"Spring Maid" Well Played And Sung

Alcazar Players, Oscar Figman et Al, Present Tuneful Operetta Pleasingly.

By S. B. Jr. Spring Maid" than in any other of the musical pleces presented to date by the Alcazar musical comedy company at the Alcazar, and be it said to the credit of this capable company that it "gets by" in grand style. There are a num-ber of funny things in the production. Some of them are purposely funny; others just happen to be so. For example, Oscar Figman's legs. But Oscar is funny all over, and in "The Spring Maid" he makes the most of his opportunities

The new attraction also presents more the way of ensemble chorus work than former pieces, and again it may be said to the credit of the performers and of Bishop, the director, that results highly satisfactory and entertaining, and particularly so as Stage Manager Bird has built such beautiful frames for the stage pictures.

Miss Wilbur as the Princess Bozens is seen and heard to advantage, par-ticularly in her solo, "Day Dreams," and with Aladar (Mr. Coote) in "Two Little love Bees," the dreamy, haunting, buzzy refrains that furnish the melody motif for the story. Miss Olivotti as Annamiri, the real spring maid, whose place at the spring is taken by Bozena that a certain young prince (Mr. Coote) may be taught a lesson in love, is just as dainty and sweet as she can be, and sings "The Loving Cup" in charming style. Miss Olivotti is particularly sprightly and clever this week.

Mr. Natanson is in particularly good form and voice, too, and Lee Daley as the town sleuth has a new style of character comedy in which he is adept. Detmar Popper does a ludicrous bit, too, and is properly dignified in turn.

May Wallace, Miss Desmond, Edward Sedan, Alvin Baird and Anna Lick do their musical and comedy bits entirely satisfactorily, and individually and ensemble the cast, principals and chorus, work together with artistic effect. the week, with matiness Wednesday and Saturday.

leanne d'Arc Residence Hall for Young Women Informally Opened.

DOSSESSION was taken Monday of I the Jeanne d'Arc residence hall for girls into which the old Virginia Hill hotel has been converted. The new halt will be conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of which Mother Agnes is the head for Oregon. Sister Regina will be in charge of the room purchasing department and of the dining room and kitchen and Sister Gerard will conduct the office and rooming department. They will have the assistance of more than dozen other sisters.

Handsome stuffed chairs and couch nahogony chairs and beautiful carpets of harmonizing tones are used in furnishing the reception rooms. The dining room is finished in oak. The upper floors, which are devoted to sleap-ing rooms are all covered with beauti-ful carpets of different colors and designs and some rooms are furnished in enameled furniture, some in mahogony some in cak and some in birdseye maple GIRLS MOVING IN

Fifteen girls moved into the new hall Monday, an additional 10 will go in oday and others have made reservations for a little later. Several have spoken for rooms in the fall, including several teachers who have gone out of the city for the summer. The charge made is based on the actual cost of upkeep, as the Sisters donate their services. Accommodations may be secured from $1.50 to $10 per week, according to the size and location of the rooms and the number in it. A flat charge of $5 per week is made for two meals, breakfast and dinner on week days and three meals on Sunday. The hall is open to girls and young women of all religious

One of the front rooms on the fifth floor will be known as the Mayflower room, having been furnished by that club of which Mrs. Helen J. Banghart is president. The room is carpeted in blue and furnished in cream colored enameled furniture.

The Daughters of Isabella turned over $275 to the Sisters, the proceeds from the presentation of the operetta, "The Golden Slipper," and this has been utilized in the furnishing of several rooms. Jenning & Co., have made a furniture of two rooms. Several of the parishes are planning future gifts of

The formal opening of the new residence hall will be held in July and will be in the nature of a reception in the afternoon and evening. At that time t is hoped by the committee in charge of the drive to finance the new institution, that they will be able to announce a total of $50,000 contributed. At this time the contributions total something over $42,000. D. J. Finn is still devoting much of his time to this work and is planning for the near future a systenatic canvass of the parishes of the state outside of Portland.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Tillamook Knights of Pythias had the entire city aroused over the advent of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan and Abd-Uhl-Atef temple Saturday. More than 200 of the visitors were given the freedom of the city with a procession that was the wonder of the year A class of 86 neophytes were chained together and driven along under the guard of 40 fierce and terrible brigands. Two ministers of the gospel in Tilla-mook, who are also D. O. K. K., attracted special attention by their remarkable "stunts" en route. One of them was not recognized even by his staid and reverend deacons and oldest parishioners. The "eats" were not confined to one meal or two, but were continuous and the tables were spread and all made velcome from 2:35 p. m. Saturday to 4 p. m. Sunday. It is said that some of the visitors partook of the hospitality every hour because a sign said they must do so. The special train returned Sunday evening, but some of the vallant Knights of Pythias and the D. O. K. K. remained over.

Multnomah camp, Woodmen of the World, is in a peck of trouble. It started in for a Fourth of July celebration and barbecue on Government island on the Columbia river, two weeks ago with one steamer and one "beef critter." Its committee was sure that was plenty. Then the tickets sold so fast that another steamer was added, a second steer was contracted for, and the committee rested. Still the rush ued and now, after a third steamer has been started, it is found necessary to get a fourth steamer—and there is no fourth steamer to be had. W. H. Mitchell, assistant clerk, has been appointed the "goat" on the steamer com-mittee and is raking up and down the waterfront in a vain effort to find anything larger than a gas launch that has not been chartered for that day. And still they come up for tickets. The sale is restricted to members and their fam-files, but with 3400 members all want-ing to go, it looks of if a United States transport is the only hope.

Probably Not Portland
"Broken Blossoms," now in New York, and the repertoire to follow it, will only be shown in one city in the West. This hint D. W. Griffith passed before he left
New York, but he didn't say which

Middle Aged Women Women should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, shortness of breath, excessive nervousness, irritability, and the blues — which indicate the approach of the inevitable "Change" that comes to all women nearing middle age. We have published volumes of proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest aid women can have during this trying period. Read About These Two Women: Fremont, O,—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Goddan, 225 Napoleon St., Frembut, Ohio.

Urbans, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms I, had an attack of gripps which lanted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my dector I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own bousework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. Frank Husson, 1316 South Orchade Street, Urbana, Ill.
