WASHINGTON WILL BE SERMON TOPIC IN CITY CHURCHES

Proximity of Sunday to Birthday Anniversary Will Make Observance More Conspicuous.

FIRST PRESIDENT DEVOUT

Rev. Thomas Jenkins Gives Brief Sketch of Washington's Spiritual Nature and Christianity.

This being George Washington's birthday, and but one day removed from Sunmore than is usual Portland churches will observe the anniversary and pastors will take him as the subject their sermons. So much is General Washington admitted as a statesman and military officer, that people are unused to looking at him as a God fearing Christian gentleman, marvelously de-vout. Of the spiritual side of the first president's nature, Rev. Thomas Jenkins of St. Davids Episcopal church says: "Much has been written of Washington as statesman, but little of him is easily accessible as Christian. That he was a faithful and reverend Christian his own records show. Thus in his general orders for May, 1778, he writes: 'While we are zealously performing the duties of citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion.' To the distinguished character of patriot it should be our higest glory to add the more distinguished character of Christian. In 1783 in writing to the governors of the states he adds: make it my carnest prayer that God would have you and the state over which you preside in His holp protection.' Was Loyal Churchman

In keeping with the custom of former years the Sunnyside Congregational church will utilize the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln for the purpose of inspiration and quickening in true patriotism. Dr. J. J. Staub has turned the Sunday evening service over to the Men's league of the church, who have secured Judge John H. Stevenson for their main speaker. Special music will be furnished by the chorus choir under the direction of Professor J. H. Cowen. A cordial invitation is extended to every-

Sunday night Highland Congregational church will hold an honor service, when recognition will be made of the nation's debt to Washington and his co-patriots and also to the men who are returning from service overseas. The music will be patriotic. Miss Tillard will sing several solos.

School for Clergy Set for June 24-27

The committee for the Oregon summer school for clergy of the Episcopal church is arranging for the fourth session of the school, to be held in Portland, June 24 to 27. The following men have already been secured as members of the faculty: Bishop Faber of Montana and Dean Cecil S. Quainten of Vic-
