Stage, Screen and Features

One man with a dream, at pleasure, shall go forth and conquer a crown; And three, with a son's measure, can trample a kingdom down.—Arthur W. E. O'Shaughnessy.

All that is beautiful shall abide; All that is base shall die.—Robert W. Buchanan.

Pantages Offers Program of Variety

Musical Comedy Sketch Holds Headline Place on New Bill of Vaudeville.

A LIVELY musical comedy skit, featuring Dave Seed, comedian, and a chorus of five dainty maids, is the new week's headline number at Pantages.

The Astor Four, two men and two maids, are specialty dancers who put their stuff over in good shape.

Jack Gray sings and accompanies himself on the piano, while Marie Gray dances gracefully.

Jeka Marie Deel and John Meelan offer a sketch of marital woe entitled "Tea."

Pearl White, in another installment of "The Lightning Taster" is the photoplay feature.

Read What Some Women in Chicago Say About Men

Chicago, April 22.—Chicago women, members of the Woman's Forum, have their own ideas of men, what they are and what they should be.

"Men don't want women with minds of their own. That's the reason millions of suffragettes never get married, explains one of the women."

"No woman knows a man until she is married to him."

"Men are elusive creatures, but still, life is not worth living unless he is being chased."

"Men has always feared the physical strength of women."

"He seeks to circumscribe her strength by making her a clinging vine."

"A woman's conception of hell is a world in which man never exists."

All this and more the women said about the men."

Here is what mere man has to say about it, although he refuses to have his name revealed:

"Woman makes herself odious when she starts talking."

"Wives sit around with their knitting needles while the man is making a total clotpole of the sun with his shovel."

"Dainty nature is always on man with a pitchfork, urging him to marry."

"Woman never has a similar urge."

"Woman herself never finishes anything. She herself is an unfinished product."

Actor Union Gets Action London, April 19.—(By Mail.)—Following up the recent success of organized labor, British actors have secured a new charter guaranteeing a minimum wage, a six-day-a-week week for the purpose of rehearsal, definite period of engagement and a fair illness payment clause.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing like Phos. Bipro-Phosphate to Fat on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing the body cells with healthy, glowing and angles by the soft curved lines of a beautiful body, there are evidently thousands of men and women who feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in ordinary foods.

CHARLES RAY, one of the most popular of the young screen stars who visit Portland, is being well received in his newest photoplay, "The Sheriff's Son," this week's attraction at the Liberty.

'Hello, Tokyo,' at Hip Is Song Delight

Several Acts of More Than Usual Worth Score Heavily With Vaudeville Audience.

"HELLO TOKYO," a pleasant arrangement of musical features, is the headline act on the new Hippodrome bill in more ways than one, and not the least of these ways is Merna Lateralie, whose happy songs are a delight.

"Hello Tokyo" is personally directed by Jack Stewart, who puts in with Bob Roberts and Ann West, in scoring repeated successes with clever songs.

Eased on a pretty romance, the act combines thrills with its music by way of a Japanese revolution and is equalized by good comedy.

The Stewart offering is accompanied on the Hip bill by several acts of more than usual worth.

One of these is the r. onologue by the president of the hobnob unit, B. Kelly Forrest, who sings and talks foolishness for purposes of entertainment.

Another musical turn is that of Madge Morrison and Harry Carter and their dancing is a treat that leads into the athletic surprise staged by the LaVine Trio.

The current Hip bill concludes with the Henry B. Walthall picture, "A Long Lane's Turning," in which a promising attorney, guided on by an undue taste for honor, sacrifices his first case at court because of the drink habit and is the cause of sending an innocent man to the penitentiary.

One of the two men comes back with a vengeance—the trip back from the shadows in the story of "A Long Lane's Turning."

First Lieutenant Raymond L. Conner, just recently returned from overseas, has been assigned to the instruction of Company A, engineers, National Guard of Oregon, with the rank of first lieutenant.

The dance of Company A, engineers, Saturday evening, was a marked success, and the Armory ballroom was well filled with military men and their civilian guests and fair ladies.

Drew Never Got Over Death of Soldier Son

Shock Believed to Have Led to Breakdown Which Resulted Fatally.

SIDNEY DREW, well known American comedian, who died in New York city April 9, after a brief illness, following a nervous breakdown, had never fully recovered from the shock of his son, Corporal S. Rankin Drew's, death in France last May, when as an aviator of the Lafayette escadrille he was flying over the front lines.

The pictures made under the V. B. K. contract were "Romance and Rings," released in February, and seen recently at the Liberty in Portland, and "Harold the Last of the Romans," and "Squared," yet to be released.

"Efficiently ridiculous" is the compliment paid the Drews by the New York Sun critic in writing a review of one of their comedies.

An editorial published in the New York Times says in part: "One may wonder how many women engaged in a debate about men and the following quotations are extracts from the Chicago woman's idea of man:

"Man inverted chastity, but never lived up to it."

"Every man expects woman to give to him."

"Men don't want women with minds of their own. That's the reason millions of suffragettes never get married, explains one of the women."

"No woman knows a man until she is married to him."

"Men are elusive creatures, but still, life is not worth living unless he is being chased."

Chicago Getting Rid of Its Undesirables Chicago, April 22.—(U. P.)—Hundreds of underworld characters are leaving Chicago under pressure of the intensive police cleanup campaign, said Chief of Police Garrity today.

Here's Another New Play Mansfield, Ohio, April 22.—Returned soldiers are to put on a play in Mansfield to be known as "Cootie Killer." They are not giving out much information as to what the program will be, except that it will "tickle the anatomy."

One of the features announced as a "special added attraction" is the "Rusty Hinge" quartette, which promises to sing everything from "Sweet Adeline" to "Smiles."

THE Stroller notices

THAT someone bailed up his Lenten "notice" in yesterday's column.

That thousands of Portlanders were up in the air during the afternoon.

That our "country cousins" were out en masse, just like on a regular circus day.

That trying to see it all kept a fellow as busy as the biggest "three-ringer" that ever came to town.

That atop The Journal tower, when the chimes rang out, the spectators assembled there jumped as though a bomb had exploded in their midst.

That insomuch as it is impossible to please everybody, the next best thing is to please as many as possible.

That the window washers who handle the big department store contracts may get the windows clean all right, but they leave the sidewalks in awful shape.

That the sports department is especially popular about this season of the year, it being the common belief that it always has a flock of tickets to the opening game to give away.

That our central girl has evidently been on an individual strike most of the morning.

That this isn't very good growing weather for the Victory gardens.

Great Interest Is Taken in Opera

Capacity Houses Looked for at Auditorium Thursday and Friday Nights.

INDICATIONS are that there will be a large influx of people from neighboring cities to attend the production of Donizetti's opera, "The Elixir of Love," by the Portland Opera association at the Auditorium Thursday and Friday nights.

"The Elixir of Love" is a delightful opera, with much comedy, and nobody gets killed in the action. It is a story of love and amusing incidents. It was in this opera that the famous Bonel made his great reputation, for in 1892 at La Scala, Milan, he sang the florid tenor aria with such effect that the critics at once proclaimed him one of the greatest tenors of the age.

Students of the Franklin high school and members of the high school orchestra have been invited to attend the final rehearsal tomorrow morning of the Portland symphony orchestra, for its concert tomorrow night at the Heilig.

The program will open with the overture "Ruy Blas" by Mendelssohn. The suite "Pleasures of Childhood" by Bizet, will add to the brilliancy of the program.

A New, Harmless Way to Banish Hairy Growth

By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very, small cost.

Your grocery has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

Good Feet In An Hour

Wouldn't it be wonderful if you were tired, aching, calloused feet, that must keep up their daily grind regardless of their misery, could suddenly be transformed into feet as fresh, nimble and pain-free as a child's? Yes this can be done and quickly too, no matter how many remedies you have tried in vain.

Your own druggist or foot doctor will tell you that there is nothing to equal the Cal-o-side foot-bath. Its feet are cast right into the pores and corrects the cause. Its effects are immediate. You'll say it is surely a God-send. Cal-o-side comes in a quarter and each package contains little plastic which will remove the most stubborn corn. You will be enthused over results.—Adv.
