Magazine Big Feature

Current Events, Cartoons, Fashions, and Many Other Departments in New Departure.

Journal Screen

COOPERATING with the Universal is arranging to issue and release through the local exchange, the "Oregon Journal Screen Magazine"—which marks not one, but many "new departures" in the methods of compiling this type of a feature. "The world is so full of a number of things," according to the old nursery rhyme, and many of these things, while immensely interesting, do not properly come under the sway of the current events and news reel feature. Such things as this form the basis of the Screen Magazine. How did Uncle Sam handle the problem of making his ships invisible to the German submarine? The Screen Magazine, in one issue, gives a graphic story of the cambuflage of the American merchant marine and one knows just as well how it was done as though one had worked in a government camouflage department.

In addition to this feature, however, there is added an array of novelties in the way of animated cartoons and other special features. "Tad," with his "Indoor Sport" cartoons, drolly animated; Hy Mayer, with fashion cartoens animated to melt into stunning realities; the "Whoozit Weakly," with a constantly changing series of animated cartoons, are featured. The "Laughographs," which have demonstrated that the printed word on the motion picture screen is almost as powerful an entertainer as the moving picture, is another delightful feature of the magazine. The "Laughographs" contain the gist of the sharpest and withest sayings of the month from the principal newspapers and publications of

Sore Feet Epidemic

We've had many kinds of epidemics, but there now seems to be a new one widely prevalent among adults. This is an epidemic of foot troubles, an acute swollen and painful condition of the feet, often quite severe and accompanied with excess sweating. The cause is attributed to nebulae, high humidity, etc. But the important thing, as its victims will agree, is a remedy. This is to be had, according to foot doctors and druggists, in the peculiar astringent, soothing action of Cal-ocide, when used in the foot-bath. It gives prompt relief and lasting results and is simple to use. Cal-ocide costs but a quarter and each package contains little plasters said to remove the most stubborn corn. This is worth trying.—Adv.

No harm results from this treatment, but care should be used to buy real delatone.-Adv.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive scaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.-Adv.
