Oregon Men Seek Release-Owing to many requests sent to Washington the acting chief of staff has promised Senator Chamberlain to send a cablegram asking the release of the Second battalion, 162d infantry, which is detained in the service near Liverpool, England. The senator is advised, however, that the 60 Oregon men in Company G, 63d infantry, who are doing police duty in Potomac park, are in the regular army and their discharge is not possible until the new volunteer system has provided men to take their places.

Camp. Lewis Suit Ended-What is claimed to have been the largest condemnation suit in the history of the United States courts was concluded, when the 60,000 acres of ground on which Camp Lewis is located was turned over to the government. The case involved the expenditure of $2,000,000 for land and court proceedings. Nearly 5000 persons were interested in the land and 2200 separate plots were affected. Marshall 4381, A-3611.—Adv. The land was a gift of Pierce county to government, and the county was bonded for $2,000,000 to pay for the land and court proceedings.
