong form of iron. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week. Before breakfast each day, drink s glass of real hot water with a teasp ful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It phate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestants.
