

AMERICAN LEGION OF VETERANS TO RALLY SATURDAY

Captain Dow Walker, Temporary State Chairman, Announces Meet in Each County April 26.

ORGANIZATION FIRST OBJECT

Plan Is Similar to G. A. R.; Men of Ranks Leaders in Early Plan for Nation-Wide Society.

The first meetings in Oregon of the American Legion, the national organization of soldiers, sailors and marines who were in service either at home or abroad during the world war, will be held next Saturday night.

Multnomah county veterans will meet at 8 o'clock in the Portland Armory. Meetings will be held in all counties.

The purpose of the first meetings is to organize each county unit temporarily and select delegates to attend the first national convention to be held in St. Louis May 8.

Oregon may send 10 delegates, twice the number of its congressional representatives.

"With Oregon first in all patriotic movements, we do not want to lag in helping to get the ball rolling for the American Legion," said Captain Dow Walker, who is temporary state chairman.

ROOSEVELT IS LEADER

Captain Walker was appointed temporary chairman for Oregon March 26 by Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, temporary national chairman.

"We want to send 10 delegates, our quota, determined by the number of congressmen from Oregon, to the convention," said Captain Walker.

The organization has no funds and delegates must pay their expenses. It is hoped that there will be a sufficient number of Oregon ex-service men who have business in the East next month to be delegates.

Following meetings in the counties names of volunteer delegates should be sent to Captain Walker, 581 Salmon street.

NOT ORGANIZATION OF OFFICERS

The American Legion is a non-partisan, non-sectarian organization. It has one plank—Americanism. It is an organization similar to the G. A. R. or the United Confederate Veterans. Men below the rank of commissions are in the great majority.

It is not an organization for officers, no more than in the G. A. R.

Following is an excerpt from the tentative constitution:

"We, the members of the military and naval services of the United States of America in the great war, desiring to perpetuate the principles of justice, freedom and democracy for which we have fought; to inculcate the duty and obligation of the citizen to the state; to preserve the history and incidents of our participation in the war; and to cement the ties of friendship formed in service, do propose to form and establish an association for the furtherance of the foregoing purposes."

Fiu's Great Death Roll

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—(U. N. S.)—Indiana claimed upwards of 100,000 lives in Illinois in 1918, according to conservative estimates fixed by the state department of public health. The country's total is estimated at 553,136.

Bringing Capital And Labor Nearer Together, Purpose

"It has become apparent that the standpoint and reactionary employer is equally responsible with the agitator for the unrest that exists. The former must be educated and the latter eliminated. Employers must realize that times have changed; that every honest and loyal employe is entitled to share fairly in what labor earns; that organized labor acts as a buffer between them and danger as a bulwark between organized society and dissolution."

Accepting these as facts as a working basis upon which to stimulate co-operation among manual labor, mental labor and capital labor, to hasten the process of post-war reconstruction, to promote business and to extend the government's program of education, the Industrial Council of Portland has launched a movement to assist in expelling unrest.

The council, which held its first meeting of organization April 7, owes its birth to the Portland Ad club.

"The council will endeavor to teach the employer and the employe that it is good business for them to become good friends," said Frederick T. Russell, president of the organization.

"When the two great parts of our industrial machines become friends unrest and discontent will fade away, because one never attacks his real friends."

RECONSTRUCTION OF BIG BRIDGES URGED BY RUFUS HOLMAN

County Commissioner Says Morrison and Burnside Viaducts Are Inadequate.

Immediate plans should be made to reconstruct the Morrison and Burnside street bridges, says Rufus C. Holman, chairman of the interstate bridge commission and county commissioner, who declares these bridges are already obsolete and totally incompetent to handle heavy traffic.

During the recent session of the legislature a bill was passed authorizing the board of county commissioners to reconstruct Willamette river bridges, this being prompted by the reports of overloaded conditions on the Burnside and Morrison bridges during the past year.

The Burnside bridge was really built for wagon service, says Mr. Holman, and the change of conditions has made it necessary to build a new structure in the place of this bridge and the Morrison street bridge.

Mr. Holman advocates the making of plans and receiving of estimates on the rebuilding and then placing the matter of selling bonds to finance the work to a referendum. He believes that the interest on a set of serial bonds could be paid out of the toll receipts of the interstate bridge, and says that already a surplus of $300,000 exists from this source.

School Teachers Seeking Positions In Large Numbers

Applicants for teaching positions in the city schools are swamping the school administration offices for personal interviews with Superintendent D. A. Grout and his assistants. Teachers for next year will be elected at the second meeting of the school directors in May and during the period preceding election Mr. Grout expects to make a thorough study as to the qualifications and especial fitness of the prospective teachers.

To observe the teacher as she actually works, Superintendent Grout and Assistant Superintendents Rice and Whitney have mapped out a program of visits to the schools in the city where enough teachers have applied to make the visit worth while.

Mr. Whitney spent the early part of the week visiting down the valley, and Mr. Rice will leave next week for Salem and Woodburn.

The old plan of employing teachers from the East on the basis of credentials has been abolished, according to Superintendent Grout and a personal interview is insisted upon in the case of every applicant.

Veteran of Civil War Laid at Rest

The Dalles, April 21.—The funeral of John F. Stanleys was held here Saturday. Mr. Stanleys was 78 years old and a veteran of the Civil war. He enlisted in the 11th Maine, and served three years. He then re-enlisted in California and served for the duration of the war. Afterward he mined in California for several years and then came to Baker, Ore., where he married Miss Margaret Finlayson Street. He had lived in The Dalles for 42 years. Besides his wife he is survived by three children—Harold A. Stanleys, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. Clyde F. Smith and Miss Ethel Stanleys, both of The Dalles, and a stepson, James R. Street, also of this city.

The Dalles Leads In Finding Work

The Dalles, April 21.—More men have been placed in jobs by the local employment office than by any other in the state, outside of Portland, according to Frank B. Manning, assistant director of war relief work for the American Red Cross, who was in The Dalles Sunday. Manning paid a high compliment to the local employment office for the efficient work which it has done.

Veteran Printer And Editor Dead

Tacoma, April 21.—George Moore, a member of the Typographical union for 20 years and editor of the Tacoma Labor Advocate, died here Saturday evening. Mr. Moore had been editor of the Advocate for the past two years and was the organizer of the paper years ago.

LAND SEEKERS WANT TO KNOW RIGHTS IN SILVER LAKE DISTRICT

Number of "Squatters" Retain Services of Gus C. Moser to Make Investigation.

A number of land seekers who recently paid $250 each for being "located" on unsurveyed lands contiguous to Silver lake, in Lane county, are in doubt as to the soundness of their investments and have retained the services of Gus C. Moser to determine whether they have just ground for grievance against the "locators."

C. W. Embody, one of the locators, with offices in the Northwest National Bank building, also referred to Mr. Moser as his attorney, though Mr. Moser stated Saturday that he had not been retained to represent Embody.

B. Winters, a real estate dealer living at 6911 Whitman avenue, says that he was a prospective squatter on the Silver lake lands, but before investing $250 he made inquiries at the state land board at Salem, and after listening to an opinion of Assistant Attorney General Van Winkle, has decided to put his money into Victory loan bonds or some other equally good security.

According to Mr. Van Winkle, the status of title to Silver lake has never been determined and no one knows whether it belongs to the state of Oregon, to the federal government, or to riparian owners. If the land belongs to the government and is classified as unsurveyed agricultural land the "locators" can equal it with hope of ultimately securing title. If it belongs to the government and comes under the head of desert land the squatter would have no rights, neither would he own state lands nor upon property belonging to riparian owners.

Silver lake is described by Mr. Winters as a shallow, un navigable lake fed by waters from a number of small creeks. A comparatively large volume of the flow of these streams has been diverted from its natural course, and as a result the lake is rapidly drying up. It is upon this dried area that squatters have been located.

The lake has not been surveyed, but is estimated to cover approximately 5000 acres. The soil is described by locators, according to Mr. Winters, as being of extreme richness and capable of vast yields of alfalfa and other crops. He was told, he says, that it would be possible in a very few years for one to sell a homestead located there for $100 per acre or more after having become quickly affluent from the proceeds of annual crop sales.

Mr. Moser, attorney for the squatters, was not prepared Saturday afternoon to give an opinion as to whether the land in question belongs to the government, the state or to the riparian owners, or whether it is classified as desert or agricultural land.

A telegram was received Saturday by County Judge Travell from R. Williams of Bowling Green, Missouri, stating that he was leaving for this city immediately to secure his sister, Mrs. Harriet Etherton, adjudged insane and committed to the state hospital last week. The telegram stated that relatives of Mrs. Etherton were afraid she had been made the victim of a conspiracy as her letters home had appeared perfectly normal.

The Only School where the teachers are real professional dancers, with ability to appear before the public in stage and exhibition dances.

AVOID INFERIOR TEACHERS whose ability consists of a Victrola and a small room, or those who derive their profits from public dances and teach as a side line. Hundreds of my pupils have time and money in such schools. They were discouraged and thought they could never learn to dance until they joined my classes. They are now good dancers, and I tell you you can learn—it is simple and easy, but you must have a real teacher, and you must have practice. My new book on Dancing, Etiquette, Steps, New Steps and Stage Dances will be given free to all joining our new classes, or taking private lessons this lesson will be mailed on receipt of $1. Call afternoon or evening, learn from professional dancers. Phone Main 7666. City this out, tell your friends.—Adv.

Cabinet Officers Scored by Farmers

Waco, April 21.—The executive committee of the Farmers' league of Texas, meeting here Saturday, scored Postmaster General Burleson and representatives of "personal government."

"We declare that personal government and meddling in affairs of private citizens by such officials as Postmaster General Burleson, Secretary Houston and Bernard Baruch of the war trade board is undemocratic and un-American," the resolution said.

Over 300 Vaccinated

More than 300 people have been vaccinated during the last two days by the city health bureau in an effort to stop the spread of smallpox. Approximately 155 employes of Twoby Bros. received the prophylaxis after the discovery of two cases where the sufferers had been employed by Twoby's. One hundred and twenty-five workers were vaccinated at the Portland laundry Saturday afternoon, and 30 tenants of an apartment house at East Sixtieth and Belmont were similarly treated after discovery of a smallpox case in the house.
