

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS WILL HOLD BALANCE OF POWER

New Organization Not Intended as Political Organization, Explains Mrs. Carrie C. Catt.

WOMEN NOT TO HAVE PARTY

Will Support Candidates on Old Party Tickets Who Are Favorable to Demands of Women.

St. Louis, March 29.—(U. P.)—Politics of the nation in the future will have to reckon with woman's judgment and sentiments.

With the birth of the League of Women Voters at the convention of the National Woman Suffrage association here, women amalgamated for a new "balance of power" in state and national political affairs.

"The league is not a political party and will not support or oppose political issues other than in connection with the candidacies of men who are for or against the principles for which women stand," Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt declared tonight, in outlining the future of the new organization.

"We do not intend to place candidates in the field at elections as a party and every member is perfectly free to ally herself with any party she may choose," said Mrs. Catt.

No Woman's Ticket

Present plans of the organization are not to dabble in party conventions but wait their chance with the full ballot. They plan to use their weapon in ballot contests from state legislatures to the college of electors.

"The things women want will be pushed through the support of the candidate, regardless of his party," Dr. Anna Howard Shaw of New York, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, said in discussing the new League of Voters. "There will not be a woman's ticket."

Mrs. Shaw declared her belief that women are as capable as men of holding office "from president down," and suggested Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt "would be able to fulfill the position as well, and maybe better than any man I know."

The league aims at:
Securing submission of the federal suffrage amendment to the states.
Establishment at Washington of a national department of education with a secretary in the cabinet.
A League of Nations to secure worldwide peace.
Recognition by the government of fitness of professional women for work which their training and experience qualifies them to do.
Bringing about prompt redress of all legitimate grievances as a safeguard against revolution by violence.
Legislation providing for physical education of children.
Establishment of a permanent women's bureau in the United States department of labor and vocational equality.

RIGID INSPECTION OF MEAT USED IN CITY WILL BE CONSIDERED

Packers and Commission Men to Frame Ordinance Covering Problem.

Representatives of packers and commission men will confer with City Meat Inspector Chase to frame an ordinance for presentation to the city council within a short time. The committee will endeavor to provide a more rigid inspection of meat.

The heart, lungs and liver should be on the carcass for inspection, authorities agree, and it is planned to regulate inspection that those parts will be attached. Multnomah county producers can ship their cattle to the city, it is claimed, with the heart, lungs and liver attached, allowing for the proper inspection. Outside producers, however, cannot send their meat in that condition, experts state, because the meat would sour during the hot weather. It is, therefore, a problem to arrange for a sufficient inspection of the outside meat and protect the consumer.

To send the parts in a sack to the inspector has been suggested, but objection to that method is raised because it is impossible for the inspector to tell whether the parts belong to the carcass accompanying.

A possible solution of the problem is presented through the inspection tests of county veterinarians, who, under a recent act of the legislature, are paid by the county for tests. It is pointed out that the city can get reports from these inspections on the outside meat, and will thereby have the entire field covered.

RESCUE SOCIETY TO TAKE UP MANY TOPICS AT ANNUAL SESSION

Should Woman Be Judge of Domestic Relations Court Will Be Point for Discussion.

"Should a woman be judge of the domestic relations court?"

"Should we advocate church and college control of matrimonial bureaus?" "Should white girls be employed in Oriental cafes?" "Should girls 18 years and under be employed as waiters in public places of amusement?"

These are some of the questions which will be asked by speakers and answered by members of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society at its twelfth annual convention to be held in the First Methodist church, Portland, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Stop, Look, Listen," the first address to be heard at the convention, will sound the keynote. It will be given by W. G. MacLaren, general superintendent, who will set before the delegates the need of a greater awakening to the problems which confront parents, teachers and youth itself.

"Why so Many Juvenile Criminals?" is the title of an address selected by Sullivan H. Healy, chief probation officer of Tacoma. Mr. Healy will attempt to give reasons for delinquent traits exhibited in minors.

Dr. George A. Sheafe of Seattle will speak on the relation of a child's parents to the waywardness of the child. That the parent and not the child should be punished, will form the basis of Dr. Sheafe's talk.

Musical programs and dramatic readings will entertain the delegates when they are not occupied with the problem of making possible less delinquency among minors.

The colored man's clothes bulged suspiciously as he attempted to pass through the station gates and one of the bottles, striking the iron gratings, made a suspicious sound that caused the policeman to investigate. Hickman was held in default of $250 bail.

Proposes Ban on Political Meetings In Alien Tongues

Aberdeen, March 29.—Resolutions urging the city council to forbid the holding of political meetings in Aberdeen in foreign languages were passed by the Aberdeen Soldiers' and Sailors' league.

The resolutions are aimed chiefly at the discussion of national politics in foreign languages. They are not intended to affect other gatherings than political. The resolutions are urged on account of the alleged holding of meetings here recently at which foreigners discussed "America's Mistake in the War," and protested the deportation of aliens.
