Charles H. Dundore, son of J. H. Dundore, former president of Rose Festival association, after a distinguished record in the air service, received his discharge Creeks Closed to Fishermen-Link and on May 16 at Kelly field, San Antonio, striking appearance.

Mr. Dundore began his training at the military school of aeronautics, Berkeley, Cal., where he remained three months. His training in primary flying was at Mather field, Sacramento, where he rated as pursuit instructor pilot. He took a course in the Gosport instructors' school, Brooks field, San Antonio, Texas, and on completion was assigned as instructor there. For one month he acted as instructor at Barron field, Everman, Texas. Later he was transferred to Kelly field, where he served as an instructor until his recent discharge. While stationed at Kelly field he was member of the flying circus, and in the interest of Liberty loans, flew over the towns in Southern Texas. In March he took part in a night flying spectacle called "The Battle of the Clouds." The total hours spent in the air amount to for their regular weekly bargaining have expressed surprised satisfaction at the sanitary and attractive appearance of the city.

War Navigator Leaves Captain James J. Doyle, an old time navigator of the Northwest, left Port-land Saturday morning in charge of a cargo of lumber, sailing from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast. During the war he was in charge of a vessel which sailed out of Seattle for New York and from New York to France. The ship was torpedoed twice and sunk, while 11 members of the crew were killed. Captain Doyle was badly burned, but got into one of the three lifeboats with 30 other men.
