'armer's Home Run Smash in the Eighth Inning Enabled Beavers to Trim Seattle

FARMER'S HOMER AND PINCH WORK BEAT PURPLE SOX

Jack Knight Saves Mates From Shutout by Triple That Put Two Across When Seattle Had Two Outs in the Ninth; Oldham Rushed to the Mound.

By George Bertz

Long Jack Knight spoiled a perfectly good shutout baseball came for George Pennington of the Beavers Wednesday afterioon, when he cracked out a triple after two men were out that sent Cunningham and Compton over the plate with two tallies. Then Manager McCredie called upon Red Oldham and Red caused Herb Murphy, who was substituted for Fabrique, to ground out, giving the Beavers the game, 3 to 2.

Up to the ninth Pennington was "spitting" them over the plate in great fashion, only four hits being collected off his delivery, but the saliva did not seem to be sticking good in the ninth, and when Pennington drew a pass, Mac lost no time in rushing Oldham to the warmup line. Compton hit a liner to center and Harper lined out to Siglin for the second out, Gleichmann, the first man up, being retired on called strikes. Then up stepped

His hit was a beauty and things looked her dark for the locals, but Rescuer ham was there in the pinch. CUTS EM OFF SHORT

Miles Mains, ex-Federal leagueist, arted for the Purple Sox, and the way was hitting the Beavens with the ball In the first he hit Farmer on he elbow, and in the second cracked Westerzil on the hip.

Blue got one in the middle of the back the fourth frame and he made third n a beautiful hit and run play, Siglin riving a scorcher down the third base Farmer lifted a long fly to Harper and Blue scored after the catch. Run number two for the Beavers was ored by Siglin in the sixth. Paddy ed first on a hit over second and ook second on Farmer's bunt. Cox frove the first ball pitched into left enter for two sacks and Siglin counted. Walker drew a walk, but was doubled n his effort to advance after Westerzil FARMER GETS ANOTHER

Manager Clymer slipped a couple of inch hitters into the game in the eighth, but to no avail. Bowman replaced Mains, and Farmer greeted him with homer, after Siglin had been retired. Farmer's homerun wallop was a hum-linger. It cleared the right field wall by many feet and proved to be the winr run. It is very unusual to see a right handed hitter put the ball over he right field fence, but the fans saw treat yesterday. A double play spoiled Seattle's chance

o score one in the third, for Gus to right field. The visitors were retired n quick order in every frame except he first, third, seventh and ninth. peared in their home uniforms for the first time since opening the season here.

Sluggers Like Crawford and Wagner Few and Far Between in Major Leagues.

ONE by one the great sluggers who have blazed a trail of hits across the baseball horizon for the last 10 or 15 years are passing along. Hitters like Hans Wagner and Sam Crawford, for instance, are few and far between these days, but there are still a few of the veteran larrupers facing major league pitchers today, and one of the most picturesque of the lot is "Cactus" Cravath. The "Old Cactus" has been playing ball actively for 16 years and the ravages of time have long since begun to show, for Cravath's legs today refuse o carry him around the gardens as they once did, and there are a few sprinkles of silver on his temples. CRAVATH STILL A DEMON that his eye has not been dimmed to any

Making four hits out of five times at bat is a feat often accomplished in baseball, yet not be one player. Cravath, in his many years of slaughtering the offerings of pitchers, has registered the opening series between the Giants and Phillies he added another such performance to his long list, and two of the four hits he made in the second game against McGrawmen were doubles.

Babe Ruth is a tremendously hard hitter, but capable as he is with the bludgeon, he will probably never be able to rank as the consistent day-inand-day-out slugger Cravath has been. Crawford and Wagner were hitters of the Cravath type, or vice versa. Jack Daubert, when at his best, was also a hitter of this select type.

hitter of this select type.

It is a pleasure to pay tribute to a player like the "Old Cactus." His weatherbeaten hide is impervious to the criticisms that have been showered on his head by writers during the last two sacrifice his hase on hall is through-and Cravath isn't through

No Stropping-No Honing

A man needs a sharp razor here. Otherwise he is apt to start ingrowing bairs if he tries to shave clean every day.

THE surest way to be certain of laving a really sharp edge for every shave is to use a Gillette.

That great Gillette principle, No Stropping-No Honing, signifies a hard-tempered Blade sharpened scientifically at the

A shaving edge that you can depend on for a velvet-smooth shave always. A Blade that holds its edge day after day. A Blade that you don't have to strop or hone to make it do its work.
