

NAVY LIEUTENANT IS ACCUSED OF BEING TIED UP IN SCANDAL

J. B. Ellert of Admiral Fisher's Staff Must Answer for Actions; Six Stand Trial.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The navy department announced Thursday the arrest of Lieutenant J. B. Ellert of Admiral Fisher's staff, in connection with the investigation of graft scandals in the Third naval district. Ellert was the detail officer for personnel in the office of Rear Admiral Fisher and necessarily could exercise a very large degree of influence both in making assignments and in securing them.

The graft charges in the Third naval district center about alleged taking of bribes by certain officers in return for assigning enlisted men to "soft snags" and jobs which would save them from undergoing the hazard of the submarine zone during the war. It developed here today that Ellert was the first man to be arrested following investigation of the scandal by Major John Muir, marine corps, sent to New York by Secretary of Navy Daniels following exposures made in the court martial of Lieutenant Benjamin Davis, medical corps. Ellert is accused of receiving bribes and is held in arrest for court martial. Secretary Daniels declared today that the total number of men facing court martial is now six. All these six are officers. The names of only three so far have been made public—Davis, Ensign Paul M. Beck, pay corps, and Ellert. Officials today admitted, however, that the number will be increased largely as Major Muir's inquiries proceed. That is made evident from his initial reports now in the hands of Secretary Daniels. The investigation is taking in both sides of the bribery question, those who received bribes and those who gave them, as it is evident that a number, at least, of those who gave bribes are not in the naval service—for instance, fathers who wanted their sons "taken care of."

NAILING A LIE!

The Literary Digest—February 15th copy—gives a 1st page comment on High Prices and quotes the "Evening World" at the expense of the Retailer.
The blatherskite editor of this organ claims the retailer advances his prices the instant the market goes up but takes a month to follow the decline.
This is cheap puff that attracts applause from the thoughtless and ridicule from the masses of shoppers. Every item quoted here reflects the lowest up-to-the-minute market price. It's the 20th Century way and a dependable way.
