

BEVY OF PRETTY GIRLS
AIDS IN LAST MINUTE
VICTORY LOAN SWEEP

Downtown Hotels Are Visited and Pledges for $1200 in Bonds Secured.

Canvassing the hotels Saturday evening, a quartet, accompanied by a bevy of pretty girls, extracted pledges for about $1200 worth of Victory bonds, mostly from persons who had already bought all the bonds they thought they could handle. While the quartet sang Victory bond songs with all the "jazz" of a wandering gypsy troupe, the girls strayed in and out among the persons who gathered, and, with their pencils and pledge cards for tambourines, overcame the resistance of flat purses.

Between hotels the party rode on their truck, on which was a piano, and, keeping time with the jar of the ride, they sang to people on the streets. At the Imperial hotel Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue, started the pot rolling by saying that if the party could get $400 in subscriptions, he would add $100, making a total of $500. A few minutes later he affixed his name to one of the little yellow pledge cards.

The girls who coaxed and cajoled and begged for subscriptions included Misses Lucile Abbott, Marion Hobau, Virginia Brown, Norma Comini, Beth Ludlam, Marion Rose Spear and Helen Ambon. The quartet included Walter Jenkins, H. W. Arbury, Walter Hartwig and W. E. Crosby. They were assisted by Tommie Reed at the piano, and Dr. E. H. Pence added his strength to the party by delivering a four-minute address in Victory square.

Fatal Auto Spill
May Bring Charge
Of Manslaughter

Information gained by the coroner's office concerning Friday's fatal accident on Pleasant View avenue near Linneman, in which Guy Switzer was killed, will be laid before the grand jury at once, according to Chief Deputy Coroner Leo Goetsch. "Mr. Goetsch said that the district attorney's office would also be apprised of the facts and that a charge of manslaughter might be filed against Lloyd Jones, driver of the death dealing machine.

At the time of the accident both men were under the influence of liquor, according to the coroner. Jones is said to have still been in a drunken stupor Saturday noon and to have been in a condition which made it impossible for him to realize the seriousness of the accident.

"The time has come when this practice must stop," said Mr. Goetsch. "Driving an automobile while intoxicated is too dangerous a thing to pass by lightly. We must convict a few of these reckless fellows in order to show others that we will enforce the law. I will push this case to the limit."

One Time Saloon
Engaged in More
Creditable Work

Once "Barney's Saloon," at the northwest corner of East Water street and Hawthorne avenue, in the last week the store room has been remodeled into A. J. McDuffey's acetylene welding and brazing plant, and H. W. Truscott's tidy little machine shop. While these men are not financially interested in each other's enterprises, they have jointly leased the building and are already doing a nice business. Mr. McDuffey was a resident of Portland for several years, but left here during the dull pre-war times and was for a time connected with the Ford automobile factory in Detroit, doing the same work in which he is employed here. Located so conveniently as he is, he anticipates a prosperous career in Portland. Mr. Truscott has been for years identified with some of the largest machine shops on the Coast and in the East, but desiring to establish a business of his own has launched out in a small way, but cheerily remarks, "just watch me grow!"

Two Are Injured in 20 Auto Accidents

Over 20 automobile accidents occurred in Portland Saturday, in which two men suffered broken legs. D. C. Cornell, 610 Alberta street, was struck by an automobile in charge of T. A. Barnum of 129 Thirty-second street north, at the intersection of Fifteenth and Alberta streets. He was removed to Good Samaritan hospital. John Flowers, 79, residing at 485 Davis street, had his right leg broken when he was struck at Broadway and Hoyt streets by an automobile in charge of Le Yet, 75 North Fourth street.
