"Liberty" Schaefer Dead Was Comedian of Ball Field

Herman Schaefer, one of the best known players in the major leagues, who died suddenly Friday at Satanae Lake, N. Y.

By H. C. Hamilton

NEW YORK, May 17.—(U. P.)—There were heavy hearts today on half the baseball fields in America. "Liberty" Schaefer—who used to be "German" Schaefer, is gone. Not a man in major baseball of a few years back whose daily labor has not been brightened by the fun and friendliness of the Dutchman.

Not a faithful man who has not gone home from the park at one time or another, getting off with the chuckles and laughs coaxed from him by the Dutchman's antics on the field.

For years a regular ball player, Schaefer was known as the high comedian of the diamond. After his playing days were over he was carried by major league clubs because his fun-making drew dollars at the gate and also kept his mates cheerful.

When war was declared with Germany, Schaefer requested sport writers to "cut out" the nickname "German." It ought to be "Liberty" Schaefer now, he declared.

Schaefer, whose real name was Herman, died yesterday at Satanae Lake, N. Y. He had been ill for some time, but the end was unexpected.

MAYOR IS IN FAVOR OF BOUT

Protests of Ministerial Association Virtually Thrown Into the Discard.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 17.—(I. N. S.)—Protests of the Toledo Ministerial union and of other organizations against the holding of the Willard-Dempsey fight here July 1 today have been usually thrown to the discard by Mayor Schreiber.

The mayor has issued a statement approving the action of the boxing commission in granting a permit for the fight. He declared that boxing had been made a part of the curriculum of army and navy training and expressed the belief that the contest will be of great natural and industrial benefit to the city, in addition to enriching Toledo's charities by $25,000.

Protests of several organizations which have been filed with Governor Cox and with Sheriff Mathias have as yet received no reply.

Dempsey is busy here today with plans for the establishment of his training camp. Willard is expected to arrive next week. Construction work on the big arena is progressing.

Willard Planning for Bout

Los Angeles, May 17.—(U. P.)—Jess Willard is moving with more energy in the direction of his July 4 battle with Jack Dempsey.

There has been a speeding up of work and plans all around in the Willard camp.

Willard announced today that he would leave Los Angeles about May 23 and that he would go to Toledo direct to do his heavy training without making the previously projected side trips or stops.

Also he let the public get a good, square view of his training activities. That was to Willard's benefit, for it showed that if reports are true that Willard is wrecked by disipation—and he denies he has dissipated—then he is a demon for that brand of punishment. All who saw him agreed Willard looked like anything but the wreck he had been pictured.

Willard said he intended to step into the ring at 245 pounds, adding he weighed 229 1/2 when he met Johnson and 249 when he fought Moran. He admitted he couldn't get down to the Johnson weight, although he and his trainers had been getting off the tonnage at the rate of half a pound a day this week.

Willard's training schedule now includes 20 minutes' fast work a day. He boxes one or more rounds, shadow boxes a bit, wrestles a little and does a strenuous turn with the weights and pulleys, like anything but the wreck he had been pictured.
