OLDHAM'S SINGLE IN NINTH SCORES FOR MAC'S TEAM

Beavers Show Real Class in Taking Second Game of Series From Vernon Here; With Game Deadlocked in Last Half Bogart Comes In.

By R. A. Cronin

RED OLDHAM, the left handed dispenser of wet and dry balls, hooks and fast ones, put the true dramatic finish on the ball game yesterday afternoon by hitting a single over short that scored Eddie Bogart from third base with the winning run of a 3 to 2 game.

The honorable Red hooked up in a pitching duel with Art Fromme, the beefy person from Vernon, and they toyed from the third to the ninth without a man denting the plate. If the game Oldham pitched could have taken the place of the terrible thing of Wednesday, the crowd would have been much larger Thursday, but the crowd Thursday, be it known, was one of the largest second day crowds in the history of the pastime here, which shows that the game is back to stay. Consider, too, that there was an attractive Victory loan military parade in opposition.

The Beavers gathered enough blows off Fromme to have won a couple of ball games, but that aged and discreet personage was not turning out fat ones when men were on base, especially after the two run lead the Beavers amassed in the first.

They got to Fromme before he realized what had happened. Blue hit a double down the third base line and Siglin followed one for half the distance to the same territory. Jack Farmer was also looking in that direction and rode a hit against the left field fence that brought his mates home. Cox laid down a sacrifice, but Bogart and Fuller failed to deliver.

VERNON GETS ONE

The Beaver inner works faltered a bit in the second inning and the visitors put one over. Two were out when Edgington got on from a forecourt ahead on Beck. Hogg's single put Ed on third. Francois, who heard the count of 10 some years ago, but wouldn't stay down, was caught off first. Blue delayed his throw to Siglin a little too long, and Edgington got an unbeatable start for home. Siglin tried to tag Hogg before Ed crossed the plate, but failed and one run was in. The boys should hurry this play and take no chances.

The game was lost for the Veronites, mayhap, in the third inning. Two were laid away, when the Cats began a bombardment of Red. Mitchell singled to left. Chabourn cracked one across second and Long Bob Meusel hit one along the right field foul line that scattered in the chalk. Bob thought it was foul, as doubtless did the coach. The runner loafed along. Cox made a quick throw to Fuller, who tossed the ball to Siglin and Meusel was touched out, much to his surprise. Mitchell crossed the plate before the out and the run was counted. It is hard to tell what might have happened had Meusel run his hit out instead of taking a chance on it.

BOGART HITS A DOUBLE

Eddie Bogart, who had failed with the club all day, ripped off a beautiful double to left in the ninth. Fuller sacrificed him to third. They walked Baker purposely and McCredie sent Koehler in to run. Henning lifted a roul to Cook, which gave Oldham his chance. Had young Mr. Mitchell of Vernon possessed a stepfather he might have speared the drive. As it was he ticked it with a bony forefinger after a personally conducted ascension into the air, but it earned off and went on to center field, with Mr. Mitchell in pursuit, for what reason only the erudite Mr. Mitchell knows, the game having ceased when Bogart crossed the plate.

Oldham had a wonderfully fast ball working and Del Baker said after the game that he thought he

ANGELS SCORE EARLY AND TAKE STING OUT OF BEES

Los Angeles, April 25.—The Angels climbed all over Mollineux and Schorr in the first inning yesterday and piled up a total of six runs in the initial round. Driscoll added another score in the fourth when he hit a home run, the final score being 7 to 1 in favor of the home team. Mollineux, who started for the Bees, was derailed in the first, after he had walked a batter and handed out a wild pitch. Schorr, who was sent to the mound for the balance of the inning, but he allowed only two hits after the first one, although one of them was a homer by Driscoll. Pertica was always on the job, the Bees being able to secure only five scattered hits off him. Their runs came in the second inning when Mulvey singled and scored on Spencer's out and an error by Killifer. The score:

SENAATORS WIN, MAKING IT 2 OUT OF 3 FOR SERIES

Oakland, Cal., April 25.—Winning again yesterday from the Seals, the Senators defeated the Oakland club in the first game of the series, staged a comeback and had Graham's hirelings completely at his mercy all the way through. The final score was 5 to 4.

Sacramento started out with a vengeance in the first inning, getting to Smith for two hits, which they converted in their first run of the game. They scored another in the fourth and two in the fifth and one in the ninth.

The Seals made their first run in the third inning after touching Gardner for two sacrifices. They scored one run in each of the last three innings. Rodgers shifted his lineup by taking Eddie Benn from shortstop and putting Billy Orr in. Orr got one hit out of four trips to the plate. The score:

ERROR IN TIGHT PLACE GIVES GAME TO SEATTLE

Seattle, April 25.—Seattle won from Oakland yesterday by a score of 2 to 1 in a finely played game despite more or less rain.

Neither team scored in the first six innings. Mains for Seattle and Hollings for Oakland handed out a gilt edged variety of pitching, and receiving well support.

In the seventh Hack Miller singled and worked around to third on an infield out and Roche's single. Warren bunted, and despite fine fielding on the slippery turf, Miller scored.

Oakland's one run looked good enough to win, unity with 2 on and 2 out in the last of the ninth. Bigbee, batting for Ritchie, sent a slow bouncer to Warren, who slipped and overthrew first base, allowing two runs to cross the plate and giving Seattle victory. The score:

CLUBMEN IN SHAPE FOR MEET

First Dual Track and Field Meet of Many Seasons Scheduled For Saturday Afternoon.

ACCORDING to the dope, the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club—Oregon Agricultural college dual track and field meet—to be staged Saturday afternoon on the "Winged M" field—promises to be the closest event of its kind ever staged in Portland. The Orange and Black tracksters defeated the clubmen in the Columbia university indoor meet a fortnight ago by a four-point margin, the 480-yard relay deciding the championship, and since that time the Carvants will precede those of the club and clamoring for another crack at the Aggie.

Unless there is an upset in the dope, the Aggies should win the meet. They are practically assured of first and second places in the sprints and hurdle events, unless Walter Muirhead dons a suit: enters the stick events. The club men have the Aggies cheated in the field events with Philbrook—who will attempt a comeback, Sam Bellah, Ralph Spearow, who was individual point winner in the Columbia meet, Tom Loutitt, and Jack Ryan, a veteran hammer thrower, Millard Webster and John...

Manager Philbrook has been putting his charges through a series of stiff workouts in preparation for the contests. Mose Payne, former Oregon runner, is training as hard as when he was under the watchful eye of Bill Hayward, and in practice without any pace setters clipped off two miles in 10 minutes, which is exceptionally good.

Windnagle is in better shape than he was in the Columbia meet and the race between himself and his teammate, Coleman, ex-Aggie athlete, promises to be a close one.

An special added feature to the meet, the Washington high school athletes will participate against the Franklin high school team. The high school Ted Atlas, who broke into our fair vil-college men.

Arrangements have been completed for competent officials to handle the meet and it should have been in two hours.

ATLAS WILL PUT HOLDS ON GESEK IN BOUT TONIGHT

Two Clever Middleweights Will Grapple at Rose City Club in Trial Match.

This will be the night for the trial of Ted Atlas, who broke into our fair vil-college and started the natives as "The Mad Mad" by throwing a flock of wrestlers on the vaudeville stage and then flopping a couple of the best in this neck of the woods in regular matches.

Mike Butler, who is handling the redoubtable Atlas, is hankering for money match with Walter Miller, and arranged tonight's go with Chris Gesek for the sole purpose of determining what kind of a chance Atlas would have with Miller. Gesek, the Spokane middleweight, who won the national championship as an amateur and followed it up with many matches against the best men in the country as a professional, has wrestled Miller a couple of times—once a draw, and the other a hard-fought victory for Miller.

The Atlas-Gesek match will be held at the Rose City Motorcycle club gymnasium, at Tenth and Stark streets, the change from Woodman hall being made because of the necessity for more space to handle the crowd.

Clarence Stiles and Paul Gates will wrestle the preliminary at 8:15 o'clock, and Jim Hall and Red McDougall will clash in the semi-windup.
