'BLUEBEARD' AFFAIR IS TRUMPED UP, IS BELIEF IN FRANCE

Landru's 15 'Fiancees' Held Myth to Divert Attention From Peace Negotiations.

By Paul Scott Mowrer Special Cable to The Journal and The Daily News.

(Copyright, 1919, by Chicago Daily News Co.) Paris, France, June 20 .- The Liberal newspaper Ocuvre charges that the sen sational Landru or modern "Bluebeard" affair of Paris has been largely trumped up by the government with a view to distracting public opinion from the dilatoriness of the peace negotiations. It clear and low. Fly fishing most sucsays that there never really has been sufficient evidence against Landru, who week. One can easily get the limit with is charged with having murdered about fly. Canadian day has been named for July 1 and starting at 1 o'clock p. m. will be the grammar school championships, followed by the Pacific coast contests. Manager Philbrook has made arrangements to take his 15 Winged "M" athletes to Tacoma next Monday afternoon and return to Portland early Wednesday morning and he is confident that but one day will be set aside for the titles when it is seen that there are not enough entries to call for more than two or possibly three heats in any on the afternoon of July 2.

The athletes would not have their strength taxed too much for not even the national championships require two days to put across the winners. Manager Philbrook telegraphed to Coach Country club, will meet the Grays Harbor Country club in a match at the Harager Philbrook telegraphed to Coach

Pacific Northwest Ski Tournament to Be Staged Sunday

Skiing experts from all the Pacific Northwest will gather at Paradise valley, Rainier National park, Sunday for the third annual Pacific Northwest ski tournament. The tournament will be the principal attraction there that day, fishing conditions in almost all but the whole valley will be turned over present to take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy winter sports eight days after the summer of 1919 has been officially ushered in. The annual tournament is a young institution in the Pacific Northwest. The first one, in 1917, brought only four en-tries. That it took well was evidenced the next year when, in spite of the fact that America was busy winning the war. and most of the expert ski runners of the Northwest were in the service, 17 This year that number going to be far overpassed, and competition promises to be mighty keen.
