New Programs At Portland Playhouses

FOLLOWING are changes at Portland playhouses today:
Liberty
What is a virtuous wife?
Amy Forrester, around whom Owen Johnson centers the celebrated story of "Virtuous Wives," which, in motion picture form, opened today at the Liberty for the week, with Miss Anita Stewart as the star, declares that virtue is essentially a state of mind. Webster's dictionary agrees with this definition, but Andrew Forrester, heartbroken, exclaims: "Virtue is a state of mind, and I can place in her."
"Fatty" Arbuckle in "Love," a two-reeler, is the comedy feature.

Star
Two popular screen children, Mary Jane Irving and Ben Alexander, have strong parts in the new master picture, "The Heart of Rachel," in which Besie Barricade is starred at the Star on the new program opening today. Besie Barricade is starred at the Star on the new program opening today. Besie Barricade is starred at the Star on the new program opening today.

Peoples
An excellent supporting cast appears with Dorothy Gish in "Boots," the picture opening at the Peoples today. Richard Barthelmess, who may be remembered as having appeared in "The Hope Chest," with Miss Gish, and the "Bab" series with Marguerite Clarke, has the lead opposite the saucy little star, Raymond Cannon, who played the part of the cunning lover opposite Miss Gish in "Battling Jane," and the part of the soldier chum in D. W. Griffith's Art-craft production, "The Great Love," seen in an important part. Edward Bell who played the part of the hero in "The Greatest Thing in Life," is a Bolshevik leader. Fontaine La Rue, the famous French character actress, plays the part of Miss Dorothy, and Kate V. Toneray, who also appeared in "Battling Jane," has the part of the London landlady.

Majestic
One of the best pictures in which Constance Talmadge has ever been seen is her latest select picture, "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," the new feature at the Majestic. "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots" is a story of a young girl who loves pretty clothes, and much against her husband's wishes she buys a pair of expensive embroidered slippers to wear to a fashionable party. Her husband, who is a replica of the pair in existence, and were purchased by Walter Huntley to give to his fiancée, Mabel Brown. Mabel becomes angry at Huntley, however, and breaks the slippers to pieces. Huntley gives the slippers to his maid.

Globe
"The Midnight Stage," Frank Keenan's big starring vehicle, is today's offering at the Globe. "The Midnight Stage" is the scenes of "The Midnight Stage" are laid for the most part in California, and the action has to do largely with the stirring events of early stage coach days in the Golden state. A "Fatty" Arbuckle comedy will be the lighter part of the bill.
Sunset
"Pals First," starring Harold Lockwood, is the feature film on the change at the Sunset today. "Pals First" has been seen in Portland in stock, having been well received during its engagement. It is an altogether human interest story. "Camping Out," a "Fatty" Arbuckle comedy, is the fun feature.

Camp Fire Girls At Astoria Organized

Four Corps of Girl Reserves Formed Under Direction of Miss L. E. Ford.

THE first ceremonial meeting of the Sacajawea Camp Fire Girls of Astoria was held in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms Thursday night, when seven members were initiated. The club, which is under the guardianship of Mrs. R. E. Cook of Central school, consists of 14 members, and in the first of its kind to be organized in Astoria.
Four corps of girl reserves were organized at Adair school Thursday under the direction of Miss L. E. Ford of the Y. W. C. A. here. Eight corps have been organized to date, two in Adair and two more in the high school. Plans for completing the organization, which will take in the entire city, will be completed this month, when Taylor school and Central are formed into corps. The girls' reserve work embraces the younger members of the organization, and is in planning the presentation of the opera "Pinafore" in the early part of this spring. Work on the assembling of the cast is now under way, and will include some of the best amateur theatrical talent in the city.
Mrs. Elmer Noble of Wallace, Idaho, is in Portland for a short sojourn, at the home of Miss Mildred Broughton. Mrs. Noble has been visiting friends in Pendleton.

Woman Thinks Fire Burglar's Footsteps

Mistaking the noise made by fire eating through the floor of her kitchen for burglars' footsteps, Mrs. J. Hasuka of 512 East Eighty-eighth street north decided to take her children and a dog and hide in a clump of brush nearby. When smoke and flames began pouring out of the kitchen windows did the woman become aware of the danger to her home. An alarm given by her 6-year-old son brought a number of neighbors to the scene, who attacked the blaze with a stream from a garden hose.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Multnomah camp, Woodmen of the World, is coming to the front as usual with many new applicants for membership. More than 100 have been notified to appear for completion of their membership. J. O. Wilson, clerk of the camp, is expected shortly to be called to Oakland in conference with other members of the ritual committee. The camp workers and husters begin to talk about a 400 membership before 1920, and are running a stiff race with Golden Gate camp, W. O. W., of San Francisco, with the California organization about 100 behind. It was for several years the strongest camp in the order, and it will not give up the struggle with Multnomah for first place.
Webfoot camp returned 1954 members for February and is in need of but a few more new members and a few reinstatements to bring it to 2000 for March.
The dances given by Portland lodge of Moose social committee every Tuesday and Saturday nights have turned into the treasury of the lodge over $3000 in the past six months. The lodge has paid off indebtedness on its hall and is now at the rate of nearly $1000 a month from its revenues and activities along different lines.
Eureka council, Knights and Ladies of Security, has made arrangements for a big music ball at 112 East Sixth street, W. O. W. hall. It has a reputation for making such affairs attractive to members and their friends, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested. Veterans returned are especially welcome.
Hassalo lodge, I. O. O. F., is preparing for the initiation of a large class in the near future. The degree team work Friday night at 112 East Sixth street. In dress rehearsal was witnessed by a number of members and visitors.
The Acacia club of Masons is not anxious for a rush of membership. It has enough now to be in a prosperous condition and, while it is true that members would be accepted there is no campaign for applicants. Its club rooms in the Central building are always open for visiting brothers from any lodge in the world.

Large Audience Attends Lecture

First of Series of Four Evenings of Art and Song Draws Big House.

THE Little Theatre was crowded to the doors Friday evening on the occasion of the first of the series of four evenings of art and song under the auspices of the business woman's committee of the Young Woman's Christian Association, with Mrs. Jessie M. Honeyman presiding and Mrs. E. P. Moesman giving the lecture.
Mrs. Honeyman outlined the purpose and plan of the course as a means of presenting the evolution and destruction of the ancient temples of worship with slides to illustrate the art and architecture. A number of interesting slides were then thrown on the screen showing the early tombs of the Egyptians, the pyramids, the first temples and then the more elaborate ones introducing the beautiful massive pillars.
The lecture was followed by a particularly attractive Egyptian solo dance given by Miss Jean Wild and then as a closing feature Miriam's dance of the East, given by a group of amateur dancers, wearing the flowing white costume of the early Egyptian.

'Slouchy' Walk of U. S. Maids Rapped By Woman Doctor

New York, March 15.—(I. N. S.)—"Drop the 'slouch' walk, and posture," is the advice given to the girls of America by Dr. Mary Merritt Crawford, who worked on French battlefields, and knows much about health laws. She advises girls to be "comrades in health" to the fine clean, upstanding youths who are returning from the front.
"The 'slouch' walk is ruinous to the health," she said. "We were made to stand upright. The present day slouch has caused a great many women cast into the hospital. The 'slouch' walk, those of nature—the abdominal muscles. It does not permit the proper exercise of the lungs and if not corrected will lead in a great increase of tuberculosis."

Neglect Charged to Tenant of Building

As an aftermath of a fire at 440 Washington street early Thursday morning, a warrant, signed by the city health officials, was issued for the arrest of George B. Jorison, proprietor of a candy store that was damaged by the fire. The blaze was due to spontaneous combustion, say the fire fighters, of an accumulation of hay, sweepings and refuse in the rear of the place which Jorison had been repeatedly ordered to remove.

Man Arrested for Sleeping on Lawn

Going to sleep on a neighbor's lawn cost William Greenholm, a carpenter, a $10 fine in the municipal court, Friday. Greenholm, a resident of 1000 Washington street, was charged with sleeping on a lawn at Broadway and Williams streets last Thursday night. The owner of the house called the police, and Greenholm was taken to jail on a charge of drunkenness.

Negro Confesses; Burned at Stake

Pensacola, Fla., March 15.—(I. N. S.)—Citizens of Santa Rosa county burned Bud Jones, a negro, to the stake in sight of the home of his victim, after the black had confessed to attacking a white woman, according to telegrams from Peace, Fla., today.

Bed Time Tales

The Bears Entertain Guests
"YOU must all make me a nice visit," Cousin Bruin told his friends who had followed him to his cave-home.
And when Jimmie Coon and Father Coon heard this, they whispered to each other: "My! how good it seems to be HIS guests—instead of having 'em for OUR guests! Wasn't it dreadfully hard to think of something for him to eat?"
So Jimmie and his father began to enjoy themselves, as guests of their famous Cousin Bruin. They knew that, at home, Mother Coon would not worry about them—for she knew that they could take care of themselves, they were such wonderful hunters and so clever in escaping their enemies.
"My two sons will roast the two pigs," Cousin Bruin told them.
So the two had little pigs were roasted—and it was really a good thing; or at the piglets and the other little pigs were having the first happy time they had ever had. You see, these two little pigs had been so mean to their little sisters and brothers, and so disobedient to their mother pig, that their family was much better off without them. Their poor mother's hair had turned quite gray from looking out for them.
"Now," called out Cousin Bruin, "come to dinner, then we will all have a good snooze, and after that I will take you all to a concert. You must all visit me for a few days."
Father Coon replied very politely that they didn't any of them seem to have any appetite for roast pork, that they liked something a little more delicate, and that a few frogs' legs would be quite enough, and he said, "Now Cousin Bruin, don't wait on us; just go on with your dinner. We will pull ours right out of that little pool in the brook, and Chatterbox can eat a few nuts, and then we will tuck ourselves into bed."
Cousin Bruin heaved a sigh of relief, for he dearly loved guests who

District Attorney Drops Equi Case

The case of the state against Dr. Marie Equi, a convicted radical with a 3-year penitentiary sentence hanging over her head, failed in the municipal court Friday and she was released. Dr. Equi was arrested Thursday night by Patrolmen Miller and Grewelle, and was locked up on a charge of criminal syndicalism. No complaint was issued and on the motion of the district attorney the case was dismissed.

Editor Brenne Acquitted

Cleveland, March 15.—(I. N. S.)—Richard Brenne, editor of a German language newspaper here, was acquitted Friday of a charge of violating the espionage act, after Federal Judge Kilitz instructed the jury to find him. Evidence, said the judge, did not show criminal intent on the part of Brenne to garble a news dispatch to make an American victory appear a failure.

Mrs. Runyon Is Nominated for Club Head

Session Friday at Multnomah Hotel of Woman's Club Gives to Armenians.

BY Vella Winner
MRS. CHARLES E. RUNYON was nominated for the presidency of the Portland Woman's club at the regular meeting held Friday at the Hotel Multnomah. Mrs. Runyon has been first vice president during the past year, has long been an enthusiastic worker in the club and is expected that she will be unanimously elected at the meeting two weeks from yesterday. Other nominees chosen were: First vice president, Mrs. G. H. Fetting and Mrs. G. M. Glines; recording secretary, Mrs. Chester W. Hopkins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. B. McLeod; financial secretary, Mrs. E. L. Fovey; treasurer, Mrs. C. Jackson; auditor, Mrs. D. M. Watson and Mrs. T. P. Wise; directors, Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor, Mrs. U. G. Smith and Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare.
The program was under the direction of Mrs. G. M. Glines, chairman of the civic committee, and Mrs. Frank McNeill, chairman of the educational committee. Major Thornton A. Mills gave a talk on "Industrial Peace of the Northwest." Miss Bernice Mathisen was charming in her violin numbers, accompanied by Miss Margaret Mathiesen. O. T. Wideneyer, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, was appreciated. Mrs. Sarah Evans paid a tribute to the late Governor Withycombe. The club voted $50 to the Armenian fund.

Garden Hints

Sheba Childs Hargreaves
Rhubarb is one of those common things that we do not half appreciate. While it does not supply nourishment, as do beans and potatoes, it is a substitute for fruit in giving the acid needed in the early spring diet.
A bed of asparagus planted now will yield no immediate returns, but all you will want to eat three years hence when the bed will come into bearing.
The inexperienced pruner will do well to locate the fruit spurs on apple and pear trees. They are apparently useless twigs about an inch long, but they bear the fruit. Do not disturb them.
The Japanese quince is one of the earliest blooming shrubs. Plan to have blooming shrubs in the garden the whole season. It all depends upon the selection.
Planting should be deeper on light soil than on heavy soils. No general rules can be given for gardening, so much depends on judgment.
Garlic thrives on any soil that will grow a good crop of onions. Plant a single clove in a piece.
There are chemical preparations for killing weeds, but to date they have not put the hoe into disrepute.
Plant a little early lettuce among the flowers if there is no place for an early garden.
Seasoned slabwood and inside wood, green stains for cash. Holman Fuel Co., Main 353, A-353—Adv.

Robert Burns' Anniversary Observed

Clan Macleay, O. S. C., Presents Excellent Program in Honor of Poet.

CROWDED with Scots and others who love the poet Robert Burns for the works he left, "hoisted" with delight at a splendid musical and entertainment program in honor of the poet at Masonic Temple Friday night when Clan Macleay No. 122, O. S. C., staged its postponed annual "Nicht wi' Burns." An artistic program of music was featured by the songs of Mrs. Jane Burns Albert, Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson, Harold Hubert and John Cairns Montith, accompanied by J. H. Hutchison. "There Was a Lad Was Born in Kyle," was a quartet number rendered with especial beauty.
Following a brief address by the clan chief, William Linklater, the Misses Mathis and D. Gray and W. Purvis danced Scottish steps; J. F. Diok offered readings; Helen and Jean Harper played violin and piano selections; Walter J. Stevenson sang Scotch ballads and George C. Graham rendered some of Harry Lauder's famous songs. Benjamin Scovell, recently returned from "Y" work in France, thrilled the large audience with recitations of his experiences overseas. Pipe Major MacDonald's work was a distinctly Scottish feature of the evening.
The program was followed by a dance.
