SPECIAL SERVICES PLANNED of town meetings.

Will Be Shared in Honor of Best Friend Man Ever Had.

The mothers of the nation will be honored tomorrow by both old and young with special recognition in both religious secular circles. The second Sunday n May has, according to custom, now fixed itself in the calendar of the year as "Mother's Day" and is observed as such now in all parts of the nation. The day was given official recognition by ngress in 1914. If your dearest friend on earth is still living you should wear a red flower to-morrow in her honor and if she has passed into the great beyond wear a white blossom in her memory. Mothers will be honored in nearly all
