

THEIR STEPS DRAGGING SLIGHTLY, PROUDLY THEY CARRY ON

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THOSE WHO GAVE LIVES FOR NATION

Veterans of Three Wars Join in Parade and Ceremony in Honor of Those Who Gave Lives.

SERVICES HELD IN CITY

Ranks of G. A. R. Thinning as Years Pass; Graves Covered With Flowers; Services Held.

Spanning half a century, soldiers of more than 50 years ago, soldiers of 31 years ago and soldiers of the last two years gathered in The Auditorium on Decoration day to commemorate lives spent in crusades of justice.

BISHOP HUGHES SPEAKS

It was the fifty-first anniversary of Decoration day, Commander T. H. Stevens of the G. A. R. said, when those in the parade assembled at The Auditorium.

WAR MEANS SACRIFICE

"No nation that is fit to live," he declared, "is willing to forget the past. I am not here to glorify war, for war is not glorious, General Sherman, trained soldier and leader of men, knows what he was saying when he made that laconic remark, 'War is hell.'"

KEEP MEMORY GREEN

"We of the Grand Army know that when we have passed on to the Great Beyond Memorial day will be preserved as it is. We feel that Memorial day will go on into the future as it was begun."

THE PARADE

The parade started with a platoon of police, a band and several companies of the new Third Oregon. Then came the Sons of Veterans, the Grand Army of the Republic, the United States Marine Corps and the United States Cavalry.

REACHING THE AUDITORIUM

At the close of Bishop Hughes' address the large audience rose to its feet, while Mrs. Grant Thomas sang the "Star Spangled Banner" after which, while heads were bowed, the bugler sounded "Taps." The army drill placed at the end of the day and at the grave during a military burial service.

G. A. R. MARCHES PAST

Especially auspicious was the drum corps preceding the G. A. R. men, composed of sons of Spanish-American War Veterans who served in the recent war.

THREE KILLED, TWO HURT IN AUTO RACE

at the end of 325 miles, he was able to continue his pace and "top" the winner's coin, as he was being closely followed by G. Chevrolet, who had gained a short distance on him in the last 25 miles.

NEW SHOW TODAY

Men froze to death in the snow, perished in blizzards and starved in the bleak wastes of that Yukon country in a crazed rush for gold, for yellow wealth which lay on the ground, and around this spectacular period of Alaskan history this story has been built, with William Desmond as Dan Burke, a tenderfoot prospector, who fought hard and won—when he won—the square.
