

TOWN TOPICS

Travelers to all points of the United States or abroad should take advantage of experienced information and service offered through the Oregon Journal Travel Bureau...

TODAY'S FORECASTS

Portland and vicinity—Tonight and Sunday, fair; light frost tonight; westerly wind. Oregon and Washington—Tonight and Sunday, fair; light to heavy frost in the morning; light westerly winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Two areas of low pressure are shown this morning, one extending from Middle-Florida (Canada) to the Mexican boundary, and the other reaching from the upper Ohio valley to Florida. The remainder of the country the pressure is high. Precipitation has occurred at scattered stations in nearly all sections...

OBSERVATIONS

Table with columns: STATIONS, High, Low, Precipitation. Lists weather data for various locations like Baker, Or., Boise, Idaho, Calgary, Alberta, etc.

THRIFT STAMPS

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS On Sale at Business Office, The Journal.

To Speak on Aims of Jews—Rabbi Baruch Shapiro of Seattle will speak on the aims of the Jews to establish a national homeland in Palestine...

Club Members Go on Outing—'Hot dogs' and other delicacies that usually attach to camping feasts were indulged in by the members of the Los Amigos club...

Barbecue Will Be Feature—The big packing plant of the Union Meat company in North Portland is being inspected this afternoon by some 50 members of the Y. M. C. A. business men's gymnasium class...

The Lady Who Witnessed the dispute between the conductor and passenger relative to change of a $2 or $5 bill on the Twenty-third street car, eastbound, about 9 o'clock p. m., April 21, and who left the car at Thirteenth street, will confer a special favor on her neighbor by trouble, by calling at room 608 Stock Exchange building, or phone Marshall 2498, A-437.—Adv.

Fair Closes Sunday—The auxiliary of Company H, Third Oregon, will close the Victory jubilee and street fair Sunday evening with a reception in the Armory ball room. Company H officers and men are hoping to see an increase in company funds, because congress failed to pass appropriations for maintenance of the national guard.

The American Church will hold their last services in the W. O. W. hall, East Side, Sunday night, May 11, at 8 o'clock, until the first Sunday in September. The series of lectures on the physical body will close tomorrow night, topic: "Mind: The power of an idea. A series of talks on the mental body will commence in the fall. All are welcome.—Adv.

Excuse E. Smith to Speak in Forum—Sunday evening open forum, Unitarian chapel, entrance, Broadway between Yamhill and Taylor, 7:45 p. m., Sunday, May 11. Eugene E. Smith, editor of Labor Opinion, will speak on "The Industrial Unrest." Free discussion and all welcome.—Adv.

Young People—All young people are invited to attend the B. Y. P. U. services Sunday evening at 8:45 at the First Baptist church, corner Twelfth and Taylor streets, where "The Love of the World" will be discussed. Miss Helen Matteson which have charge of the service and there will be special music.

Blaze in Coffee House—A small fire broke out this morning at the Pine Street coffee house, at 224 Pine street, in a pile of sacks piled too close to an auxiliary furnace. Engine 21 extinguished the blaze before much damage resulted.

Steamer Trade for St. Helens and Rainier—In fact, seven more John Barclay-corn is dying hard down there, according to the minister, who declared that although liquor was being consumed in great quantities, the establishment is being manufactured. Indications for a good fruit crop were reported by Dr. Short.

Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett Returns—Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett, dean of women at the Oregon Agricultural college, returned to Corvallis today after a week spent in talking before the different high schools in Portland on the "Power of an ideal." Mrs. Fawcett has also been holding conferences with the senior girls and furnishing information as to entrance requirements and the various courses of study. The girls have shown great interest in the work of the college, said Mrs. Fawcett, and I anticipate a large enrollment next fall of Portland girls. This year I have 700 girls in my charge.

Salem to Celebrate—C. B. Clancy, P. E. Fullerton, O. H. Hartman and William McGuernsey have returned to Salem after completing arrangements in Portland for a big, old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration to be held at the capital city. The celebration will continue through three days, the third, fourth and fifth of July, and will be featured by the convention of Spanish War veterans and the homecoming of the boys who served in the recent war. The committee stayed at the Seward while here.

Portland Lungs for Home—George A. Sim is in Canadian factory districts No. 4, in Basingstoke, England, longing for a sight of Portland. Last August in France, the Seward was wounded. He has suffered two amputations and will be minus one leg and part of another, but cheerfully hopes to be back home soon, and speaks in a letter to a friend of being allowed to practice with an artificial limb.

Motored From Tacoma—Thomas Hurley, Miss J. Hurley, Miss J. Forrest and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Alsbright motored down from Tacoma and are spending a few days at the Nortonia.

Haney Goes East—United States Attorney Bert E. Haney left last night for Washington, D. C., on departmental business.

At the Hotels—Jay Upton, president of the Oregon Irrigation congress, is visiting at the Imperial from Prineville.

ODDS AND ENDS IN THE NEWS OF TRAVELERS AND HOMEFOLK

Back From California—Dr. Francis Burgette Short, pastor of Wilbur Methodist church, arrived in Portland today after a visit of three weeks in California cities. He will fill his pulpit Sunday, California city. Dr. Short, was sharply disappointed in not being able to bring their state into a place in the Victory loan sum. Failure in fact, seven more John Barclay-corn is dying hard down there, according to the minister, who declared that although liquor was being consumed in great quantities, the establishment is being manufactured. Indications for a good fruit crop were reported by Dr. Short.

Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett Returns—Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett, dean of women at the Oregon Agricultural college, returned to Corvallis today after a week spent in talking before the different high schools in Portland on the "Power of an ideal." Mrs. Fawcett has also been holding conferences with the senior girls and furnishing information as to entrance requirements and the various courses of study. The girls have shown great interest in the work of the college, said Mrs. Fawcett, and I anticipate a large enrollment next fall of Portland girls. This year I have 700 girls in my charge.

Salem to Celebrate—C. B. Clancy, P. E. Fullerton, O. H. Hartman and William McGuernsey have returned to Salem after completing arrangements in Portland for a big, old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration to be held at the capital city. The celebration will continue through three days, the third, fourth and fifth of July, and will be featured by the convention of Spanish War veterans and the homecoming of the boys who served in the recent war. The committee stayed at the Seward while here.

Manufactory of Spruce Say Business Prospects Are Good

Twenty mill owners engaged in the production of spruce lumber in Oregon and Washington met at the Portland hotel Friday noon to discuss the outlook for sale of their products during 1919. Ralph C. Angell of the Willapa Lumber company presided and J. A. Nelson, Oregon representative of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, acted as secretary. Market conditions for spruce products are excellent and the mill men look for a record business during the year, according to Mr. Angell. Scarcity of logs during the summer months will possibly be overcome by government logging operations, but mill owners are not counting very strongly on assistance from this source.

Division Engineer of Highway Board Quits

Salem, May 10.—The state highway department today announced the resignation of C. A. Dunn as division engineer in charge of the state highway board. Mr. Dunn has become affiliated with Oscar Huber, a Portland contractor, for whom he will be general superintendent. The resignation is effective today. State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn announces the appointment of C. W. Wanser of Portland to take Dunn's place.

Series of Sermons Will Begin Sunday

The May bulletin of the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) announces a series of seven sermons to begin this Sunday morning and to continue except June 8, as follows: May 11, "The Roman Catholic Church—Its Place in Christendom"; May 18, "The Anglican and Protestant Episcopal Church"; May 25, "Presbyterian Churches"; June 1, "The Society of Friends"; June 15, "Congregational Churches"; June 22, "Unitarianism"; June 29, "The Future of Christianity." These sermons are conceived in the thought that Christian unity can be approximated only through mutual understanding and that such understanding can come about only through patient and candid examination of the facts and appraisal of virtues and defects.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday

The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good

The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Special Services

The Sunnyside Congregational church has made special arrangements for a series of 10 successive Sunday evening services, beginning Sunday, by the use of a wonderfully attractive and instructive serial motion picture entitled "The Son of Democracy," depicting the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at Corps 1 of the Salvation Army at 243 Ash street in memory of the late Corporal George H. Hager, who was one of the first Salvationists in the city of Portland, and who stood the test in the early days of persecution and imprisonment that the Army suffered when starting its work here.

Sunday morning Rev. F. A. Ginn will preach at Lincoln Methodist church on the subject of stewardship in connection with the $100,000,000 Centenary of the denomination. In the evening he will preach at the Westmoreland church. Wednesday evening an entertainment will be given in the Lincoln church. F. J. Meyer, recently returned from France, will tell his war experiences, including that of being gassed, and also will exhibit some of his trophies.

Dr. Charles and Mrs. Julia Lee will give religious services in the Scandinavian language on the coming events in Linnea hall, 666 Irving street, on Sunday, May 11, and 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be free.

ODDS AND ENDS IN THE NEWS OF TRAVELERS AND HOMEFOLK

Back From California—Dr. Francis Burgette Short, pastor of Wilbur Methodist church, arrived in Portland today after a visit of three weeks in California cities. He will fill his pulpit Sunday, California city. Dr. Short, was sharply disappointed in not being able to bring their state into a place in the Victory loan sum. Failure in fact, seven more John Barclay-corn is dying hard down there, according to the minister, who declared that although liquor was being consumed in great quantities, the establishment is being manufactured. Indications for a good fruit crop were reported by Dr. Short.

Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett Returns—Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett, dean of women at the Oregon Agricultural college, returned to Corvallis today after a week spent in talking before the different high schools in Portland on the "Power of an ideal." Mrs. Fawcett has also been holding conferences with the senior girls and furnishing information as to entrance requirements and the various courses of study. The girls have shown great interest in the work of the college, said Mrs. Fawcett, and I anticipate a large enrollment next fall of Portland girls. This year I have 700 girls in my charge.

Salem to Celebrate—C. B. Clancy, P. E. Fullerton, O. H. Hartman and William McGuernsey have returned to Salem after completing arrangements in Portland for a big, old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration to be held at the capital city. The celebration will continue through three days, the third, fourth and fifth of July, and will be featured by the convention of Spanish War veterans and the homecoming of the boys who served in the recent war. The committee stayed at the Seward while here.

Manufactory of Spruce Say Business Prospects Are Good

Twenty mill owners engaged in the production of spruce lumber in Oregon and Washington met at the Portland hotel Friday noon to discuss the outlook for sale of their products during 1919. Ralph C. Angell of the Willapa Lumber company presided and J. A. Nelson, Oregon representative of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, acted as secretary. Market conditions for spruce products are excellent and the mill men look for a record business during the year, according to Mr. Angell. Scarcity of logs during the summer months will possibly be overcome by government logging operations, but mill owners are not counting very strongly on assistance from this source.

Division Engineer of Highway Board Quits

Salem, May 10.—The state highway department today announced the resignation of C. A. Dunn as division engineer in charge of the state highway board. Mr. Dunn has become affiliated with Oscar Huber, a Portland contractor, for whom he will be general superintendent. The resignation is effective today. State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn announces the appointment of C. W. Wanser of Portland to take Dunn's place.

Series of Sermons Will Begin Sunday

The May bulletin of the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) announces a series of seven sermons to begin this Sunday morning and to continue except June 8, as follows: May 11, "The Roman Catholic Church—Its Place in Christendom"; May 18, "The Anglican and Protestant Episcopal Church"; May 25, "Presbyterian Churches"; June 1, "The Society of Friends"; June 15, "Congregational Churches"; June 22, "Unitarianism"; June 29, "The Future of Christianity." These sermons are conceived in the thought that Christian unity can be approximated only through mutual understanding and that such understanding can come about only through patient and candid examination of the facts and appraisal of virtues and defects.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday

The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good

The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Special Services

The Sunnyside Congregational church has made special arrangements for a series of 10 successive Sunday evening services, beginning Sunday, by the use of a wonderfully attractive and instructive serial motion picture entitled "The Son of Democracy," depicting the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at Corps 1 of the Salvation Army at 243 Ash street in memory of the late Corporal George H. Hager, who was one of the first Salvationists in the city of Portland, and who stood the test in the early days of persecution and imprisonment that the Army suffered when starting its work here.

Sunday morning Rev. F. A. Ginn will preach at Lincoln Methodist church on the subject of stewardship in connection with the $100,000,000 Centenary of the denomination. In the evening he will preach at the Westmoreland church. Wednesday evening an entertainment will be given in the Lincoln church. F. J. Meyer, recently returned from France, will tell his war experiences, including that of being gassed, and also will exhibit some of his trophies.

Dr. Charles and Mrs. Julia Lee will give religious services in the Scandinavian language on the coming events in Linnea hall, 666 Irving street, on Sunday, May 11, and 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be free.

CITY CLUB MEMBERS DISCUSS MEASURES TO BE VOTED ON JUNE 3

Lieutenant Governorship Declared to Be Unnecessary Office; Approve Bonds. The features of the City club meeting at the Benson hotel Friday noon were taken on three of the measures to be brought up before the voters at the special election, June 3.

Dr. Hutchison Will Attend Assembly—During the absence of Dr. A. L. Hutchison in attendance at the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at St. Louis, the pulpit of Piedmont Presbyterian church will be occupied by Rev. P. O. Bonebrake. Dr. Hutchison will preach Sunday morning, and Rev. M. Bonebrake Sunday evening. The pastor will be absent three Sundays.

30th Anniversary of League Sunday—The thirtieth anniversary of the organization of the Epworth league in

Prizes at Dance Include Cookies, Watch, Dresser. The Travelers' Protective association gave the most successful dance and card party in its history at the Multnomah hotel Friday night. Nearly everybody got a prize. There were hundreds of them, ranging from cookies to a gold watch. Edward Lamb won what was considered the most valuable prize—a walnut dresser. Mrs. George Stodhill won the gold watch.

Glencoe Pastor Is To Attend Assembly—The Glencoe Baptist church will send its pastor, the Rev. F. C. LaSalette, to the Northern Baptist convention at Denver and pay all his expenses. Thirty new members have received the hand of fellowship since January 1. At a recent banquet $1581 was raised among the members toward the $4000 goal for the furnishing of the church. The enrollment of the Sunday school now exceeds 200.

Sermon Series to Last Until June 1—The Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, is preaching a series of Sunday sermons that will terminate with the close of his pastorate in the church on June 1, when the presiding bishop will convene the Oregon conference.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday—The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good—The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Special Services—The Sunnyside Congregational church has made special arrangements for a series of 10 successive Sunday evening services, beginning Sunday, by the use of a wonderfully attractive and instructive serial motion picture entitled "The Son of Democracy," depicting the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at Corps 1 of the Salvation Army at 243 Ash street in memory of the late Corporal George H. Hager, who was one of the first Salvationists in the city of Portland, and who stood the test in the early days of persecution and imprisonment that the Army suffered when starting its work here.

Sunday morning Rev. F. A. Ginn will preach at Lincoln Methodist church on the subject of stewardship in connection with the $100,000,000 Centenary of the denomination. In the evening he will preach at the Westmoreland church. Wednesday evening an entertainment will be given in the Lincoln church. F. J. Meyer, recently returned from France, will tell his war experiences, including that of being gassed, and also will exhibit some of his trophies.

Dr. Charles and Mrs. Julia Lee will give religious services in the Scandinavian language on the coming events in Linnea hall, 666 Irving street, on Sunday, May 11, and 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be free.

Liberty Bonds Are Taken as Bail in U. S. District Court

The utility of Liberty bonds was shown this morning when W. C. Campbell, attorney, asked United States District Judge Wolverton if the securities could be used as bail for William Crowder, 23 years old, an Indian being held for alleged sales of "Herb Bitters" to other Indians on the Umatilla reservation.

Episcopal Women to Meet on May 19-20—The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of the diocese of Oregon will be held May 19 and 20 in two of the Portland churches. Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock there will be an open forum, followed by a social hour, in the parish house of St. David's church at East Twelfth and Morrison streets. Tuesday the annual service, followed by a business session, will be held at Grace Memorial church, East Seventeenth and Weidner streets. This service will be preceded by a communion service at 9:30 a. m. All women of the diocese are cordially invited to the sessions.

Judge Stapleton to Speak Before Forum—The domestic relations court will be the theme of the Sunday evening civic forum at the First Congregational church. Judge Stapleton of the circuit court, will be the main speaker. The group of candidates for the judgeship of this court will be invited to be present. Community singing will feature the service. George Wilbur Reed will Prizes at Dance Include Cookies, Watch, Dresser. The Travelers' Protective association gave the most successful dance and card party in its history at the Multnomah hotel Friday night. Nearly everybody got a prize. There were hundreds of them, ranging from cookies to a gold watch. Edward Lamb won what was considered the most valuable prize—a walnut dresser. Mrs. George Stodhill won the gold watch.

Glencoe Pastor Is To Attend Assembly—The Glencoe Baptist church will send its pastor, the Rev. F. C. LaSalette, to the Northern Baptist convention at Denver and pay all his expenses. Thirty new members have received the hand of fellowship since January 1. At a recent banquet $1581 was raised among the members toward the $4000 goal for the furnishing of the church. The enrollment of the Sunday school now exceeds 200.

Sermon Series to Last Until June 1—The Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, is preaching a series of Sunday sermons that will terminate with the close of his pastorate in the church on June 1, when the presiding bishop will convene the Oregon conference.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday—The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good—The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Special Services—The Sunnyside Congregational church has made special arrangements for a series of 10 successive Sunday evening services, beginning Sunday, by the use of a wonderfully attractive and instructive serial motion picture entitled "The Son of Democracy," depicting the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at Corps 1 of the Salvation Army at 243 Ash street in memory of the late Corporal George H. Hager, who was one of the first Salvationists in the city of Portland, and who stood the test in the early days of persecution and imprisonment that the Army suffered when starting its work here.

Sunday morning Rev. F. A. Ginn will preach at Lincoln Methodist church on the subject of stewardship in connection with the $100,000,000 Centenary of the denomination. In the evening he will preach at the Westmoreland church. Wednesday evening an entertainment will be given in the Lincoln church. F. J. Meyer, recently returned from France, will tell his war experiences, including that of being gassed, and also will exhibit some of his trophies.

Dr. Charles and Mrs. Julia Lee will give religious services in the Scandinavian language on the coming events in Linnea hall, 666 Irving street, on Sunday, May 11, and 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be free.

Episcopal Women to Meet on May 19-20

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of the diocese of Oregon will be held May 19 and 20 in two of the Portland churches. Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock there will be an open forum, followed by a social hour, in the parish house of St. David's church at East Twelfth and Morrison streets. Tuesday the annual service, followed by a business session, will be held at Grace Memorial church, East Seventeenth and Weidner streets. This service will be preceded by a communion service at 9:30 a. m. All women of the diocese are cordially invited to the sessions.

Judge Stapleton to Speak Before Forum—The domestic relations court will be the theme of the Sunday evening civic forum at the First Congregational church. Judge Stapleton of the circuit court, will be the main speaker. The group of candidates for the judgeship of this court will be invited to be present. Community singing will feature the service. George Wilbur Reed will Prizes at Dance Include Cookies, Watch, Dresser. The Travelers' Protective association gave the most successful dance and card party in its history at the Multnomah hotel Friday night. Nearly everybody got a prize. There were hundreds of them, ranging from cookies to a gold watch. Edward Lamb won what was considered the most valuable prize—a walnut dresser. Mrs. George Stodhill won the gold watch.

Glencoe Pastor Is To Attend Assembly—The Glencoe Baptist church will send its pastor, the Rev. F. C. LaSalette, to the Northern Baptist convention at Denver and pay all his expenses. Thirty new members have received the hand of fellowship since January 1. At a recent banquet $1581 was raised among the members toward the $4000 goal for the furnishing of the church. The enrollment of the Sunday school now exceeds 200.

Sermon Series to Last Until June 1—The Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, is preaching a series of Sunday sermons that will terminate with the close of his pastorate in the church on June 1, when the presiding bishop will convene the Oregon conference.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday—The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good—The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Special Services—The Sunnyside Congregational church has made special arrangements for a series of 10 successive Sunday evening services, beginning Sunday, by the use of a wonderfully attractive and instructive serial motion picture entitled "The Son of Democracy," depicting the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday, May 25, will bring in connection with a special Memorial service a striking chapter on "A Call to Arms." Special music will accompany these services. The public is cordially invited.

Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at Corps 1 of the Salvation Army at 243 Ash street in memory of the late Corporal George H. Hager, who was one of the first Salvationists in the city of Portland, and who stood the test in the early days of persecution and imprisonment that the Army suffered when starting its work here.

Sunday morning Rev. F. A. Ginn will preach at Lincoln Methodist church on the subject of stewardship in connection with the $100,000,000 Centenary of the denomination. In the evening he will preach at the Westmoreland church. Wednesday evening an entertainment will be given in the Lincoln church. F. J. Meyer, recently returned from France, will tell his war experiences, including that of being gassed, and also will exhibit some of his trophies.

Dr. Charles and Mrs. Julia Lee will give religious services in the Scandinavian language on the coming events in Linnea hall, 666 Irving street, on Sunday, May 11, and 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be free.

The Members of the AMERICAN CHURCH

Cordially Invite You to Attend Their Services Sunday 7:15 P.M. MAY 11, AT 7:45 O'CLOCK IN THE W. O. W. HALL EAST SIXTH AND ALDER STS. TOPIC "Mind: The Power of an Idea"

Episcopal Women to Meet on May 19-20—The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of the diocese of Oregon will be held May 19 and 20 in two of the Portland churches. Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock there will be an open forum, followed by a social hour, in the parish house of St. David's church at East Twelfth and Morrison streets. Tuesday the annual service, followed by a business session, will be held at Grace Memorial church, East Seventeenth and Weidner streets. This service will be preceded by a communion service at 9:30 a. m. All women of the diocese are cordially invited to the sessions.

Judge Stapleton to Speak Before Forum—The domestic relations court will be the theme of the Sunday evening civic forum at the First Congregational church. Judge Stapleton of the circuit court, will be the main speaker. The group of candidates for the judgeship of this court will be invited to be present. Community singing will feature the service. George Wilbur Reed will Prizes at Dance Include Cookies, Watch, Dresser. The Travelers' Protective association gave the most successful dance and card party in its history at the Multnomah hotel Friday night. Nearly everybody got a prize. There were hundreds of them, ranging from cookies to a gold watch. Edward Lamb won what was considered the most valuable prize—a walnut dresser. Mrs. George Stodhill won the gold watch.

Glencoe Pastor Is To Attend Assembly—The Glencoe Baptist church will send its pastor, the Rev. F. C. LaSalette, to the Northern Baptist convention at Denver and pay all his expenses. Thirty new members have received the hand of fellowship since January 1. At a recent banquet $1581 was raised among the members toward the $4000 goal for the furnishing of the church. The enrollment of the Sunday school now exceeds 200.

Sermon Series to Last Until June 1—The Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church, is preaching a series of Sunday sermons that will terminate with the close of his pastorate in the church on June 1, when the presiding bishop will convene the Oregon conference.

Well Known Pastor Will Preach Sunday—The Rev. Harold H. Griffin, pastor of the First Christian church, will be absent from the city Sunday to deliver the high school baccalaureate sermon at Culver, Or. The pulpit will be supplied both morning and evening by the Rev. M. Conner, one of the best known and most popular among the aged ministers of the Disciples Brotherhood.

St. Davids Church's Condition Is Good—The annual meeting of St. David's Episcopal church, just held, showed the parish in flourishing financial condition, according to the announcement of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, rector. All obligations of the year were met and the outstanding scenes and incidents in the life of President Lincoln. May has generally come to be looked upon as memorial month. Sunday, May 11, is Mothers' day, at which time this great series will open with a particularly appropriate chapter on "My Mother," showing the log cabin birthplace of "The Son of Democracy," picturing the gentle influence of Lincoln's mother and the humorous, as well as the pathetic, sides of his boy life. The following Sunday's serial will be "My Father." Sunday,