

Advertisement for 'The Oregon Daily Journal' with subscription rates and contact information.

license from the county clerk and pay a license fee. Any dog found without a county license is to be considered an outlaw and it is made mandatory upon the city marshal, constable or sheriff to kill it.

At first glance it would appear that the legislature was not as good a friend to the dog as the dog is supposed to be to his master.

Douglas fir, "made in Oregon," has been chosen by the United States government in direct competition with Southern pine for use in government construction work in Kentucky.

THE AIRPLANES AS WE all beheld the airplanes yesterday, we must have stood in awe of the mind of man.

What wonders this thing we call the human brain hath wrought! What other wonders may it not yet work!

The apple loosened from the tree, falls. The detached stone rolls down the mountain side.

Other conquests by the human mind may be of greater utilitarian value. None can transcend the airplane in its impressiveness.

Man's mind is the magician and the mystery of the ages. It is enchantment and intrepidity. To think of what it has done, is to stand in reverence and awe.

How fleet is the glance of the mind. Compared with the speed of its flight, the tempo of our lives is slow.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

amount has been provided for by the various states. The last legislature appropriated $38,555.12 to meet Oregon's share of this expense for the coming biennium, which shows that, with the fund apportioned by the federal government, the sum of $77,070.24 will be spent here during 1919 and 1920 for farm extension activities.

The county agent is the advance man of rural progress. He has done a good work toward making rural life more attractive, more livable and more profitable. The day of the hit-or-miss system of farming has gone, never to return. There is too much competition these days.

Just now, when more than for years, men are turning again to the soil, the work of the county agent takes on added importance and offers added benefits to those who call upon him for assistance.

Predicts a Reign of Equality Silverton, April 19.—To the Editor of The Journal:—I am glad to see that you are now great daily newspapers like The Journal that will publish "letters from the people," letters many of which extend to the one-over and incidentally capitalist class, and even yet distasteful to the great majority of the people.

When the human animal mind has evolved to the degree of intelligence which is necessary to grasp the idea of "equality," it is inevitable that things will be vastly different. We have always lived under an individualistic system.

ANNEXING US TO IDAHO IT ALMOST seems as if effort is being made by the Oregon Short line to make the Malheur-Harney country Idaho territory.

Railroad geography has made Klamath and Lake counties a commercial annex to California and Nevada, though in the long slope downward to Portland nature made them a logical part of Oregon.

Because of circumstances over which the people had no control, Coos Bay has long been a satrapy of California commercially.

The train service on the Crane branch of the Oregon Short line is gradually annexing extreme Eastern Oregon to Idaho.

At last it has been discovered why Senator Poindeexter has refused to endorse the League of Nations. He says it is not worth the paper it is written on.

Another victim has been added to the long list of reckless automobilists who use the streets and highways as speed courses.

The automobile in the hands of the reckless is a murderous weapon. It combines the comfort and regality of the Roman emperor's box above the gladiatorial arena with the cushioned pleasure of direct action that comes by being in at the killing and not off at the edge of it.

All the modern Caesar has to do is sit with his lady in his arm, turn on the gas, and a simple twist of the wrist does the rest.

Only highwaymen and thugs use clubs. They go to the people's clubs. A six cylinder battering ram, driven by a speed maniac, is the safer and more modern implement.

Why don't the pedestrians keep off the roads? If they have not enough sense to keep off, why not bump 'em off? What's the use of putting bumpers on an automobile unless there is something to bump?

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE How's your neck? Campaign expenses cover a multitude of bribes. The weather man made good for circus day, anyway. As a contemporary remarks, the man who invented near-bear was a poor judge of the market.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE (Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on separate sheets, and should be accompanied by a return address in full, and should be signed by the writer, whose name and address in full must accompany the communication.)

PRICE SITUATION'S OUTLOOK Review of Pre-War and Present Conditions, With Forecast. (Summary of an address, entitled "Prices Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," delivered by bank of New York and National City of New York, at the New York Business Publishers' conference.)

WINTER TRAVEL IN SIBERIA Special Correspondence to The Journal and The Chicago Daily News. (This is the seventeenth installment of a series of travel notes, showing transportation and conditions in the various parts of the world, as reported by special correspondents serving The Journal from that country.)

Wise Spending Is Integral Part of Wise Saving (Stories of achievement in the economic field, and the wisdom of saving, as reported by special correspondents serving The Journal from that country.)

Ragtag and Bobtail

Reason to Suspect G-RE-R-E-I! The train drew up with a mighty crash and shock between stations, says the Truth Seeker. "Is it an accident? What happened?" inquired a fellow looking individual of the conductor.

THE NEWS IN PARAGRAPHS World Happenings Briefed for Benefit of our Readers. GENERAL An official statement issued Sunday indicates improvement in the strike situation in Spain.

WINTER TRAVEL IN SIBERIA Special Correspondence to The Journal and The Chicago Daily News. (This is the seventeenth installment of a series of travel notes, showing transportation and conditions in the various parts of the world, as reported by special correspondents serving The Journal from that country.)

Wise Spending Is Integral Part of Wise Saving (Stories of achievement in the economic field, and the wisdom of saving, as reported by special correspondents serving The Journal from that country.)

Wise Spending Is Integral Part of Wise Saving (Stories of achievement in the economic field, and the wisdom of saving, as reported by special correspondents serving The Journal from that country.)