The case has been argued and at present is before Judge George Taswell for decision. It is not known whether or not he will decide the case before he takes the office of circuit judge, which he was given by the last legislature. In the event that he does not, it is possible that the case will have to be argued again before him in his new office.

Coy Burnett is confident that he will succeed in the contest over the will, and the event that the awaited decision is unfavorable, is prepared to proceed with the fight in the next higher court

Industrial Life of Five States Seriously Disrupted; Sympathy Said to Be With Operatives.

Boston, April 18 .- (U. P.) -- Democratic Congressman James A. Gallivan, speaking at a meeting of striking telephone operators here today, bitterly arraigned Postmaster General Burleson for his attitude toward the telephone employees He declared that Burleson is "slipping in Washington, had alipped in Massachusetts," and urged the girls not to quit the

By J. J. Rowlands Boston, Mass., April 18.—(U. P.)— Twenty thousand telephone employes of five New England states are on strike industrial and social life of five states has been seriously disrupted; more than 630,000 telephones are out of more than 630,000 telephones are out of commission; the loss to business interests is daily amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars and the people are facing emergencies in which, under normal conditions the telephone plays the leading part. And, yet, despite the tremendous inconvenience to which the public has been subjected, the financial loss and the personal anxiety, there is every indication that the public sympathizes with the striking telephone workers.

The strike is an effort on the part o organized labor to gain higher wages. The governors of the five states affected by the strike cabled President Wilson urging action to settle it. City and state officials have been and still are making desperate efforts to find some way of bringing about a restoration of telephone service. Leading Democrats of New England, in a cable to President Wilson, charged that the postmaster general is wrecking the Democratic party and demanded that he be removed and the strike settled. A general strike of all labor in New England is predicted if the strike is not settled in a very short time.

The possibility of a nation wide of telephone employes has advanced from the stage of being con-sidered to the point where plans for such a move are in the making. The strikers in New England are constantly being assured of the support of unions in every

FERRERA IS EXCITABLE WITNESS IN HIS LIBEL SUIT AGAINST VISETT

On Cross-Examination He Admits His Paper Published Poem Reflecting on Rival.

Albert B. Ferrera, Portland attorney and complaining witness for the state in the action for criminal libel brought against D. Carlo Visetti, former Italian nal, took the witness stand today shortly after the opening of the trial in Circuit Judge Kavanaugh's court, and branded as absolutely false the slander-ous articles which appeared concern-ing him on November 22, 1918, in the newspaper owned by the defendant. "Absolutely false, the imaginings of a perverted mind." was the witness' response to a question by Deputy District Attorney Bernard as to whether there was any truth in the alleged libelous

During the examination of Mr. Ferrera it was necessary for the attorneys on both sides to caution the witness to remain cool, as he frequently made heated remarks concerning his reputed libeler, who was seated by the side of his counsel, John L. Stevenson and G.

On one occasion after being admonished by Attorney Stevenson to keep cool and answer the questions put to him, Mr. Ferrera retorted: "I know John, but if you had been assassinated by that man as I have, you wouldn't keep cool, you would

On the cross-examination the witness for the state admitted that he was the editor of the Italian Tribune, which had published a poem containing charges against the defendant, Dr. Visetti. However, Mr. Ferrara disclaimed authorship of the poem in question and stated that while he was editor of the paper he had nothing to do with the publishing of it. The first he knew of the poem, he said, was when a copy of the paper containing it was delivered to his office. He averred that had he known beforehand of its nature he would have prevented its publication. Attorneys for the defense will attempt to show that it was because of this attack upon Dr. Visetti made in the paper of which Mr. Ferrera is editor although only nominally, that the accused published the article on November 22 for which he was indicted. Circuit Judges C. U. Gantenbein and William Gatens testified in behalf of Mr. Ferrera both as to their long acquaintance with him and his character and standing before the community.

Attorneys Bradley E. Ewers, E. Mendenhall and L. F. Tarpley all testified that they had been sent copies of the publication containing the libelous arsubscribers to the paper. They also gave evidence as to Mr. Ferrera's good standing in the city.

R. H. Barker Is Badly Bruised in Fall Off Bridge

As the result of a fall from the Barton bridge on the Estacada interurban line, R. H. Barker, who lives in East Twenty-third street, was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Thursday afternoon, suffering from a broken collar bone and a broken arm. Barker was brought to the city on a car, and taken to the hospital by the Ambulance Service company.

He was employed by the P. R., L. & P. to repair the bridge. Some planking on which he was standing collapsed.

Escaped Insane Man Seeks Old Room at Asylum

Salem, April 18.—Theodore Lindfors, who escaped from the Oregon state hospital for the insane in August, 1917, reappeared at the hospital Thursday and applied for his old room. He asked to be recommitted. He was in a somewhat worse condition than when he escaped the hospital, and the hospital authorities could not get from him where he had been, except that he was in California for a while. He is 29 years old and was originally committed from Multnomah county in July, 1917.

SERVICE WITH ARMY

Went Over as Private in Old Third Oregon and Returned as Officer With New Yorkers.

Lieutenant Neil Malarkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Malarkey, is in Portland after an absence of nearly two years. He has been in France since February, 1918, returning with D company, 102d ammunition train, with the Twenty-seventh division on March 3. He came over on the Mount Vernon and landed at New York March 11. After considerable parading around in New York, the home of the Twenty-seventh division, he was finally mustered out of the service and arrived in Portland Wed

Lieutenant Malarkey enlisted with company of the old Third Oregon sho ly after the declaration of war in 1917. He served until August doing guard duty, mostly around bridges in gon and Washington. In the fall of 1917 he went with the regiment to Camp Greene, N. C., and in December, 1917, he went across with the Rainbow di-

Having been made a sergeant, he was one of those kept with the regiment to finish off new soldiers before they were sent into the front fines. In the summer of 1918, however, he was sent from the regiment at Bordeaux to the officers' training school, receiving his commission in October. He was assigned to the headquarters troop of the Second army though not in time to see any action. On February 25 he was trans-ferred to the Twenty-seventh division. for transportation home.

The Spring Rains Bring Grippe

This sort of weather brings colds and grippe. If it's just a common cold people say, "there's no danger in that!" But many a fatal sickness begins with a cold - with vitality weakened - the system is ready for the Influenza germs. Begin early to ward off the attack. Purge the system of the toxins (poisons) by taking castor oil, or a vegetable laxative made of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, and jalap, rolled into sugar-coated pills and to be had at all drug stores as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If the cold starts with a cough, and it persists then some local treatment for this condition should be taken. A well known alterative extract which has been on the market for a great many years, and which has been highly recommended by thousands of users, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This tonic compound is composed of an extract of roots and herbs without alcohol, and has a soothing effect upon the mucous membrane, allays the irritation and at the same time works in the proper and at the company's plant Thursday morn- reasonable way, at the seat of the trouble—the stagnated er poisoned blood.
