Becomes' a Bride

Popular Entertainer Marries A Kenneth Hastings, Returned Soldier.

By Helen H. Hutchison MISS LAURA SHAY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shay, formerly of Portland, but now of Molalla, was married recently to A. Kenneth Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hastings of Fortland. The marriage was solemnized at the First Christian church in this city, the Rev. H. H. Griffis officiating in the presence of a few rel-atives and intimate friends. The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Clark and the best man was Roger B. Shay, a brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings will spend the summer in Molalla and in the fall Mr. Hastings will enter college at Corvallis. The bride will be remembered as one of Portland's most charming and gifted young dancers and singers, one who was much in demand as an entertainer and gave generously of her talent for social and philanthropic purposes. Mr. Hastings is a graduate of Jefferson high school, and recently returned from France, where he served as sergeant with Company D of the 162d infantry.

 Invitations have been received by Portland friends for the wedding of Miss Marguerite Auztas de Turenne of Seattle and Sewall Clark of Philadelphia. Wednesday. July 2, has been chosen as the date of the wedding which will be at the home of the bride's parents in Seattle. M ss Auzias de Turenne will be remembared as one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Hazel Dolph and Ed-Clark III, who is a brother of Scwall Clark. The bride-elect is one of the most popular of Seattle society maids and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raimond Auzias de Turenne of Seattle. Mr. Clark has recently received his discharge from the service. He is the son of Edward W. Clark of Phila-

Mrs. Alexander D. Charlton will entertain on Tuesday for her niece. Mrs. Wellington Gilbert (Lavelle Young), who has recently returned to Portland from her home in New Haven, Conn. Assisting about the rooms for the occasion will be a number of the young matrons and maids who served by idesmaids at the wedding of Mrs. Gilbert more than two years ago. They will include Mrs. Neagle Seale (Marie Haller), Miss Antoinette Mears, Miss V'Ona Guthrie, Miss Helen Honeyman and Mrs. George W. Stapleton. and Miss Mary Warrack. Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. H. M. Haller, Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mrs. E. C. Mears and Mrs. R. H. Guthrie.

Miss Davis is a talented young violinist and was heard to County W. C. T advantage in a recital given Saturday evening by the pupils of William Wallace Graham.

The wedding of Miss Edna Minsinger and S. Spencer Scott will be an important social event of this evening. The scrvice will be read at Westminster Presbyterian church at 8:30 o'clock, and will be followed by an informal reception at the home of the bride. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Matson were hosts for a smart tea honoring Miss Minsinger and her flance, who arrived from New York on Friday evening.

Findings of National Conference Now Available in Printed Form.

As A result of the children's bureau conference, called by the secretary of labor at the request of President Wilson, and held in Washington, D. C., May 5-8, a new leaflet has just been fasued, setting forth the recommenda tions of that body on "Minimum Standards for Child Welfare. Besides being participated in by many American authorities, this conference was advised by representatives of Bel gium, France, Great Britain, Japan and Serbia, reporting especially on what their nations had learned concerning the better protection of children as a result of their war experience.

A limited number of leaflets are available and will be distributed to the various clubs throughout the state by Mrs. Fred G. Schilke, special agent of the children's bureau. It was decided at this conference to esolve the state chairmen of child welfare, council of defense of the various states. New York city, Hawaii and the committee of the children's bureau of child welfare. Mrs. Schilke will continue to be Oregon's representative of feta with net dyed to match and the children's bureau.
