

o'clock

Mrs. Charles F. Adams will entertain at a smart dancing party at Waverley clul of Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Fierre Rossiter Hines. Her guests will include a number of the younger social Oregon division No. 91, auxiliary to the Oregon Railway Conductors' asso-ciation, will entertain at cards at the Icme of Mrs. Bradshaw at 492 Rodney ue, on Thursday.

Miss Glen Shope, who was graduated the occupational therapy course at Reed college, is now engaged in work at the Y. M. C. A. center at Camp Lewis an hostess.

Mrs. Jervis Webb has asked a number of friends to make up a little box party for the Orpheum this evening in honor of Miss Ruth Ghirardelli, who is the house guest of Mrs. Max Houser of Portland Heights. quite marvelous.

er) are being showered with con-

The Twenty-first infantry regiment Il give a complimentary May dancing rty on Thursday evening at the nights of Columbus building, Vancou-

West Philadelphia, Pa.-"I took rdia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Combetter in health. I was always very ill when my other child-ren were born, but with this one I had a much caster time. He is a big healthy twas Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound that made me so well. It s certainly a good medicine for every roman. I cannot say too much in favor, and you may publish my timonial."---Mrs. W. PHILLIPS, In Kingsessing Avenue, West Phil-

The reason that thousands of wo-n from all parts of the country its such letters is that this famous ild root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has brought health and happiness into heir lives, once burdened with pain

For special advice in regard to such lments write Lydia E. Pinkham edicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result years experies

Apollo Club.

By J. L. Wallin. WITH Mabel Garrison as soloist, the THOUSANDS of people throughout the state of Oregon will be asked to buy Apolio club Tuesday night at The a little May basket tag Thursday and Auditorium gave its most ambitious concert of the season, and also its most thus contribute 10 cents toward the great brilliant and most generously patronized, fund needed to support the 135 little because the attendance was fully 2000. girls between the ages or 5 and 15 years Miss Garrison is a great singer, and it whose only home is the Christie Home is not difficult to understand why she for Orphan Girls. Miss Emma L. Butler was chosen for the Metropolitan without a European reputation behind her. in charge of the tag sale, and Mrs. F. P.

Mabel Garrison is a young American singer, a native of Baltimore, and studied and coached in America, having 25 Fortland parishes. Varying in numnever gone abroad, even to breathe in bers from 10 to 30, these women will the musical atmosphere, which by some devote the whole of May day to selling is regarded as essential.

the tags, starting early in the morning It was a delight to hear this young and covering thoroughly the business singer in the colorature numbers she had chosen 'for her Portland program, for district, the residence section and the big industrial plants, in some of which three she sang with a facility of technique minute speeches, setting forth the great needs at the home, will precede the tag The polonaise from "Mignon" served sellers.

at Home.

o introduce the rather petite singer of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pettit (Margarethe a decidedly large voice, and it at once ers from the Daughters of Isabella, un-In the evening a special corps of workmade her a favorite, for it was sung with der the leadership of Mrs. F. W. Clifford, a daughter, born Sunday. isfied that anything written for the col- atres between the hours of 7 and 10. Grature could present no difficulties here. The applause was so insistent that Miss Twichell. Marie Meagher, Margaret Garrison had to respond with an extra rumber, and it was the walts song, "Voce de Prima Vera," by Johan Strauss Friedlander, Agnes Dudley, Genevieve Ryan, Madeline Ryan, Emma Dwyer, Frances Howard, Evangeline Yerkes, that she gave so exquisitely. Mary Mabson, Sophia Hinkle, Edna Kel-

The National Standard -the BIG VALUE Roll of TOILET PAPER.

BLAKE-MEFALL CO.

Sold

Sanitary

WHITE

everyw

For her second group she sang "Tran-ullity," by Foote, "Baby" by George ly. Mary Sweeney. Louise Meyer, Eliza-teth Webber, Katherine Webber, Mary cuility," Siemonn, the very excellent accompanist Scheringer, Lou Long, Cecelia McMahon, and husband of the prima donna; Helen Tracy, Grace Riley, Sophia Bas-"Hymn to the Sun" by Rimsky-Korsa-tasth, Minnie Eder, Ethel Hornby, Cekoff, in which she sang D in altisimo; cilia Sodieski, Augusta Tember, Mary and "Vouse Dansez" by Lemeine-Paster-McKinnon, Norma Curtin, Elizabeth nack, also a very splendid vehicle for Freeman, Hedwig Bleeg, Catherine Matthe flute-like voice. For extra number she gave with beautiful tenderness "Kiss Me," from "Mademoiselle Modeste." The final group contained such gems as "De Ol' Ark's a Moverin'," "When I Was Following are the out of town parishes by, Chemewa, Corvallis, Eugéne, Forest Seventeen" (old Swedish), and "Kom Grove, Gervais, Grand Ronde, Grants Kjyra," Norwegian echo song, the two Scandinavian numbers offering excep-Jordan, Lebanon, Marshfield, McMinnequipment and artistic interpretation, ville, Medford, Milwaukie, Monroe, Mt. For encore she gave "My Alabama Angel, Newport, North Bend. Oregon City, Roseburg, Roy, St. Helens, St.

The Apollo club sang splendidly under the direction of W. H. Boyer, and did its most effective work in Duparc's mock, Verboorst, Woodburn, St. Paul. "Dream World," which is enhanced No program at a woman's club meetgreatly by a dainty plano accompaniment. Another much appreciated num-ber was "Hush-a-by, Ma Baby," better known as the Missouri walts. It had to be repeated. The program came to a grand climax with Filke's "Spring Night," chorus and soloist, and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The accompanists for the Apollo clibb were Edgar E. Coursen and William C. easier time. He McCullough, pianists, and Ralph W. Heyt, organist.

> ver barracks. Music will be provided by the motor transportation corps band. Women guests will be admitted by card, obtainable at the K. of C. club, Park and Taylor streets. Refreshments will be

Mrs. Ellsworth Vachon will entertain on Saturday at a smart tea in honor of Mrs. Alfred Millard Jr. (Shirley Eastham), who is visiting in the city before leaving for Seattle with her hus-band to make their home.

The last of the series of dancing par-tles for which Kenton club will enter-tain this season will be given this evening at the club house. The affair is Informal.

The recital of John Claire Monteith and the dance following is the occasion for a number of dinner parties at Malenciennes laces-$5.95

Crepe de Chine Gowns in exquisitely dainty effects, with trimming of Valenciennes and embroidered Georgette-$7.50.

-Main Floor.

Lingerie Blouses $4.95

Exemplifying Fashion's newest phases in semi-tailored, tucked collar and cuffs styles, frill trimmed and round neck modes with trimming of dainty laces. Blouses which look as if they were priced far higher than $4.95.

Dainty Tub Silk Petticoats $3.95-$4.95

In white or flesh color, with the extra panel at front and back to make them shadow proof. Fashioned in the new straight line styles, or with pretty flounces. -Main Floor

Liebes Service Will Be Maintained

Though crowds of shoppers will be unusually large. We have provided additional experienced salespeople for the mergency.

velope Chemise beautifully trimmed with Valenciennes and Filet Laces, embroidered Georgette and ribbons. Priced $3.95.

WASHABLE SATIN BLOOMERS

Trim, tailored bloomers of good quality Satin, well cut and splendidly made. Priced $2.95.

SILK CAMISOLES

Of-Crepe de Chine and Washable Satin in lace trimmed or tailored effects. Regulation shoulder style, or with ribbon straps. Priced 95¢ to $1.95.

LINGERIE BLOUSES $1.00

Plenty of different models for your selection. Developed in Voile, Organdie, and Batiste in colored stripe effects, flesh and white. Smart tucked bosom styles are included, also frilled, lace trimmed, and plain tailored types. Very specially priced.

Peter Pan models of checked Batiste-in rose, orchid, and blue, with white Or-gandie cuffs and collars. Voile blouses in tailored effects with daintily frilled collars and cuffs in all white or trimmed with color. Also a number of lace trimmed

LINGERIE BLOUSES $1.95

Sizes 34 to 46.

modes.

Envelope Chemise of fine quality Batiste, hand made and hand embroidered in beautiful floral and scroll designs, and hand drawn work. Finished in regular shoulder effects or with hemstitched shoulder bands. Priced $2.95.

in a splendid assortment of styles. Em-

The May Sale of Blouses

Hundreds of Styles to Choose From-and lace trimmed and hemstitched also. Priced $2.95 to $5.95. Envelope Chemise of exceptional quality, broidered, hemstitched, hand scalloped, and trimmed with real Cluny and Filet laces. Made with regulation shoulder, or with shoulder straps of embroidered Batiste. Priced $5.95. -Main Floor.

-Main Floor.

throughout, with the daintiest of stitches. Many styles

A good assortment of smart styles featuring round, square and high neck effects. Many delightful Peter Pan Blouses in this lot, and a number of the most attractive frilled, lace trimmed, embroidered, and tailored designs. Some all white. Others with trimming of color.

LINGERIE BLOUSES $3.95

Lace trimmed, embroidered and tailored styles reflecting many smart tendencies of the mode. Daintily made, of good materials. -Main Floor.

Lingerie Blouses $5.95

All hand made of fine Batiste in roll and flat collar styles. Dainty hand made tuckings, too, exemplifying the finest of workmanship, inspired by Fashion's loveliest designs.

Many Other Styles In Beautiful Lingerie Blouses $7.50 to $15.00

Blouses that will add chic to the tailored suit because of their smart tailored effect. Lace trimmed, frilled and embroidered modes in the softly becoming styles that are so dear to all women. An almost endless assortment for your choosing. -Main Floor

