Mackmen Even-Up With Oakland by Slamming Arlett Brothers for One-Sided Victory

PORTLAND SIDLES PAST OAKLAND TO 9-1 DEMORALIZER

Penner in Fine Hurling Form, While Oaks' Pitchers Are Weak, Letting 13 Sound Hits Get By; Beavers Display Hitting Speed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Portland had an easy time with the Oaks yesterday, taking the game by a score of 9 to 1. The Beavers found Oakland's pitchers for a total of 13 safeties, while the Oaks got but five widely scattered hits off Penner. R. Arlett started the game for Oakland, but his benders were anything but puzzling to the Beavers and he gave way to A. Arlett, who fared no better.

The victory was Penner's fourth straight and would have been a shutout had Siglin fielded Murphy's grounder in the first inning in good style. Mac's veteran had everything on the ball and was the master of the situation all the way.

An altercation almost resulted in the eighth inning, when Umpire Eason ordered Blue to the clubhouse for disputing a play. McCredie added to the difficulties when he took the part of Eason and in turn received a tongue lashing from his hireling.

The Mackmen tied the score in the second inning and put across four tallies in the third frame. One run was added in each of the fourth and fifth frames and in the sixth two were chalked up.

Blue grabbed three hits during the afternoon, one a double. Wisterzil, Maisel, Siglin and Baker each collected two hits.

The series now stands 50-50, Oakland having taken the champions down the line in the first two games of the series.

SALT LAKE HOLDS ANGELS DOWN; MARKLE VULNERABLE

Salt Lake, June 21.—Friday's game was a slugging bee for both sides, and the runs were in a measure commensurate with the bingles. The home team beat the league leaders by a nose, 10 to 9. It was a walkaway for the Bees in the early stages of the game, but the Angels eventually found Markle for a number of bunched hits and, coupled with errors, managed to chase five runs across the pan in the sixth. VERNON WINS SEESAW GAME FROM SEATTLE

Los Angeles, June 21.—The Vernon Tigers took a close game from Seattle Friday by a score of 5 to 4. Vernon started off with a three run lead in the opener. Bigbee knocked a homer in the third and Seattle took the lead in the fourth, when they batted Houck out of the box and put three tallies across. Dell was on the mound at the opening of the fifth and in their half of that inning the Tigers batted out two runs, and with Dell pitching shutout ball the visitors never had a chance to catch up with the score. Masterly Play in Two Fast Matches Of Golf Tourney

Sunset Hill, Mo., June 21.—(I. N. S.)—Two great matches were being played in the Western open semi-finals Friday and a large gallery applauded every good play.

Wolff got away well but Legg was likewise playing a masterly game and at the ninth hole had Wolff 2 down. Bockenkamp was 1 down at the seventh. Bromfield, the Colorado state champion, playing against Bockenkamp, was also displaying remarkable form in the early rounds.

At the end of the eighteenth hole Richard Bockenkamp was 1 up over Larry Bromfield; Harry Legg was 3 up over Wolff.

The Bockenkamp-Bromfield match is one of the prettiest and hardest fought of the tournament. On the seventeenth the men were even. Bromfield missed an easy putt, taking a 5 while Bockenkamp holed out in 4.

Wolff was going badly in the early rounds and was off color in his putting, but with a sudden burst of speed, after being 5 down, Wolff made a good recovery and took 17 and 18. The Wolff-Legg card for the first half was:

Wolff—
Out: 544 755 454—39.
In: 337 575 544—43. Total 82.
Legg—
Out: 634 464 343—37
In: 346 455 455—41. Total 78.

The Bockenkamp-Bromfield card:
Bromfield—
Out: 434 554 455—37.
In. 436 465 445—41. Total 78.
Bockenkamp—
Out: 436 353 554—37.
In: 424 555 554—39. Total 76.

Detroit and St. Paul are contenders for the next tournament, the chances being regarded as even.

Youth Accidentally Killed at La Grande

La Grande, June 21.—Clint Bartmess was accidentally shot and killed at an early hour Thursday on his father's farm, near here. The young man, who was in his early twenties, was a son of Ed Bartmess, a pioneer of the valley. He returned from army service recently. The manner in which the accident occurred is not known.

SEATTLE PLAYERS IN FINALS

Griswold and Speirs of Jefferson Park Club to Play for Northwest Title.

SPOKANE, June 21.—(U. P.)—Playing spectacular golf at a heartbreaking pace, Clare Griswold and Clark Speirs, both of the Jefferson Park Golf club of Seattle, defeated E. J. Barker of Butte, Mont., and Paul Ford of the Seattle Golf club team respectively, in the semi-finals for the Pacific Northwest Amateur Golf championship in the tourney here yesterday. Griswold won 9-8 over Barker and Speirs 10-9 over Ford.

Both Jefferson Park men cinched their matches in the first 18 holes. Griswold was the shining light as Barker forced him to battle all the way. Speirs had an easier time of it, Ford being somewhat off his game. Griswold and Speirs settle the championship today with prospects a shade in Griswold's favor.

In the women's championship Mrs. Maud B. Kegley of Los Angeles defeated Miss Phoebe Tidmarsh of Seattle 3-1; Mrs. E. B. Curran of Seattle defeated Miss Frances Turner of Butte, 4-3. Today Mrs. Kegley and Mrs. Curran will settle the championship.

Yale Varsity Wins Renewal of Annual Oarsmen Classic

New London, Conn., June 21.—Yale defeated Harvard's varsity eight here yesterday on the renewal of their annual race on the Thames river. The victors made a strong finish with the crimson crew a length and a half behind them and were given a terrific reception as they flashed over the line. The time:

Yale, 21:42 3-5.
Harvard, 21:47 2-5.

The starter's pistol, which failed to function properly, was responsible for two false starts.

When the shells finally got under way at 7:50 p. m., Yale kept the lead up to the two-mile mark. Here Harvard gained the initiative and held it until within a quarter of a mile of the finish, when Yale by a spurt made up her losses and dashed over the finish line a length and a half in the lead. Number six of the Yale crew collapsed at the finish.

Miss Steffens Is In Singles Final

Two matches in the upper brackets of the Women's Annex handicap tennis tournament of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club were completed Friday and sent Miss Madeline Steffen into the finals in the singles and Miss Steffen paired with Miss Inez Fairchild in the doubles finals. Miss Steffen defeated Mrs. Ethel Warner, R-4-6, in two out of three sets, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3, serving beautifully and driving the ball deep. Miss Steffen had great difficulty in overcoming her heavy handicap of owe-15 3-6. In the doubles Miss Steffen and Miss Fairchild won from Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Frances Bates, 6-4, 6-0. finals in the lower brackets will be played tonight, starting at 6 o'clock.

Freight Car Filled With Wheat Burns; Firemen Called Out

Hood River, June 21.—Shortly before 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, a westbound freight train caught fire while between Mosier and Hood River. When the train arrived at Hood River the fire was located in a box car loaded with wheat. Before the local fire brigade arrived the train crew detached the car and backed it beneath a water tank, where it was drenched. It is expected that the contents, 10,000 bushels of wheat, valued at about $22,000, will be a total loss.

Chautauqua, July 7

Hood River, June 21.—Plans are now complete for the annual Chautauqua, which opens here on July 7. The program lasts six days.

RECORDS BETTERED

In the tryouts for the big meet, which were completed yesterday, the Americans equalled two world records, established in the Olympic games of 1914. Paddock tied Archie Hahn's mark of 21 3-5 seconds in the 200 meter dash, and Sylvester nosed out his cousin, Bob Simpson, in the 200 meter hurdle, tying the record of 24 3-5. The Americans also shattered nine French national records.

Opening Rifle Shoot Of Season Is Billed

The opening rifle shooting matches of the Sellwood Rifle club will be held on the government range at Clackamas, Sunday, and will continue throughout the summer months.

The matches will be the qualifications for the use of the Krag rifle furnished by the government. Each member will shoot 40 times, the targets being 200-yards, 300-yards, 500-yards and 600-yards.

The train for Clackamas will leave the Union depot at 7:40 a. m.

The club hopes to secure members from the ranks of the national guard.

Local Ring Stars Matched for Bouts

Walter Knowlton, former lightweight champion of the coast amateur ranks, and Albert Beyers will meet in a 10-round contest at Bend, Or., July 4. The Bend sportsmen wanted Muff Bronson and Alex Trambitas for their Independence day attraction, but this event could not be arranged on account of Trambitas being in California.

Neil Zimmerman and Carl Martin have been matched for a 10-round contest at La Grande Decoration day.

The amendment was offered by Walsh of Massachusetts, upon request of Hawley, and was accepted by Good of Iowa, in charge of the bill.

Baseball Stages Big Comeback

7—DODGERS

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 21. — At this stage of the season, judging from past performances of the club, its potentialities as brought out by the abilities, not only of the players themselves, but also of their leader, Wilbert Robinson, the Brooklyn club of the National league looks like a very fine aggregation, likely to make things most interesting for the remainder of the league.

The fact that the New York Giants have been successful in their meetings with the Dodgers proves nothing, except that the Giants play better ball against the Dodgers than against any other club in the league. Chances are the end of the season will find the teams on more even terms, for a team with the power of the Brooklyns is not to be beaten wth such regularity as the Giants have been beating them.

INFIELD LOOKS GOOD

Before the start of the season, critics everywhere conceded that the Brooklyn club's pitching staff was the best in the National league, but they wept over the condition of Robbie's infield. Robbie himself had misgivings, but instead of sitting still to weep over it, he went out and dug up what he needed. When Larry Kopf refused to report from Cincinnati he got Lee Magee instead. Then he signed Ed Konetchy, although he has in Ray Schmandt a fine young first baseman, probably a better man than Konetchy.

Since that time the Brooklyn infield has been about the best thing the club boasts. Ivan Olson has had his bad days, but that old fox has played good baseball most of the time. His mean temper has been the cause of most of his troubles. He has worked it overtime on ball players, and umpires alike.

BRILLIANT OUTFIELD

The pitching staff started off in wonderful shape, but has cracked a tiny bit since the opening. After a start that made the National league's consecutive victory record tremble for itself, Jeff Pfeffer had a downfall. Sherrod Smith pitched a notable opening game and then skidded into defeat. Cadore has not been effective of late, and Burleigh Grimes is effective only on occasions. Al Mamaux is practically useless just now.

The catching staff is poor, except when judged as hitters. Ernie Krueger has only a fair arm, is purely a mechanical receiver, and is the worst in the league on high fouls. Miller is better, but much the slower.

Robbie's outfield is fast and brilliant—as good as any in the league, figured as a collected unit.

Believing in the Dodgers, the Brooklyn fans have been turning out in generous numbers. On one Sunday they outdrew the Yankees, who were playing in New York. Faith like that in Brooklyn means something—probably that the fans believe Robbie is about to lead them to another world's series.

BOXING

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—(U. P.)—Tommy Richards and Harry Pelsinger pranced four rounds at Dreamland rink last night to a draw. Frankie Denny won over Billy Emke after the latter knocked Denny down in the third round. Steve Dalton and Frankie Jones boxed a draw. Johnny Drum, belying his name, did not take a beating but knocked down Cyclone Williams in the Fourth.

Portland Golf Club To Stage Tourneys

The Portland Golf club will stage the qualifying round of its tournament for men over 45 years old Sunday morning. The 16 low players qualify for the match play competition which will be scheduled on following Sundays.

A ball sweepstakes tourney will also be staged on the Portland course.

None Was Injured In Motor Mishaps On Mountain Roads

Roseburg, June 21.—A tourist party met with a mishap on Roberts mountain Thursday, when the brakes of the car, driven by a woman, with a woman companion, failed to hold and the car ran upon the embankment and overturned. The occupants escaped serious injury.

Sheriff George Quine and family narrowly escaped a plunge over a steep embankment Wednesday evening while motoring in the vicinity of Melrose when a bolt in the steering gear dropped out. The car was stopped at the edge of a steep bank.

Man's Hands Blown Off

Roseburg, June 21. — A laborer lost both hands at the Clark-Henry construction camp near Oakland Thursday when a blast was prematurely ignited. He was also seriously injured about the face and body. The man had recently applied for work and no one knew his name. He is about 45 years of age. He will recover.

REFEREE PROBLEM UP TODAY

Jack Kearns Will Open Question at Meeting With Rickard and Archer.

By H. C. Hamilton

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 21.—(U. P.)—A referee for the bout on July 4 between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey may be selected today. No official announcement of such an occurrence is believed near, but indications are that behind closed doors there will take place a conference that will settle all the arguments over who is to be the third man in the 20-foot enclosure. The army, navy and civilian board of control's selections for the official have not been made, nor is there any inkling of who will be placed on this list.

Some time today Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey; Ray Archer, business manager for Jess Willard, and Tex Rickard, principal promoter of the bout, will get together to discuss disposition of the pictures of the battle. Jack Kearns intends at this time to open the referee question.

WILL RESUME BOXING

Kearns and Rickard both told me several days ago that they would make no announcement regarding their preference for a referee until about 10 days before July 4.

Dempsey will get back to his boxing today. He planned to go four rounds, two with Jamaica Kid and two with Terry Kellar the Dayton heavyweight. In case Bill Tate returns from Minneapolis, he will also be taken on, and Jock Malone, St. Paul middleweight, may get a chance to step with the challenger.

Jess Willard scored another knockout yesterday. He caught Jack Heinen as the latter fell through the ropes, with a short right uppercut squarely to the point of the chin and Jack went to sleep for several seconds.

WILLARD LOOKED GOOD

The champion went nine rounds in all, and previous to the knockout of Heinen had floored him with a right cross, heavily delivered.

Jess looked very good yesterday. He stepped fast with little exertion.

Dempsey went through the perfunctory session with punching bag, sand bag and at shadow boxing.

Willard probably will increase the number of training rounds again today for a cooling rain fell yesterday afternoon and there were indications that the worst of the heat wave is over.

Brownsville Browns Win Another

Brownsville, June 21.—The Brownsville Browns won from the fast Albany team, Thursday by the score of 6 to 5. This is the second game of the three-game series which is being played at the reunion of Linn county pioneers at this city. The batteries were, Brownsville—Damon, Roche and James; Albany—Beamis and Eastburn. This makes Brownsville's fourth win of the year with only one defeat.

BIG BOUT STRICTLY ON MERITS

Championship Battle Will Be No "Brother-in-Law" Affair; Both Anxious to Win.

By Frank G. Menke

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—Any suspicion that the Willard-Dempsey fracas is going to be a "brother-in-law" affair should be dispelled at once. This fight will be decided strictly on its merits.

Never was there a fistic clash where the possibility of a "frame up" was more remote. There has been logical explanations by some for alleged "cook-ups" in the past. But this fight is different—radically so.

There isn't enough money in the world to induce Willard to "lay down." He values the title more than all the tinsel that could be offered to him. And money doesn't mean an awful lot to him anyway. The champion is worth around $350,000 or $400,000 now at the lowest estimate and his guarantee of $100,000 plus movie profits will shoot his wealth well beyond the half million dollar mark.

That's more than Willard could spend in two life times.

NOT ENOUGH TO BUY JACK

On the other hand, Willard hasn't enough money to buy a Dempsey lay down, even if he tried. And he certainly won't try because Jess is sublimely confident that he can whip Dempsey without an awful lot of trouble. But assuming that some one might want to "buy" Jack Dempsey and Dempsey was willing to "sell," it's a pretty safe bet that $500,000 would be the lowest price. And no living man would pay even half that sum to see Dempsey whipped a dozen times.

If Jack Dempsey becomes heavyweight champion of the world on July 4 it is more than likely that he will pile up close to $1,000,000 before he is dethroned, provided that he holds the title the average length of time which is something around five years.

As a final clinching argument that the big clash will be wholly on the level, one needs only point to the fact that there is considerable ill felling between the two gladiators. Each has spoofed the fighting skill of the other and aroused considerable ire. And, as is characteristic of fighters whose ability has been hooted at by another, there is a mad desire to prove that the other belongs to the justly celebrated Ananias sorority.

EACH HAS AMBITION

They're going out to the big arena on July 4—Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey—with but one thought in mind, with but one ambition pulsing through them. And that is to bang the other into a state of coma without the waste of a single second.

"I wonder what that anarchist would do if the grocer were to give him a box of soap?" "He'd probably throw the contents away and use the box for a pedestal."—Washington Star.
