

KLAMATH MAKES AN APPEAL FOR RAILROAD LINE

Senator McNary Receives Letters From Young and Old Demanding Building of Section. ACTION THOUGHT PROBABLE

Matter of Eugene-Klamath Falls Link to Be Presented to S. P. Directors for Their Approval.

Washington, May 13.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Klamath county cry for development, for orderly progress and for a full seat at the table in the Oregon family is voiced abundantly in a letter filed in Senator McNary's office. He has marked it "Natron Cut-off File," and it is constantly growing.

These letters are from old and young business men, ranchers, officials and schoolchildren. Senator McNary will use them in the future steps of the effort he is making to have early action taken by the railroad administration. He has received sufficient encouragement to believe that the building of this long-delayed railroad link of 93 miles between Eugene and Klamath Falls will not be much longer delayed. WILL APPEAL TO S. P.

Just now he is waiting for more complete data from Klamath Falls. The next move after that will be to present the matter in a formal way before the board of directors of the Southern Pacific company, for the railroad administration will require the assent of that company before it takes any action.

Beyond that lies the question of an appropriation by congress for the railroad administration sufficient in sum to permit it to undertake construction of a project of this sort, and then the final approval and apportionment of funds for this purpose by the railroad administration. The project seems about to come forth from the realm of the vague to the reality of practical consideration.

There is human interest in the letters in the "Natron cut-off file" in Senator McNary's office. Bankers and business men tell of the near half million acres that may be irrigated, of 17,000 head of beef cattle that can be shipped to Portland each year, of 31,000,000,000 feet of California white pine ready for the mills, of the undeveloped water power, of the $150,000 yearly lost to shippers in shrinkage of livestock shipments, of the standing of Klamath Falls as ninth in Oregon in bank deposits, of the trade of Klamath and Lake equalling one eighth of the entire state, and of the common desire to become a close neighbor of Portland and the other cities of Oregon.

WHAT LETTERS SAY

The letters of the little people, proud of Klamath and eager to promote the growth of their town, are not less interesting. Here is what some of them say:

"I would rather build up Oregon than California."—Neil Elliott.

"Papa sold eighty hundred pounds of potatoes last week and he had to send them to San Francisco."—Mary White.

"I would like to go to Portland some time, and if the road was through it wouldn't cost so much."—Homer Garlich.

"It would save 15 hours going to Portland."—Stella Setzer.

"This road would save $14 on a round trip to Portland and $10 on every steer shipped. We want to build up Portland, not San Francisco."—Dale Soule.

"In going the other route there are the Siskiyou mountains, and it takes two or three engines to pull the trains."—Constance Crystal.

"We would rather use the things we grow in our own state."—Gordon Smith.

Enforced Speaking Of English by All Immigrants, Plan

Washington, May 13.—Compulsory use of English in all public and private schools was advocated by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, in an address before the Americanization conference here Monday.

"Without knowledge of English, no one can become an American," said Dr. Claxton. "The bureau of education is not in sympathy with any movement that tends to limit knowledge in any direction, but all who come to America to seek the hospitality of this country must learn English."

Lexington Girls Do Extra School Work

Lexington, May 13.—Three Lexington girls "skipped" grades in school during the past school year. Mabel Wright completed the first and second grades and will enter the third grade in the fall. She was neither tardy nor absent. Vestie Lane, 9 years old, and Marie Breshers, 8 years old, finished the third and fourth grades in the year and will enter the fifth grade next term.

Agent Beaten and Robbed of $6000

St. Louis, May 13.—(U. S. S.)—After being knocked unconscious and tied with ropes, Vincent G. Selvaggi, steamship agent and private banker for Italians, was robbed of $6000 in his office here Monday. A clerk from a drug store nearby discovered Selvaggi unconscious on the floor with his face and clothing covered with tobacco snuff, which had evidently been used to blind the banker.

Hungarian Soviet Republic Invited To Send Delegates

Paris, May 13.—(U. P.)—The allies, intentionally or unintentionally, apparently have for the first time officially recognized a Bolshevik government—the Hungarian soviet republic.

A formal invitation was forwarded to Budapest, simultaneously with the one to Vienna to send a delegation to the peace conference, it was learned today. At first it was reported the invitation was made under the impression that Bela Kun had been ousted but the French foreign office later stated that this was not the case.

A Single Application Will Banish Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty)

Here is a home-treatment for removing hairs that is quick, painless and inexpensive: With some powdered detelone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be careful to get real detelone.—Adv.

Why Tom Boiled Over

(A True Story)

By Dr. E. R. Parker (Painless Parker)

Tom used to boil over, from time to time. When he boiled over he would drink, fight, lie, steal. He had been sent ninety-three times to jails and work-houses during thirty years on charges of drunkenness and fighting.

Criminals often boil over. They feel suddenly a strong desire to drink. They get nervous depression, restlessness, fatigue. They are quarrelsome and don't attend to their duties if they are on the job. These people are often called Dipsomaniacs. They are "nutty."

Tom was like that. When he was not boiling over he was very pleasant, capable and obliging. In his good intervals he was very eager to stop drinking.

What was the matter with him?

For a long time no one could find out. A dentist solved the mystery. An X-RAY examination showed two of his teeth were decaying. They were immediately treated. That was in 1909.

Since that time Tom has been entirely sober. He has been working steadily on one job. He has been happy. He no longer has those fits of Dipsomania. Tom has been entirely changed.

This story is told by an eminent man of science, Professor H. S. Upson.
