Searles Winner in Anto Sweepstakes At Ascot Speedway

Los Angeles, March 24. - Roscoe Searles, driving a Roamer car, won the 50-mile all-star $50,000 sweepstakes at Ascot speedway Sunday in 2 hours, 7 minutes and 2 seconds, finishing 50 yards in front of Eddie Hearn in a Chevrolet special. Eddie Pullen in a terday. Hudson special was third, and Cliff Durant, Chevrolet special, winner of the Santa Monica road race, finished fourth. Searles drove a remarkable race. Al-though forced to the pits three times, made up the lost time cleverly and had the race well in hand at the finish. Preceding the main event, Ralph De Palma ; sent his big Packard motor around the track in a try at the record, but 46 seconds for the mile was the day when they beat an all star team 3 best he could do.

There is no more conscientious worker in camp than Rapp and the little lefthander who saw so much service in the New York State league is going to make a bid for the job of leading lefthanded pitcher. There is one thing that Rapp knows, and that is how to pitch. His easy delivery makes it possible for him to work more often than the ordinary ball player. We have a little smoke bet on with Art Ritter. Art thinks that Seattle will have a bigger opening day crowd than Portland. Art, we might add, is very young and he has a lot to learn about the psychology of baseball crowds. in the world is self-respect. Whatever increases it is good; whatever lessens it is bad. That is self-evident.

The hobo, the man always in debt, the man dependent on others, possesses little selfrespect.

But the man who has a bank account will admit that his respect for himself increases with each addition to his balance. Selfrespect is a by-product of Saving.

This bank, nearly three score years old, solicits either savings or checking accounts.
