MAINTENANCE BOND IS HIT

Different Form of Wording for faulty construction. to Prevent Misconstruction.

Salem, March 25 .- House bill 114. was enacted into law by the recent legislature and which makes it unlawful for the state highway coma maintenance guarantee in prevent the commission from including highway." a provision for the guarantee of workmanship and materials used in connection with a paving project, according to an opinion given by Attorney port of all the measures which will be ing.

The attorney general holds that the the secretary of state, who will in commission may require a guarantee of workmanship and materials cover-ing a period of five years without conwith the intent of the new law. In his opinion he quotes extracts from the present form of road con-tract being used by the highway com-

"From a reading of the toregoing quotations taken from page 7 of the ntract and the quotation taken from the bond, it appears that the subject covered and intended to be reached, is Attorney General Rules Highway the matter of remedying defects in pavement, either from faulty material or faulty workmanship, and it appears that the subject intended to be reached by H. B. 114 is the question of maintenance of highways which may have been devoid of defects either from workmanshi, or materials in the first instance, but which need repairs and reconstruction because of condiions other than those resulting from

"It is my opinion that H. B. 114 was Contract and Bond Proposed not intended to, and does not conflict with the provision above quoted from the contract; likewise the provision from the bond.'

But to avoid possible misconstruction he suggests a diferent form of wording for the contract and the bond, ing.

"You will permit me to make the any other public official further suggestion," he concludes, "that a more satisfactory guarantee than an be. construction contract, does not at the time of construction of the action on a bond is a rigid inspection

Salem, March 25 .- Arguments in sup-

General Brown to the state highway on the tiallot at the special election to be held June 3 lave been filed with clude them in the voters' pamphlet, which will soon be issued. This pamphlet will contain all the measures to be voted on.

No negative arguments were filed. All the arguments, except in two instances, were prepared by committees appointed by the legislature. The two exceptions are in connection with the measure authorizing the state to cooperate with the government in the construction of the proposed Roosevelt military coast highway and the constitutional raising the limitation for road bond indebtedness by countles from 2 per cent to 6 per cent of the assessed val-

In these two instances arguments were filed by private organizations. Commissioners Are Responsible

Salem, March 25.—In an opinion F. W. Mulkey, chairman of the soldiers' and sailors' commission, created by an act passed by the recent legislator appropriating $100,000 for the re lief of returning soldiers and sailors, Attorney General Brown holds that the members of the commission are personally responsible and liable for the funds entrusted to them. Mr. Mulkey asked, him who would oney in a bank and the bank failed, and the attorney general replies that the members of the commission would public officers receiving and holding money under authority of law," he says, "are responsible for its safe
