in Quality THROUGH many years the name "Rosenthal's" has been associated with the best in footwear for men and women. Only the worthiest—the aristocracy of footwear — has found a welcome here. It is undeniably true that prices on all footwear now are high. It also is true that much footwear of only ordinarily-nay, of mediocre—quality is masquerading as good footwear, cloaking its unworthiness under the guise of high price, an insult to your intelligence. Is it not reasonable to believe that a house that always has carried the best would scorn to do otherwise during the period of higher costs? Is it not, then, the part of wisdom, when you buy footwear at present prices, to come to a house whose very name stands for qualityquality at no higher price than you would pay for mediocrity in stores where such is offered?

Whenever you want footwear-either now or later in the season-let us show you the features of excellence possessed by our footwear. Our standard is maintained.
