PROSPERITY IN THE ORIENT

Sunday School Convention to Be Held in Tokio in October, 1920, Interests Americans.

"The Japanese have great respect for the Americans since the part they played in the war," said H. E. Coleman, field secretary of the World's Sunday School association at Tokio, Japan, and honorary secretary of the Japanese National Sunday School association, at the Sew-ard Saturday morning. "Not simply what the soldiers have done," he added, but the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A and other own in general.
"The Japanese have never believed the Americans had any patriotism because there was no king or emperor. The war was a great eye-opener to Japan, The care the United States has given its soldiers, prohibition of drinking and other things has shown a moral energy anese recognize it as never before." Wonderful Prosperity in Japan

Mr. Coleman is in the United States for the first time in three and a half years, interesting people in the world Sunday school convention to be held in Tokio, October, 1920. "I am especially interested in the coast cities," said Mr. Coleman, "and want to arouse as much enthusiasm as possible for the convention and secure a ndance of persons of influence as well as church workers. The onvention will be an important one from standpoint of international and busirelations. Japan has had wonderful prosperity within the last few The convention will be a wonderful opportunity of coming together for a better understanding of each Mr. Coleman bears an invitation by Marquis Okuma, formerly premier, and one of the most influential sen in Japan, Baron Schibu Sawa, a prominent business man, and Baron Sa-katawa, once minister of finance and recently appointed financial advisor to China, as well as a letter from Inajero Eager for Western Ways

The Japanese see the great need of evising their educational system, according to Mr. Coleman, with emphasis on religious ideas, and want the Americans to bring to the children of Japan

In preparation for the event, the Japbeing raised for general entertainment expenses. Many of the best Japanese bomes the visiting delegates, a thing which has never before been done, so eager are they to do their next

Mr. Coleman expects about 2000 delegates from abroad and 1500 from the United States, to be present. Such men as Wanamaker and Hines have agreed to attend, and Mr. Coleman is on the trail of John D. Rockefeller Jr. Mr. Coleman spoke Friday night be-fore the Sunday school workers at the First Presbyterian church, and again at noon today before the Business Men's club. He left last night for Seattle, where he will spend three days before

This treatment has saved many a child's life, and mothers of croupy children should always have HYOMEI on hand.

For coughs, colds and catarzh, breathing HYOMEI through the inhaler is usually sufficient.

Many people, however, use the HYOMEI vapor treatment in conjunction with the inhaler. The vapor treatment is best taken just before going to bed; it only takes about five minutes' time. Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl three quarters full of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel, and breathe the vapor that arises deep into the lungs. By this method many a hard cold has been broken up over night. A HYOMEI outfit which consists of a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs $1.15 at the Owl
