Conference Held for Purpose of Arranging for Missionary Training Conference Next Month.

TWO THEMES TO BE STUDIED

Christian Americanization' and 'Christianity and Conservation of Human Life' to Be Topics.

A Seabeck committee was organized at a luncheon of the Y. W. C. A. Monday afternoon, when a group of prominent women from seven denominations met with Mrs. Paul Raymond of San cific division of the interchurch world movement. This committee was formed for the purpose of advertising the missionary training conference at Seabeck Hood's canal, July 30 to August 8, and securing a large and representative atendance from the churches of Portland

Seabeck combines the advantages and is to Wisconsin and Silver bay on lake George is to New York—a place for summer religious conferences and Bible leaders for mission study in the different churches next season. Two themes to be offered for mission jects for the conference, are "Christian Americanization" for and "Christianity and the Conservation of Human Life" for foreign missions Supplemental study includes medical missions, the work in the hospitals and the Red Cross. Text books on these subjects have been prepared and will be a part of the interchurch novement educational program. Mrs. B. A. Thaxter of the First Presbyterian church was named chairman of the Portland committee, the other members of which are Mrs. T. W. Kirby, representing the Episcopal church; Mrs. W. B. Hinson, Baptist church; Mrs. C. O. Kurtz, Christian church; Mrs. A. N. Fisher, Methodist church; Mrs. E. H. Bliss, Congregational church; Mrs. S. Earl Du Bols, United Presbyterian church; Miss A. S. Lamberson, Presbyerian church. Further information concerning the conference may be obtained by calling up Broadway 2533.

Arrested for Theft

Cut prices brought about the arrest Friday afternoon of Joe Celestine on Celestine, says the police, stole a new the Eighteenth engineers and was in machine belonging to H. M. Glenn of mand when the unit went overseas, 1123 Hassalo street, and offered it for sale to a couple of strangers for the remarkably low sum of $100 cash. The men, notified the police and Celestine was arrested at his home, 1281. Burrage The stolen car was recovered
