International Children's Week Will Be Observed in Portland This Month

ATTENTION TO BE GIVEN WELFARE OF GROWING CHILD

Elaborate Preparations Are Being Made for Week of April 27-May 4 to Arouse Public Interest

Material as Well as Spiritual Improvement of Little Ones Will Be Impressed at Meetings.

Thousands of communities throughout the nation will observe an international "Children's Week," April 27 to May 4, for the purpose of emphasizing the religious education of children. There will be hundreds of community mass meetings, institutes, conferences, as well as pageants and parades, all for the purpose of arousing public sentiment in favor of giving to children their religious rights.
The United States government.

through the child welfare bureau, has for saveral years urged a week of consideration for the moral and material development of childhood. In 1917 the international children's division committee of the International Sunday school association, promoted a continent-wide cradle roll week, emphasizing the Christian nature of babies. Encouraged by the success of cradle roll week, the movement has been broadened out to embrace all of childhood, that parents and Sunday school workers and everyone else may awaken to an interest in the religious education of children everywhere.

Week Annually Observed Children's week is annually observed children's parades, song and story pageants and other interesting gatherings. under consideration.

The work and program is varied to suit throughout the state. The following program has been sugrested for the convenience of Sunday school superintendents: Program for Week

Monday, teachers and officers lend all mittee appointed by the community leader; Tuesday, attend community parade of pageant, if one is given; Wedlay, a church supper to be followed by an evening devoted to a study of the needs of the children in the Sunday school; Thursday, completion of the visitation during day and attendance at evening institute; Friday, attendance at evening institute; Saturday, in the afternoon have a party or picnic for the children and their mothers. It is also suggested to plan for these good times departments. The program should include stories, songs, games and some service for others, such as the preparation of postcard pictures or scrap books for the mission field or soldier and children's hopsitals. The week may be closed Sunday morning during the session of the school with a special program for the reception and recognition of new members. Any superintendent in the state desiring additional information on the observance of Children's Week, may write to Harold Humbert, state secretary, at room 510 Abington building, Portland.

Community Sing Feature A community sing and addresses by Methodist church. A few of the topics of the men will be "Porto Rico," "The City," and "America's Duty in World Rebuilding." Sunday morning the pas-tor, Rev. E. O. Eldridge, will preach.

1st Sermon in Rew Pastorate Sunday

In Dr. William F. Ineson, the new pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church, the east side district has secured one of the prominent figures of Methodism in the state of Washington. He has held the pastorate of the Methodist church in Yakima for ive and a half years and has built up in that time one of the strongest church organizations in Central Washington. With the exception of Spokane, the Yakima church is the largest in the Columbia River conference.

The esteem in which Dr. Ineson was ALL SIDES TO BE CONSIDERED held at his former pastorate is shown by athe farewell reception last Thursday night he was presented with a solid gold watch and Mrs. Ineson with a jew-eled mroach. The Mystic Shrine in Yakima are presenting him with the legrees of their order in recognition of his splendid work for the citizenship of Yakima. Sunday morning he will preach his first sermon in his new

First Presbyterian Church 12TH AND ALDER STREETS

Formed Thursday By Dr. Stansfield

Last Thursday afternoon Dr. Joshua Stansfield organized a children's class for training in Bible study and church doctrines and membership at the First Methodist church. The course will cover a period of 10 weeks. The meetings for study and work will be in the Oxford parlors on Thursdays between 4:10 and 4:50. Recreation and games will follow the class for about 30 minutes in the basement of the Sunday school temple Miss R. Adams will direct the girls' games and Dr. Stansfield the boys' games. Dr. Stansfield is demanding a certain amount of written work from the pupils, which will be corrected and
