BEAVERS BATTER BEES WHEN MAC SWITCHES LINEUP

Batting Order of Portland Team Changed Before Entering Game With Salt Lake and the Mormons Are Taken to 8 to 2 Cleaning; Cox Scores Two.

SALT LAKE, April 18.—Portland had an easy time with the Bees Thursday, and when the smoke of battle had cleared the Beavers were out on the long end of an 8 to 2 score. Although the Bees outthit the Beavers, they were unable to hit when hits would have meant runs.

The first runs came in the third inning when the Beavers made two hits count for two runs. In the fourth the Bees made their one hit count for a run. This was a home run clout by Earl Sheely. In the fifth inning Portland got two more hits and one runner crossed the plate. In the sixth the Beavers scored three runs. Salt Lake got their last run in the sixth frame. In the ninth inning Portland shoved two men across the home plate. The Bees could do anything in the scoring line in their half of the ninth.

Carroll Jones, starting his first game for the Beavers, was touched up for seven hits and two runs in seven innings but was saved from being scored upon several more times by some clever fielding and a trio of double plays two of which he started himself. Penner, who replaced Jones in the eighth, was a trifle wild, but managed to get by without being scored on. Lefty Schorr was as wild as a March hare, issuing seven bases on balls in the five plus innings that he was on the mound and Conkright, who replaced him, was equally as wild. Schorr allowed but four hits.

Cox Starts Beavers Cox's double to left field, scoring Farmer and Walker, started the Beavers on the road to their second victory of the season. Farmer reached first on a walk and Walker beat out a slow roller to Sands and the runners advanced on Sands' overthrow of second. Sign's single and steel and Walker's blow to right gave Portland another run in the fifth inning and in the sixth Schorr lost the little control he had and walked Cox and Baker. Fuller beat out a slow roller and Henning was walked, forcing Cox across the plate. Conkright replaced Schorr at this point of the game. Jones filed out to Muttve and Baker scored after the catch. Blue reached first on Krug's error and Fuller scored. Henning was out at the plate on Sign's tap to Conkright and Farmer skied to Maggett.

Baker's single in the ninth chased over two runs, Sign's and Walker having been given free transportation. Salt Lake's first run was scored in the fourth on Walker's error of Rumber's fly and Spencer's single. Sheely homed in the sixth. Henning and Cox reached first base every time they came to bat except in the ninth inning.

WOULD LEE LOOK NICE ON FIRST?

Little Hope of Return of Former Beaver, as He Is Playing Great Ball With Pirates.

By R. A. Crossin HOW would Cliff Lee look on first base for the Beavers with that big bluegum and those fast legs of his?

But is there a chance to get the youngster who was cruelly drafted last fall from the Portland club of the Northwest circuit by the Pittsburgh Pirates? There may be a return, and yet the showing made by Lee in the Pittsburgh training camp at Birmingham would seem to preclude any possibility of his return this season to Portland.

The former Portland catcher, who is too fast footed really to be handicapped behind the bat, played in a Regular-Yanigan game in the Corsairs' camp and this led to his being drafted. Made three safe hits, divided into one home run, one three base hit and one single, all of which went to different fields.

But if Cliff Lee comes back to the minors, Cliff Lee will come to Portland, the Beavers having first claim to his services. Lee married in Portland and he wants to play another season here, if he has his choice he would be with the Portland new right now.

It may be new right now that Judge McCredie offered to trade George Maisel to Pittsburgh for Cliff Lee, an even up swap, but Maisel said he had several chances to go with major league clubs and yet the Pittsburgh club did not want him. At least it did not want him without giving Lee the best and head.
